Global Images Of Peace And Education Transforming The War System:

Global Images of Peace T. M. Thomas, David R. Conrad, Gertrude F. Langsam, 1985 Educating Beyond Violent Futures Francis Hutchinson, 2005-06-27 As we enter the Twenty First Century it is easy to assume that worsening trends in violence will be a feature of our lives whether in our schools our societies or as a species Educating Beyond Violent Futures challenges assumptions that trends in violence are destiny and raises crucial questions about choice and engagement Drawing upon new research this book is essential reading for those who want to prepare our children for living constructively in the next century Lies My Teacher Told Me James Loewen, 2008-04-08 Since its first publication in 1995 Lies My Teacher Told Me has gone on to win an American Book Award the Oliver Cromwell Cox Award for Distinguished Anti Racist Scholarship and to sell over half a million copies in its various editions What started out as a survey of the twelve leading American history textbooks has ended up being what the San Francisco Chronicle calls an extremely convincing plea for truth in education In Lies My Teacher Told Me James W Loewen brings history alive in all its complexity and ambiguity Beginning with pre Columbian history and ranging over characters and events as diverse as Reconstruction Helen Keller the first Thanksgiving and the Mai Lai massacre Loewen offers an eye opening critique of existing textbooks and a wonderful retelling of American history as it should and could be taught to American students This 10th anniversary edition features a handsome new cover and a new introduction by the author Lies My Teacher Told Me James W. Loewen, 2008 Criticizes the way history is presented in current textbooks and suggests a more accurate approach to teaching American history Prospects ,1988 Teacher Education Quarterly ,1989 Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton, 1990 Third World Struggle for Peace with Justice Thomas P. Fenton, Mary J. Heffron, 1990 Yearbook Kenneth A. Tye, 1990 Viewed as a social movement for change the global education movement calls for the infusion of a global perspective into all curriculum areas Two assumptions of global education include the view of the individual school as the optimal unit for change efforts and the importance of local teacher and school action for lasting school improvement This yearbook defines global education explains its importance describes its implementation and demonstrates its uses for school improvement The first part examines the context of schooling in which a global perspective can be developed and the second part is directed toward issues of practice In chapter 1 Lee F Anderson develops an argument for global studies in the schools Barbara Benham Tye delineates the problems inherent in changing school curriculum in chapter 2 The last chapter of this section by Steven L Lamy presents a framework for understanding extremist ultraconservative attacks on global education In the next chapter James Becker links global education to citizenship education Jane A Boston discusses educational leadership in global education in chapter 5 Ida Urso examines the role of teachers in chapter 6 and uses qualitative data to show how global education can promote cross cultural understanding and be a renewing force for teachers In chapter 7 Jan L Tucker explores the complex problem of creating educational collaborations between schools and universities Charlotte C Anderson documents many ways in which global education involves schools and students with their communities in chapter 8 In chapter 9 Toni Fuss Kirkwood uses personal experience to show how and why global education has become a successful vehicle for school improvement The conclusion by Kenneth A Tye explores themes gathered in a Center for Human Interdependence CIH field study of bringing a global perspective to school curricula Chapters include references LMI

Gender Imperative Betty A. Reardon, Asha Hans, 2018-07-27 This collection of essays by feminist scholar activists addresses the crucial problem of human security in a world of heavily armed militarized states. It describes the gendered aspects of human security excluded from the realist militarism that dominates current security policy in most nation states. The book deepens and broadens current security discourses encouraging serious consideration of alternatives to the present global security system that functions to advantage state security over human security, a system the contributors perceive to be rooted in the patriarchal nature of the nation state. This second edition will be of interest to academics and students of gender studies, women's studies, international studies, development studies, human rights, security studies, peace studies, and peace education. Readings in Critical Sociology Levon Chorbajian, 1989 Exploring Betty A. Reardon's

Perspective on Peace Education Dale T. Snauwaert, 2019-05-15 This book presents commentaries by a leading international group of peace education scholars and practitioners concerning Reardon's peace education theory and intellectual legacy. The guiding question throughout the book is: How can her foundational work be used to advance the theory and practice of peace education? In an attempt to find answers, the contributing authors explore three general areas of inquiry: 1. Theoretical Foundations of Peace and Human Rights Education; 2. Feminism and the Gender Perspective as Pathways of Transformation Toward Peace and Justice; and 3. Peace Education Pedagogy and Practices. A contemplative commentary by Reardon herself rounds out the coverage. Peace, Literature, and Art - Volume II Ada

Aharoni, 2009-08-30 Peace Literature and Art is the component of Encyclopedia of Social Sciences and Humanities in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems (EOLSS), which is an integrated compendium of twenty-one Encyclopedias. Culture is the essence of individual and national identity. What children and people read and watch and the kind of Culture Literature and Media they are exposed to through home education and society provide them with basic values, attitudes, and norms which affect and motivate them throughout their lives. It is of crucial importance, therefore, that those stories we are exposed to at the socio-cultural and educational levels which we watch on television, in films, and on the Internet, and which we read, should be peaceful ones which open our eyes to a humane world that can prosper from peace and harmony. This Theme on Peace Literature and Art deals in two volumes and covers several topics related to Peace Education: Definition, Approaches, and Future Directions; Importance of a Literature and a Culture of Peace. These two volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences: University and College Students, Educators, Professional Practitioners, Research Personnel, and Policy Analysts, Managers, and Decision Makers, NGOs, and GOs.
