Globalization And Civilizations:

Globalization and Civilizations Mehdi Mozaffari, 2003-09-02 Globalization and Civilizations challenges established assumptions about the nature of civilizations and the supposed inevitability of the conflict between the Islamic and Western worlds Uniquely this edited book critically interrogates the concept of civilization by asking whether it is still valid in the globalized world economy of the twenty first century The first half of the book provides an historical and theoretical context to understand the idea of civilization in political science and demonstrates how the various social economic political and cultural processes of globalization have radically altered perceptions of civilization The second half of the book looks particularly at non Western examples of the interaction between globalization and civilization and includes case studies on the Arab world Islam China India and Europe Globalization and Civilizations Mehdi Mozaffari, 2002 Uniquely critically interrogates the concept of civilization by asking whether it is still valid in the globalized world economy of the twenty first century Includes case studies on the Arab world Islam China and Japan Beyond Civilization Harry Redner, 2013-01-31 For Harry Redner the phrase beyond civilization refers to the new and unprecedented condition the world is now entering specifically the condition commonly known as globalization Redner approaches globalization from the perspective of history and seeks to interpret it in relation to previous key stages of human development His account begins with the Axial Age 700 300 BC and proceeds through Modernity after AD 1500 to the present global condition What is globalization doing to civilization In answering this guestion Redner studies the role played by capitalism the state science and technology He aims to show that they have had a catalytic impact on civilization through their reductive effect on society culture and individualism However Redner is not content to diagnose the ills of civilization he also suggests how they might be ameliorated by cultural conservation Above all it is to the problem of decline in the higher forms of literacy that he addresses himself for it is on the culture of the book that previous civilizations were founded This study will be of interest to sociologists historians and social and political theorists Its style makes it accessible also to general readers interested in civilization past present and future Global Civilization in the 21st Century Andrew Targowski, 2014-05-25 The purpose of this book is to evaluate the question What does the New World Order NWO mean in the 21st century After the Polish Revolution in 1989 and the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 and the Soviet Union in 1991 many people expected better times than those during the Cold War between the West and East Since Communism lost to Capitalism can the latter promote freedom and happiness for all of us everywhere However this dream did not happen vice versa we face now so called liquid times times of instability and chaos Therefore this book is written for those who would like to know why the supposedly ideal economic solution known as Capitalism cannot bring happiness to all of us as it is promised by its promoters This means that the book should be interesting for all kinds of readers and could be potentially read by millions The book discusses Hegelian dialectics under the form of competition among ideas that have been neglected in the NOW 21st century and unopposed Capitalism has been transformed into Turbo Capitalism also known as Undemocratic Capitalism This process is supported by additive waves of globalization taking place in the last 500 years Eventually in the 21st century humanity is facing the resulted transformation of western civilization into global civilization. The book analyzes this transformational process and its positive and negative Globalization and Civilization Ali Al'Amin Mazrui, Patrick M. Dikirr, Shalahudin repercussions for humanity Wisdom in the Context of Globalization and Civilization Henryk Krawczyk, 2019-11-26 What happens when our developed knowledge does not support human activities in politics economy culture and infrastructure today The solution lies in knowing what wisdom is and willingly applying it to most of humanity's activities transforming a chaotic civilization into a wise one A merely knowledge rich society cannot sustain its civilization without being wise and willing to learn and apply this essential human virtue in practice This book investigates the issues of human cognition with regards to current issues surrounding globalization and civilization in such a way as to define wisdom not only as an art but as a science too Its investigation emphasises the learning of wisdom at schools and colleges and stresses that its application in practice should be as commonplace as arithmetic Understanding Cultural Globalization Paul Hopper, 2007-12-17 Paul Hopper leads the reader through the varied issues associated with globalization and culture including deterritorialization cosmopolitanism cultural hybridization and homogenization as well as claims that aspects of globalization are provoking cultural resistance

Reflections on the Global Civilization Majid Tehranian, Daisaku Ikeda, 2015-12-21 Globalization has brought different civilizations and peoples into new and closer contact But this novel intimacy has not always led to greater understanding There is an urgent need to work towards a global civilization based on principles of peace mutual respect and tolerance It is precisely that goal which the participants attempt in this classic dialogue Inspired by the encounters between Buddhism and Islam as they exchanged ideas and goods along the Silk Road it brings together a Sufi Muslim from Iran and one of the world s most influential lay Buddhist leaders to explore the vibrant areas of common ground between the Islamic and Buddhist traditions Coloured by Sufi philosophy and by Buddhist thought and practice and drawing on a diverse selection of thinkers including Rumi and Hafez Rabindranath Tagore Jurgen Habermas and Antonio Gramsci Reflections on the Global Civilization offers a profound meditation on conflict loss and injustice as well as the vitality of interfaith discussion It shows that Islam and Buddhism have much to offer not only to each other but also to the world as a whole Globalization and Politics Jan-Erik Lane, 2017-11-28 Globalization and Politics brings together vision and imaginative insight to the analysis of the evolution of inter state politics to produce a clear comprehensive and coherent sense of how globalization works and how it might work better The study looks upon globalization as a distinct set of phenomena energy economy environment and politics all of which interact Presenting opportunities for interdependency and governance globalization offers both dangers and promises which explains why it is equally feared and praised Globalization is an economic trend with strong spillovers and as such has become a political trend with cultural implications. This volume is an invaluable highly readable new text for graduate and undergraduate courses It sets out the key challenges for globalization in the 21st century and looks at the challenges responses and risks of globalization It is required reading for analysts students and professionals who want to understand what s at stake in the globalization debate World Civilizations And History Of Human Development Robert Holton, William Richard Nasson, 2009-09-29 World Civilizations and History of Human Development is a component of Encyclopedia of Social Sciences and Humanities in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty Encyclopedias The Theme on World Civilizations and History of Human Development discusses the essential aspects such as Civilizational Analysis A Paradigm in the Making The European Civilizational Constellation A Historical Sociology African Civilizations From the Pre colonial to the Modern Day Industrial Civilization Global Civilization Yesterday Today and Tomorrow Islamic Civilizations War Peace And Civilizations History The Meaning and Role of History in Human Development Role of Human Societies in the History of The Biosphere Environmentalism Role of Gender and Family Identities in Human History Modern Approaches to the Teaching of History Developing Dialogues The Value of Oral History Historical Knowledge Nature and Man Orientations to Historical Time Big History This volume is aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College Students Educators Professional Practitioners Research Personnel and Policy Analysts Managers and Decision Makers NGOs and GOs Totalitarianism, Globalization, Colonialism Harry Redner, 2014-05-23 The century that began in 1914 with the outbreak of the First World War was catastrophic Over the course of that one hundred year span civilizations were destroyed in the Old World the New World and the Third World the latter represented by China India and Islam In Europe the main agent of destruction was totalitarianism in America it was globalization ushered in by modernity and in the non Western world it was colonialism followed later by totalitarianism and globalization Harry Redner examines each of these processes providing theoretical and historical accounts of their emergence He considers the effects of Nazism and Bolshevism on the morale and morals of Europe studies the effects on the United States of the nation's emergence as a major world power and describes the impact of modernization on China India and Islam as they underwent Europeanization Sovietization and Americanization Redner confronts us with a paradox in the midst of unprecedented material affluence and organizational efficiency one that uses advanced technologies and cutting edge scientific knowledge we are also sinking into an unprecedented cultural moral intellectual and spiritual decline He locates the origins of this condition in the violently contradictory processes of the twentieth century

Globalization and Identity Majid Tehranian, B. Jeannie Lum, 2011-12-31 In the first decade of the twenty first century globalization and identity have emerged as the most critical challenges to world peace This volume of Peace Policy addresses the overarching question What are the effects of globalization in the areas of culture ethnic diversity religion and citizenship and how does terrorism help groups attain a sense of global identity Part I Citizenship in a Globalizing World reexamines globalization in light of the traditions from which human civilizations have evolved Linda Groff focuses on Samuel

R Huntington's thesis that the Cold War would be followed by a clash of civilizations Joseph A Camilleri traces the history of the concept of citizenship and its transformation through the ages to modern times Kamran Mofid argues that the marketplace is not just an economic sphere but one where economic and business interests must embrace the spiritual assets of the community Majid Tehranian raises the problem of identity and advocates the assumption of global identity responsibility and citizenship Part II Convergence in Global Cultures explores the complex issues of diversity in religions Christopher Leeds Vladimir Korobov and Bharapt Gupt show how the reconceptualization of the world both geographically and regionally can recreate new sensibilities needed to overcome differences Part III Divergence in Global Conflicts discusses the multiple dimensions of the globalizing effects of economic expansion and political strife experienced by different cultures at local and regional levels Audrey Kitigawa and Ade Ogunrinade use Nigeria as an example of political manipulation of religious and ethnic groups to divert attention from the real problems of social and economic marginalization Fred Riggs looks at how the Web has become a medium in the globalization of religious movements. The authors maintain that continuing efforts for dialogue across cultural and religious boundaries in today s interreligious and interfaith organizations can become a force for healing Global Standards of Market Civilization Brett Bowden, Leonard Seabrooke, 2006-10-03 Global Standards of Market Civilization brings together leading scholars representing a range of political views to investigate how global standards of market civilization have emerged their justification and their political economic and social impact Key chapters show how as the modern state system has evolved such standards have also developed incorporating the capacity for social cooperation and self government to which states must conform in order to fully participate as legitimate members in international society This study analyzes their justification and their political economic and social impact Civilization is a term widely used within modern political discourse its meaning yet it is poorly understood and misused part I explores the idea of a standard of civilization its implications for governance and the use of such standards in political theory and economic thought as well as its historical application part II presents original case studies that demonstrate the emergence of such standards and explore the diffusion of liberal capitalist ideas through the global political economy and the consequences for development and governance the International Monetary Fund's capacity to formulate a global standard of civilization in its reform programs and problems in the development of the global trade including the issue of intellectual property rights This book will be of strong interest to students and scholars in wide range of fields relating to the study of globalization including international political economy international political theory international relations theory comparative political economy international law historical sociology and economic history

All Connected Now Walter Anderson,2004 This text describes four kinds of global change economic political cultural biological all of which are now accelerating driven by the increasing mobility of symbols goods people and non human life forms Exchanges and Mutual Learning Among Asian Civilizations Linggui Wang, Jianglin Zhao, 2023-01-26 This book consists of global scholars views on mankind s wishes for the future the Belt and Road Initiative bilateral cooperation inter civilization exchanges and mutual learning among Asian civilizations which represent a critical way to boost the construction of an Asian community with a shared future and a community with a shared future for mankind It also gives some insight into the future development of Asian civilizations. The book aims to present a diverse and balanced overview on the prospect of Asian development A Quarter Century of the "Clash of Civilizations" Jeffrey Haynes, 2021-05-10 The clash of civilizations focuses on conflict and cooperation between and within states Dealing with the clash is essential for a peaceful and harmonious world The clash of civilizations is a topic of great interest around the world and constitutes an important dimension of religion and international relations In the quarter century since Huntington first aired his controversial framework inter civilizational clash and dialogue have become mainstream issues both in international relations and in many Western countries domestic concerns The book examines a key question how does Samuel Huntington's clash of civilizations paradigm help explain current Western governments responses to Muslim migration and related security issues Understanding relations between the West Westerners and Muslim majority societies Muslims is impossible without being aware that right wing populist politicians in the West as well as some policy makers and commentators seem to view all Muslims in a malign way This indicates a lack of willingness to make a distinction between on the one hand the mass of moderate ordinary and peaceful Muslims and on the other hand a small minority of Islamist extremists and even smaller number of Islamist terrorists The result is a crucial topic of our times how do different civilizations coexist in a small and increasingly congested planet without conflict The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of The Review of Faith International Affairs Birth of a Civilization Yves Brunsvick, André Danzin, 1999 An analysis concerning globalization a subject generally approached from the economic standpoint This book shifts attention from the ebb and flow of commercial and financial activities to social and cultural phenomena The voice of Europe especially of France on the subject a primer for students and the general public Globalization & Identity Majid Tehranian, B. Jeannie Lum, 2006 In the first decade of the twenty first century globalization and identity have emerged as the most critical challenges to world peace This volume of Peace Policy addresses the overarching question What are the effects of globalization in the areas of culture ethnic diversity religion and citizenship and how does terrorism help groups attain a sense of global identity Part I Citizenship in a Globalizing World reexamines globalization in light of the traditions from which human civilizations have evolved Linda Groff focuses on Samuel R Huntington's thesis that the Cold War would be followed by a clash of civilizations Joseph A Camilleri traces the history of the concept of citizenship and its transformation through the ages to modern times Kamran Mofid argues that the marketplace is not just an economic sphere but one where economic and business interests must embrace the spiritual assets of the community Majid Tehranian raises the problem of identity and advocates the assumption of global identity responsibility and citizenship Part II Convergence in Global Cultures explores the complex issues of diversity in religions Christopher Leeds Vladimir Korobov and Bharapt Gupt show how the reconceptualization of the world both geographically and regionally can recreate new sensibilities needed to overcome differences Part III Divergence in Global Conflicts discusses the multiple dimensions of the globalizing effects of economic expansion and political strife experienced by different cultures at local and regional levels Audrey Kitigawa and Ade Ogunrinade use Nigeria as an example of political manipulation of religious and ethnic groups to divert attention from the real problems of social and economic marginalization Fred Riggs looks at how the Web has become a medium in the globalization of religious movements The authors maintain that continuing efforts for dialogue across cultural and religious boundaries in today s interreligious and interfaith organizations can become a force for healing Majid Tehranian is director of the Toda Institute for Global Peace and Policy Research B Jeannie Lum is an associate professor at the University of Hawaii at Mnoa in the Department of Educational Foundations College of Education NATO, Civilisation and Individuals Sarah da Mota, 2018-03-06 This book critically engages with NATO s two main referent objects of security civilisation and individuals By rethinking the seemingly natural assumption of these two referent objects it suggests the epistemological importance of an unconscious dimension to understand meaning formation and behaviour change in international security The book provides a historicised and genealogical approach of the idea of civilisation that is at the core of the Alliance in which human needs narratives and security arrangements are interconnected It suggests that there is a Civilised Subject of Security at the core of modern Western security that has constantly produced civilised and secure subjects around the world which explains NATO s emergence around a civilisational referent The book then proceeds by considering the Individualisation of Security after the Cold War as another stage of the civilising process based on NATO's military operations in Bosnia Herzegovina Kosovo and The New Millennium: Challenges and Strategies for a Globalizing World Sai Felicia Afghanistan Krishna-Hensel, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2000 An important look at the complexity of the challenges faced by the international system at the beginning of the new millennium The shape of the New World Order is being driven largely by forces unleashed through factors such as economic globalization and technological development The book emphasizes the importance of interdisciplinary analysis in order to understand the extent and diversity of the factors which condition the dynamics of this transformation Essential reading for students of human rights security finance and technology
