Globalization Studies: Theories, Research & Teaching Leonid Grinin, Ilya Ilyin, Andrey Korotayev, 2013-09-30. This is the second issue of the new series titled Globalistics and Globalization Studies. Globalistics may be regarded as a sort of systemic and more or less integrated core within Global Studies. At present Global Studies function in two main dimensions in the research of global political economic cultural and social processes on the one hand and in the realm of teaching manifesting themselves in the creation of various Global Studies programs and courses for university students who learn to see the world in its entirety and variety. The second dimension is immensely important as the contents of such programs and courses may determine how the world will be comprehended by those people who may decide its fate in a decade or two. This dualistic nature of Global Studies has determined the general direction of our anthology that comprises both the theoretical dimension of Global Studies and their application to the teaching process. The anthology consists of three parts presenting a wide range of views on the meaning of the contemporary epoch the past and the future of some important global processes as well as the problems and successes in the teaching process of Global Studies. Part 1 Globalization in Historical Retrospective. Part 2 Globalistics Global Studies and Global Processes. Part 3 Teaching Global Studies. In the present anthology one can find perceptions of globalization by a number of famous scholars from different countries of the world Ervin Laszlo Christopher Chase Dunn and others but one can also get to know rather peculiar visions of globalization by Russian scientists and educators Philosophical Aspects of Globalization: A Multidisciplinary Inquiry, 2022-06-08 Globalization is a defining characteristic of our contemporary world with a reach and impact affecting all nations and peoples Philosophical Aspects of Globalization is a collection of essays by leading contemporary Russian philosophers scholars and scientists concerned with addressing pressing issues of globalization from a philosophical point of view The thirty four authors who have contributed to this book represent a range of approaches and subfields of Global Studies in Russia including topics such as theory of globalization globalization and the environment history and geopolitics and globalization in cultural context When compiled together in a single collection of essays their work offers the English speaking reader a comprehensive picture of new directions in Russian Global Studies in the twenty first century as well as demonstrates the importance of questions of globalization for philosophical inquiry in Russia today
