Go Between God:

The Go-Between God John V. Taylor, 2014-07-24 First published in 1972 by SCM Press The Go Between God is here re issued in our prestigious SCM Classics series      The Go-between God John Vernon Taylor, 1975 In 1967 John V Taylor was invited to give the Cadbury Lectures in Theology at the University of Birmingham The experience then stimulated him to the extent he felt compelled to rewrite the original series of eight lectures which now make up the chapters of The Go Between God This edition contains a new foreword by David Wood      The Go-between God John Vernon Taylor (Anglicaanse bisschop van Winchester), 1974      The Go-between God John V. Taylor, 1973      The Spirit at the Cross Carolyn E. L. Tan, 2019 What was the Holy Spirit doing at the cross of Jesus Christ Jesus death and resurrection are central to God's reconciliation with humanity Does the Holy Spirit's work pause between Gethsemane and the resurrection What does the phrase through the eternal Spirit in Hebrews 9:14 mean In this book Tan examines the perspectives of John Vernon Taylor Jurgen Moltmann and John D Zizioulas from whom three views of the Spirit's role at the cross are discerned the Spirit as the bond of love between the Father and the Son the Spirit as the Son's coworker enabler and power and the Spirit as the unifier who unites humanity to the Son In addition Karl Barth provides the intriguing concept of the Spirit as divine Judge along with the Father and the Son and specifically the one who carries out God's judgment in Jesus Christ the Elect Integrating these theological perspectives with an in depth examination of the manuscript and exegetical and hermeneutical history of Hebrews 9:14 Tan offers another way of understanding the role of the Spirit at the cross Christ as the Father's pneumatic crucible in whom sinful humanity is judged destroyed and reborn through the power of the Holy Spirit      Islam and the Glorious Ka'abah Sayed M. God's Wider Presence Robert K. Johnston, 2014-10-14 What are we to make of those occasional yet illuminating experiences of God's presence that occur outside both church and Scripture We may encounter God's revelatory presence as we experience a beautiful sunset the birth of a child or a work of art music or literature While theologians have tended to describe such experiences abstractly as mere traces or echoes those involved often recognize such moments of transcendence as transformative Here senior theologian Robert Johnston explores how Christians should think theologically about God's wider revelatory presence that is mediated outside the church through creation conscience and culture The book offers a robust constructive biblical theology of general revelation rooting its insights in the broader Trinitarian work of the Spirit Drawing in part from the author's theological engagement with film and the arts the book helps Christians understand personal moments of experiencing God's transcendence and accounts for revelatory experiences of those outside the believing community It also shows how God's revelatory presence can impact our interaction with nonbelievers and those of other faiths

Things Fall Apart? Michael Paget-Wilkes, 2020-05-29 This book calls for a major paradigm shift in the church's thinking and practice if the church is to engage with the upcoming generations of the third decade of this fast changing twenty first century Just as the church has had to adapt to a changing context in the past it now needs to engage seriously with this post enlightenment post human techno centric age of artificial intelligence However the church also needs to recall its counter cultural prophetic role following Elijah Jeremiah Amos Jesus and Paul challenging society as it faces complex dilemmas raised by technology driven development in these unprecedented times The church will have to acknowledge unaddressed weaknesses in the past of identifying with established power rather than vulnerability and the marginalized of depending on a hierarchical ministerial order at the expense of the ministry of every believer of acquiescing to materialist anthropocentric and consumerist growth as an undisputable norm This book develops the vision of a church engaged in the mission of God of welcoming technological development but with an eye on kingdom values of promoting innovation so long as it does not result in a growth of inequality or at the expense of the environment of pointing towards a humanity that deepens its relationships with its Creator its fellow humans and its environment The author calls on grassroots believers to reflect and act within their local communities as inspired and empowered daughters and sons of God in the knowledge that following Jesus Christ provides a radical new paradigm for living learning and leading in and through these times of epochal
