Rodgers, Bhavani Raman, Helmut Reimitz, 2013-12-08 In the wide ranging and innovative essays of Cultures in Motion a dozen distinguished historians offer new conceptual vocabularies for understanding how cultures have trespassed across geography and social space From the transformations of the meanings and practices of charity during late antiquity and the transit of medical knowledge between early modern China and Europe to the fusion of Irish and African dance forms in early nineteenth century New York these essays follow a wide array of cultural practices through the lens of motion translation itinerancy and exchange extending the insights of transnational and translocal history Cultures in Motion challenges the premise of fixed stable cultural systems by showing that cultural practices have always been moving crossing borders and locations with often surprising effect The essays offer striking examples from early to modern times of intrusion translation resistance and adaptation These are histories where nothing dance rhythms alchemical formulas musical practices feminist aspirations sewing machines streamlined metals or labor networks remains stationary In addition to the editors the contributors are Celia Applegate Peter Brown Harold Cook April Masten Mae Ngai Jocelyn Olcott Mimi Sheller Pamela Smith and Nira Wickramasinghe Some images inside the book are unavailable due to digital copyright restrictions Historicising Gender and Sexuality Kevin P. Murphy, Jennifer M. Spear, 2011-09-07 Historicising Gender and Sexuality features a diverse collection of essays that shed new light on the historical intersections between gender and sexuality across time and space Demonstrates both the particularities of specific formulations of gender and sexuality and the nature of the relationship between the categories themselves Presents evidence that careful and contextualised analysis of the shifting relationship of gender and sexuality illuminates broader historical processes Sex and Secularism Joan Wallach Scott, 2019-11-12 Drawing on a wealth of scholarship by second wave feminists and historians of religion race and colonialism Scott shows that the gender equality invoked today as a fundamental and enduring principle was not originally associated with the term secularism when it first entered the lexicon in the nineteenth century In fact the inequality of the sexes was fundamental to the articulation of the separation of church and state that inaugurated Western modernity Scott points out that Western nation states imposed a new order of women's subordination assigning them to a feminized familial sphere meant to complement the rational masculine realms of politics and economics It was not until the question of Islam arose in the late twentieth century that gender equality became a primary feature of the discourse of secularism Publisher's description
