Edition offers an expansive compilation of choral orchestral works from 1600 to the present Synthesizing Jonathan D Green's earlier six volumes on this repertoire this edition updates and adds to the over 750 oratorios cantatas choral symphonies masses secular works for large and small ensembles and numerous settings of liturgical and biblical texts for a wide variety of vocal and instrumental combinations Each entry includes a brief biographical sketch of the composer approximate duration text sources performing forces available editions and locations of manuscript materials as well as descriptive commentary a discography and a bibliography Unique to this edition are practitioner's evaluations of the performance issues presented in each score These include the range tessitura and nature of each solo role and a determination of the difficulty of the choral and orchestral portions of each composition There is also a description of the specific challenges staffing and rehearsal expectations related to the performance of each work Choral Orchestral Repertoire is an essential resource for conductors and students of conducting as they search for repertoire appropriate to their needs and the abilities of their ensembles

The Australian Symphony from Federation to 1960 Rhoderick McNeill, 2016-03-23 The symphony retained its primacy as the most prestigious large scale orchestral form throughout the first half of the twentieth century particularly in Britain Russia and the United States Likewise Australian composers produced a steady stream of symphonies throughout the period from Federation 1901 through to the end of the 1950s Stylistically these works ranged from essays in late nineteenth century romanticism twentieth century nationalism neo classicism and near atonality Australian symphonies were most prolific during the 1950s with 36 local entries in the 1951 Commonwealth Jubilee Symphony competition This extensive repertoire was overshadowed by the emergence of a new generation of composers and critics during the 1960s who tended to regard older Australian music as old fashioned and derivative The Australian Symphony from Federation to 1960 is the first study of this neglected genre and has four aims firstly to show the development of symphonic composition in Australia from Federation to 1960 secondly to highlight the achievement of the main composers who wrote symphonies thirdly to advocate the restoration and revival of this repertory and lastly to take a step towards a recasting of the narrative of Australian concert music from Federation to the present In particular symphonies by Marshall Hall Hart Bainton Hughes Le Gallienne and Morgan emerge as works of particular note
