Frasers Tour Diaries:

Fraser's Tour Diaries A. Fraser, 1998 Canadian Diaries and Autobiographies William Matthews, 2023-11-15
Canadian Diaries and Autobiographies is a meticulously compiled bibliography of personal narratives that provide an intimate look into the fabric of Canadian life. Covering both British and French Canada, this collection includes diaries and autobiographies from a wide range of individuals offering insights into the nation's political, social, and cultural history. The entries span topics such as exploration, the fur trade, agriculture, industry, and social life, presenting a vivid panorama of Canadian experiences across all ranks and occupations. With annotations that detail the content and significance of each document, this book serves as a valuable resource for historians, sociologists, and literary scholars interested in uncovering the personal and often untold stories that have shaped Canada's historical narrative. This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program, which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach, and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high-quality, peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology. This title was originally published in 1950.

Chronicles of the Frasers James Fraser, 1905 A Life of Admiral of the Fleet Andrew Cunningham Michael Simpson, 2020-09-23
This book presents an account of the life of naval commander Andrew Cunningham, the best known and most celebrated British admiral of the Second World War. It supplements Cunningham's papers by Cabinet and Admiralty records, papers of his service contemporaries, and of Churchill. Fraser's Magazine, 1881 Fraser's Magazine for Town and Country, 1869 Fraser's Magazine for Town and Country James Anthony Froude, John Tulloch, 1878
Contains the first printing of Sartor Resartus as well as other works by Thomas Carlyle. Four Travel Journals / The Americas, Antarctica and Africa / 1775-1874 R. J. Campbell, Herbert K. Beals, Ann Savours, Anita McConnell, Roy Bridges, 2017-05-15
This volume offers annotated texts with biographical and historical introductions of four previously unpublished travel journals from the period 1775-1874. The first of these is the journal of a participant in a Spanish expedition sent from Mexico to explore the north-west coast of America. From the outset, difficulties plagued the voyage. Bodega's ship, a small schooner named Sonora, was not designed for open ocean voyaging. A landing party was attacked and killed midway into the voyage; the Sonora became separated from her flagship and later she was nearly capsized by a massive wave. Bodega's journal records the voyage's travails, hardships, discoveries, and eventual return. Next comes the journal of Commander Stokes, who served in command of HMS Beagle under Captain P. P. King during the survey of the Straits of Magellan in 1827. This is an account of a detached operation in very difficult weather conditions in the western part of the strait. It is introduced by remarks on the expedition and the hydrographic history of the strait from its discovery to the inception of the survey and supplemented by remarks from Captain King's account and also that of the clerk Macdougall. The third text is the journal of a young midshipman in HMS Chanticleer, a small vessel commanded by Henry Foster RN, who had recently been elected a Fellow of the Royal

Society for his scientific work in the Arctic The voyage of 1828-31 was to make observations in the South Atlantic to determine the shape of the Earth and to ascertain the longitudes of a number of ports Kay's lively diary describes the Chanticleer's encounters with warships of the Brazilian navy largely manned by Englishmen He records his struggle to take observations at Deception Island during gales and snowstorms and near Cape Horn in fierce squalls and constant chilling rain nevertheless remaining cheerful in the company of his fellow midshipmen The final piece is the diary of Jacob Wainwright
