Historical Dictionary of Portugal

Douglas L. Wheeler, Walter C. Opello Jr., 2010-05-10 Portugal is a small

Western European nation with a large distinctive past replete with both triumph and tragedy One of the continent's oldest nation states Portugal has frontiers that are essentially unchanged since the late 14th century The country's unique character and 850 year history as an independent state present several curious paradoxes As of 1974 when much of the remainder of the Portuguese overseas empire was decolonized Portuguese society appeared to be the most ethnically homogeneous of the two Iberian states and of much of Europe This in spite of the fact that Portuguese society had received during 2 000 years of infusions of other ethnic groups in invasions and immigration Phoenicians Greeks Celts Romans Suevi Visigoths Muslims Arab and Berber Jews Italians Flemings Burgundian French black Africans and Asians Indeed Portugal has been a crossroads despite its relative isolation in the western corner of the Iberian Peninsula between the West and North Africa Tropical Africa and Asia and America Since 1974 Portugal s society has become less homogeneous as there has been significant immigration of former subjects from her erstwhile overseas empire The third edition of Historical Dictionary of Portugal greatly expands on the second edition through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on important persons places events and institutions as well as on significant political economic social and cultural aspects

Parish Churches in the Early Modern World Andrew Spicer,2016-12-05 Across Europe the parish church has stood for centuries at the centre of local communities it was the focal point of its religious life the rituals performed there marked the stages of life from the cradle to the grave Nonetheless the church itself artistically and architecturally stood apart from the parish community It was often the largest and only stone built building in a village it was legally distinct being subject to canon law as well as consecrated for the celebration of religious rites The buildings associated with the cure of souls were sacred sites or holy places where humanity interacted with the divine In spite of the importance of the parish church these buildings have generally not received the same attention from historians as non parochial places of worship This collection of essays redresses this balance and reflects on the parish church across a number of confessions Catholic Lutheran Reformed and Anti Trinitarian during the early modern period Rather than providing a series of case studies of individual buildings each essay looks at the evolution of parish churches in response to religious reform as well as confessional change and upheaval They examine aspects of their design and construction furnishings and material culture liturgy and the use of the parish church While these essays range widely across Europe the volume also considers how religious provision and the parish church were translated into a global context with colonial and commercial expansion in the Americas and Asia This interdisciplinary volume seeks to identify what was distinctive about the parish church for the congregations that gathered in them for worship and for communities across the early modern world Portuguese Rule in Goa, 1510-1961 R. Crossing Colonial Historiographies Anne Digby, Projit B. Mukharji, 2010-04-16 This book offers an innovative engagement with the diverse histories of colonial and indigenous medicines Engagement with different kinds of colonialism and varied indigenous socio political cultures has led to a wide range of approaches and increasingly distinct traditions of historical writing about colonial and indigenous modes of healing have emerged in the various regions formerly ruled by different colonial powers The volume offers a much needed opportunity to explore new conceptual perspectives and encourages critical reflection on how scholars research specialisms have influenced their approaches to the history of medicine and healing The book includes contributions on different geographical regions in Asia Africa and the Americas and within the varied contexts of Chinese Spanish Portuguese German Dutch and British colonialisms It deals with issues such as internal colonialism the plural history of objects transregional circulation and entanglement and the historicisation of medical historiography The chapters in the volume explore the scope for conceptual interaction between authors from diverse disciplines and different regions highlighting the synergies and thematic commonalities as well as differences and divergences The relic state Pamila Gupta, 2016-05-16 This book is a study of the complex nature of colonial and missionary power in Portuguese India Written as a historical ethnography it explores the evolving shape of a series of Catholic festivals that took place throughout the duration of Portuguese colonial rule in Goa 1510 1961 and for which the centrepiece was the incorrupt corpse of S o Francisco Xavier 1506 52 a Spanish Basque Jesuit missionary turned saint Using distinct genres of source materials produced over the long duree of Portuguese colonialism the book documents the historical and visual transformation of Xavier s corporeal ritualisation in death through six events staged at critical junctures between 1554 and 1961 Xavier s very mutability as a religious political and cultural symbol in Portuguese India will also suggest his continuing role as a symbol of Goa s shared past for both Catholics and Hindus and in shaping Goa s culturally distinct representation within the larger Indian nation state South Asia and its Others Atreyee Phukan, V.G. Julie Rajan, 2020-10-27 The essays in South Asia and Its Others Reading the Exotic reveal fresh perspectives on the notion of exoticism in South Asia and also challenge and extend existing scholarship in the broader discourse of what constitutes South Asia Significantly the anthology considers how the phenomenon of exoticization may be interpreted as a strategic methodology utilized by writers of South Asian descent to examine critically both the post colonialist ramifications of casteism religious intolerance and gender violence across differing cultural contexts within the region and how current perceptions of native and diasporic South Asian subjects problematize ideologies of authenticity across Western Eastern divides The papers in this collection show how authors of South Asian ethnicity construct their own version of an exotic South Asia globally and the colonialist discourse of exotism is employed as a discursive tool that uncovers the ambiguity that continues to mark the marginality of identities even today      Missionary Tropics Ines G. Županov, 2005 A provocative contribution to the history of early modern Euro Asian interactions that provides new perspectives on the encounter between Catholicism and Hinduism in India
