Frederick County, Virginia Maral S. Kalbian,1999 Jefferson County Historical Society Magazine (2017) James L. Glymph (ed.),2017-12-31 The Membership Lists pages 5 15 have been moved to the back of the Magazine Slavery and Freedom in the Shenandoah Valley during the Civil War Era Jonathan A. Noyalas,2022-11-01 The African American experience in Virginia s Shenandoah Valley from the antebellum period through Reconstruction This book examines the complexities of life for African Americans in Virginia s Shenandoah Valley from the antebellum period through Reconstruction Although the Valley was a site of fierce conflicts during the Civil War and its military activity has been extensively studied scholars have largely ignored the Black experience in the region until now Correcting previous assumptions that slavery was not important to the Valley and that enslaved people were treated better there than in other parts of the South Jonathan Noyalas demonstrates the strong hold of slavery in the region He explains that during the war enslaved and free African Americans navigated a borderland that changed hands frequently where it was possible to be in Union territory one day Confederate territory the next and no man s land another He shows that the region s enslaved population resisted slavery and supported the Union war effort by serving as scouts spies and laborers or by fleeing to enlist in regiments of the United States Colored Troops Noyalas draws on untapped primary resources including thousands of records from the Freedmen s Bureau and contemporary newspapers to continue the story and reveal the challenges African Americans faced from former Confederates after the war He traces their actions which were shaped uniquely by the volatility of the struggle in this region to ensure that the war s emancipationist legacy would survive A volume in the series Southern Dissent edited by Stanley Harrold and Randall M Miller American Book Publishing Record ,2000 Virginia's Historic Courthouses Margaret T. Peters,1995 They examine historic structures ranging from the Essex County courthouse 1729 and the King William County courthouse built ca 1725 and one of the oldest public buildings in continuous use in the nation to the newer historic courthouses such as Richmond s massive Supreme Court State Library Building dedicated in 1941

Writing Freedom into Narratives of Racial Injustice in Virginia's Shenandoah Valley Ann Denkler,2020-10-15 Far too many towns and cities across the United States continue to deny the history of the interstate trade of enslaved men women and children and are resistant to recognizing sites associated with enslavement The Shenandoah Valley of Virginia is one of these regions and its historical texts and public history sites perpetuate the racist belief that enslaved individuals were not a factor in the establishment and history of this region because the census numbers in the antebellum era were low In the case of the valley myriad discourses have created a false story of the non presence of African Americans that as it became increasingly replicated became more and more thought of as the truth This book refocuses the study of enslavement and African American history on the narratives of two individuals who were enslaved in the valley region Bethany Veney and the distinctively named John Quincy Adams to help build upon the nascent scholarship of valley enslavement and emancipation

By privileging the narratives it asserts that enslaved individuals were astute self-conscious historians who knew that they were forging a literary style but also amending the historical record that had kept them absent. The book advocates the unearthing of a more complete and equitable American past but also pushes for an interrogation of how and why false mythological pasts have been constructed and examines the legacies these myths have left behind. The Architecture of Jefferson Country K. Edward Lay, 2000 But what is less well known are the many important examples of other architectural idioms built in this Piedmont Virginia county many by nationally renowned architects America, History and Life, 2004 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide History, Memory and War Steven Trout, 2006-12-01 A collection of essays that seeks to undo Willa Cather's longstanding reputation as a writer who remained aloof from the cultural issues of the day Proceedings, American Philosophical Society (vol. 124, No. 1, 1980) , History of Virginia, 1924 The Backcountry Towns of Colonial Virginia Christopher E. Hendricks, 2006 Hendricks writes on how towns in backcountry Virginia came about from the designs and ambitions of entrepreneurial individuals They did not just spring up randomly in some pleasing meadow or on some riverbank happened upon by a frontiersman for example or a group which had struck out into the wilderness The people who put these plans for towns into action were motivated by a variety of economic social or philanthropic factors and sometimes purely by circumstance and opportunity These entrepreneurial like individuals were not a part of any organized movement But their activities in toto played a large part in opening up the western parts of Virginia and setting a pattern for westward expansion Among the towns Hendricks studies in larger topological areas such as the Piedmont and the Great Valley Shenandoah are Winchester Marysville Leesburg Woodstock Charlottesville and Brent Town Early maps of many of the towns especially demonstrate the ideas and purposes of their founders Along with the maps the authors specifics on the conception establishment and early period of the many towns makes each one stand out distinctively The enterprises and goals of the town were as varied as the individuals who conceived them Gallant Creoles Michael Marshall, 2013 Composed of Creole and Cajun citizen soldiers the Donaldsonville Canonniere were originally organized as a militia company in 1837 and were one of the most active and highly regarded Louisiana units during the American Civil War Known as the Donaldsonville Artillery during the conflict the Canonniere were a conspicuous part of General Robert E Lee's Army of Northern Virginia participating in a number of skirmishes artillery duels and battles including Yorktown Williamsburg Seven Pines Seven Days Second Manassas Sharpsburg Fredericksburg Gettysburg North Anna Second Cold Harbor Petersburg and Appomattox Station The Canonniere reorganized in July 1875 and were eventually accepted into Federal service during the Spanish American War before disbanding for good in November 1898 Gallant Creoles A History of the Donaldsonville Canonniere records the history of this Louisiana militia company and also includes extensive biographies of each Donaldsonville Canonniere who served during the Civil War The Domestic Architecture of Benjamin Henry
