Amerika: The Missing Person Franz Kafka, 2011-08-16 From the author of The Metamorphosis and The Trial and one of the greatest writers of the twentieth century his first and funniest novel Amerika tells the story of the young Karl Rossmann who after an incident involving a housemaid is banished by his parents to America Expected to redeem himself in this magical land of opportunity young Karl is swept up instead in a whirlwind of dizzying reversals strange escapades and picaresque adventures Kafka began writing what he had entitled Der Verschollene The Missing Person in 1912 and wrote the last completed chapter in 1914 But it wasn't until 1927 three years after his death that Max Brod Kafka's friend and literary executor edited the unfinished manuscript and published it as Amerika

Kafka and Photography Carolin Duttlinger, 2007-12-06 Franz Kafka was fascinated by photography a medium which for him came to encapsulate both the attractions and the pitfalls of modern life In the first detailed study of photography in Kafka's work which includes more than 20 illustrations Carolin Duttlinger gives close readings of the most important prose works as well as the letters and diaries

The Literary Underground: Writers and the Totalitarian Experience, 1900-1950 John Hoyles, 1991-06-15 This wide ranging interdisciplinary study explores the concept of totalitarianism in western thought from Rousseau to George Orwell taking its examples from twentieth century European literature

Kafka's Rhetoric Clayton Koelb, 2019-05-15 In the first book to study Franz Kafka from the perspective of modern rhetorical theory Clayton Koelb explores such questions as how Kafka understood the reading process how he thematized the problematic of reading and how his highly distinctive style relates to what Koelb describes as the passion of reading

Privacy and Publicity Beatriz Colomina, 1996-02-28 Through a series of close readings of two major figures of the modern movement Adolf Loos and Le Corbusier Beatriz Colomina argues that architecture only becomes modern in its engagement with the mass media and that in so doing it radically displaces the traditional sense of space and subjectivity Privacy and Publicity boldly questions certain ideological assumptions underlying the received view of modern architecture and reconsiders the methodology of architectural criticism itself Where conventional criticism portrays modern architecture as a high artistic practice in opposition to mass culture Colomina sees the emerging systems of communication that have come to define twentieth century culture the mass media as the true site within which modern architecture was produced She considers architectural discourse as the intersection of a number of systems of representation such as drawings models photographs books films and advertisements This does not mean abandoning the architectural object the building but rather looking at it in a different way The building is understood here in the same way as all the media that frame it as a mechanism of representation in its own right With modernity the site of architectural production literally moved from the street into photographs films publications and exhibitions a displacement that presupposes a new sense of space one defined by images rather than walls This age of publicity corresponds to a transformation in the status of the private Colomina argues modernity is actually the publicity of the private Modern architecture renegotiates the traditional relationship between public and private in a way that profoundly alters the experience of space In a fascinating intellectual journey Colomina tracks this shift through the modern incarnations of the archive the city fashion war sexuality advertising the window and the museum finally concentrating on the domestic interior that constructs the modern subject it appears merely to house Deleuze, Marx and Politics Nicholas Thoburn, 2003-09-02 A critical and provocative exploration of the political conceptual and cultural points of resonance between Deleuze's minor politics and Marx's critique of capitalist dynamics engaging with Deleuze's missing work The Grandeur of Marx This book explores the core categories of communism and capital in conjunction with a wealth of contemporary and historical political concepts and movements from the lumpenproletariat and anarchism to Italian autonomia and Antonio Negri immaterial labour and the refusal of work This book will serve as an introduction to Deleuze's politics and the contemporary vitality of Marx for students and will challenge scholars in the fields of social and political theory sociology and cultural studies Mother Jones Magazine, 1984-12 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues You Can Go Home Again Tracey Laszloffy, Monica McGoldrick, 2024-06-11 Are you ready to reconnect with family in a meaningful way but unsure where or how to begin This beloved classic poignantly explains how constructing the genogram or a basic family tree can help us to better understand and mend family relationships and dynamics Readers learn how genograms can reveal a family's history of estrangement alliance divorce or suicide exposing intergenerational patterns that prove more than coincidental The book sheds light on a range of complex issues such as birth order and sibling rivalry family myths and secrets cultural differences couple relationships and the pivotal role of loss In the third edition of this revelatory book godmother of genograms Monica McGoldrick and family therapist Tracey Laszloffy focus on aiding readers in their own work to understand their family history and change their role in relationships where there is distance conflict or cutoff Readers will also find new and updated material on the intergenerational transmission of trauma the ramifications of uncovering family secrets via DNA testing and more If you've ever struggled to understand the complex dynamics of your family and your place within it this book is for you The Creators Daniel J. Boorstin, 1993-09-28 By piecing the lives of selected individuals into a grand mosaic Pulitzer Prize winning historian Daniel J. Boorstin explores the development of artistic innovation over 3 000 years A hugely ambitious chronicle of the arts that Boorstin delivers with the scope that made his Discoverers a national bestseller Even as he tells the stories of such individual creators as Homer Joyce Giotto Picasso Handel Wagner and Virginia Woolf Boorstin assembles them into a grand mosaic of aesthetic and intellectual invention In the process he tells us not only how great art and great architecture and philosophy is created but where it comes from and how it has shaped and mirrored societies from Vedic India to the twentieth century United States

Searching for Sebald Lise Patt, Christel Dillbohner, 2007 W G Sebald's books are sui generis hybrids of fiction travelogue autobiography and historical expos in which a narrator both Sebald and not Sebald comments on the quick blossoming of natural wonders and the long deaths that come of human atrocities All his narratives are punctuated with images murky photographs architectural plans engravings paintings newspaper clippings inserted into the prose without captions and often without obvious connection to the words that surround them This important volume includes a rare 1993 interview called But the written word is not a true document A Conversation with W G Sebald about Photography and Literature in which Sebald talks exclusively about his use of photographs It contains some of Sebald's most illuminating and poetic remarks about the topic yet In it he discusses Barthes the photograph's appeal the childhood image of Kafka family photographs and even images he never used in his writings In addition Searching for Sebald positions Sebald within an art historical tradition that begins with the Surrealists continues through Joseph Beuys and blossoms in the recent work of Christian Boltanski and Gerhard Richter and tracks his continuing inspiration to artists such as Tacita Dean and Helen Mirra An international roster of artists and scholars unpacks the intricacies of his unique method Seventeen theoretical essays approach Sebald through the multiple filters of art history Krauss film studies Kluge cultural theory Benjamin psychoanalysis Freud and especially photographic history and theory Barthes Kracauer and 17 modern and contemporary art projects are read through a Sebaldian filter If Sebald's artistic output acts as a touchstone for new critical theory being written on post medium photographic practices Searching for Sebald suggests a model for new investigations in the burgeoning field of visual studies

Ghostwriting Richard T. Gray, 2017-11-16 Ghostwriting provides the first comprehensive analysis of the fictional prose narratives of one of contemporary Germany's most recognized authors the migr writer W G Sebald Examining Sebald's well known published texts in the context of largely unknown unpublished works and informed by documents and information from Sebald's literary estate this book offers a detailed portrait of his characteristic literary techniques and how they emerged and matured out of the practices and attitudes he represented in his profession as a literary scholar The title Ghostwriting signals the convergence in Sebald's works of a set of diverse historical questions philosophical views and literary practices Many historical ghosts haunt Sebald's narratives on the level of story Moreover Sebald's narrator plays the role of a ghostwriter in the profound sense that his stories fictionally re enact the histories of obscure but once living individuals whose lives they revitalize and whose fates are tied up with the most virulent historical conjunctures of the modern world This study thus seeks to comprehend the constitutive elements of Sebald's poetics of history his implementation of literary tools for effective historical memorializing

Kafka Nicholas Murray, 2004-01-01 A biography of the novelist and short story writer explores the cultural and historical context of his fiction as well as his poor relationship with his father
