Free Enterprise And Jewish Law:

Free Enterprise and Jewish Law Aaron Levine, 1980 Economic Morality and Jewish Law Aaron Levine, 2012-08-16
Economic Morality and Jewish Law compares the way in which welfare economics and Jewish law determine the propriety of an economic action whether by a private citizen or the government. Issues explored include negative externalities, price controls, the lemons problem, the living wage, and short selling. The Oxford Handbook of Judaism and Economics Aaron Levine, 2010-11-12
The interaction of Judaism and economics encompasses many different dimensions. Much of this interaction can be explored through the way in which Jewish law accommodates and even enhances commercial practice today and in past societies. From this context, The Oxford Handbook of Judaism and Economics explores how Judaism as a religion and Jews as a people relate to the economic sphere of life in modern society as well as in the past. Bringing together an astonishingly strong group of top scholars, the volume approaches the subject from a variety of angles, providing one of the most comprehensive, well-rounded, and authoritative accounts of the intersections of Judaism and economics yet produced. Aaron Levine first offers a brief overview of the nature and development of Jewish law as a legal system, then presents essays from a variety of angles and areas of expertise. The book offers contributions on economic theory in the Bible and in the Talmud, on the interaction between Jewish law, ethics, modern society, and public policy, then presents illuminating explorations of Judaism throughout economic history and the ways in which economics has influenced Jewish history. The Oxford Handbook of Judaism and Economics at last offers an extensive and welcome resource by leading scholars and economists on the vast and delightfully complex relationship between economics and Judaism. Jewish Ethics and Halakhah for Our Time Basil Herring, 1984 Judaism and World Religion Norman Solomon, 1991-06-18
A text which draws on traditional sources mainly but not exclusively Jewish to address contemporary issues ranging from conservation of the environment through to business and commercial ethics to relations between State and religion. Understanding Unjust Enrichment Jason W. Neyers, Mitchell McInnes, Stephen G.A. Pitel, 2004-04
The articles based on a symposium held in 2003 deal with numerous theoretical and practical issues that surround restitution and unjust enrichment. The World Market and Interreligious Dialogue Catherine Cornille, Glenn Willis, 2011-09-06
The fair and equitable distribution of wealth and the cultivation of proper attitudes toward material goods and economic development concern all religious traditions alike. In so far as the dynamics of the world market or the global economic system transcend the competency and control of any particular religion, dialogue between religions as well as between religionists and economists becomes both possible and necessary. This volume brings together religious thinkers from various traditions as well as economists to reflect on the possibilities and the challenges of such dialogue. The Next Phase of Business Ethics Michael Schwartz, Howard Harris, 2019-09-04
This volume looks at the role of organizations in society, the international and multidisciplinary scope of business ethics, and the importance of narrative. The Concept of Economy in Judaism, Christianity and Islam

Impact of the Market Jurgen von Hagen, Michael Welker, John Witte, Stephen Pickard, 2022-07-29 Pluralism has become the defining characteristic of modern societies. Individuals with differing values clamor for equality. Organizations and groups assert particular interests. Social movements flourish and fade. Some see in this clash of principles and aims the potential for a more just human community while others fear the erosion of enduring culture. Yet beneath this welter stand powerful and pervasive institutions whose distinctive norms profoundly shape our moral commitments and character, notably the family, the market, the media, and systems of law, religion, politics, research, education, health care, and defense. Drawing on scholarship from five continents, many disciplines, and diverse religious perspectives, this series examines the impact of these various institutions on moral education, character, and values. As globalization carries the shifting dynamic between individuals and institutions into every part of the globe, the contributors hope that this conversation will help address the increasing challenges confronting our pluralist societies and our world. In the theoretical, empirical, and historical contributions to this volume, theologians, economists, and market practitioners discuss the many tensions between market economics, ethics, and the Christian religion, thus adding to the fruitful and much needed dialogue between economics and theology. With contributions by Jason Brennan, Michael J. Broyde, Ginny Seung Choi, Samuel Gregg, Peter Lampe, Manfred Lautenschlager, Frank J. Lechner, Klaus Leisinger, Katrin G. Liden, Le Maire Piet Naud, Paul Oslington, Stephen Pickard, William Schweiker, Virgil Henry Storr, Jurgen von Hagen, Michael Welker, Kaja Wieczorek, and John Witte. Contributions by Peter Carnley, Gregor Etzel, J. Johannes Eurich, Jennifer Herdt, Adriel Kosman, Piet Naud, Waihan Ng, Friederike Nessel, Bernd Oberdorfer, Martin Percy, Stephen Pickard, Raja Sakrani, William Schweiker, Philipp Stoellger, Milton Wan, Renee Ip, Michael Welker, and John Witte Jr.
