

Goals for Mankind

General Editor: Ervin Laszlo

A Report to the Club of Rome

"If the goals on which nations and peoples act are unrealistic, narrow and short-sighted, ... the arms of ultimate destruction could finally come into use. If, on the other hand, governments, peoples, corporations and organizations adopt realistic and far-sighted goals, new horizons of peace can open for the world community."

Cohen, Martin B. Malin, 2009-12-04 Although universal schooling has been adopted as a goal by international organizations national governments and non profit organizations little sustained international attention has been devoted to the purposes or goals of universal education This book offers diverse views from experts around the world on the purposes of universal education Rationality in Science R. Hilpinen, 2012-12-06 The present volume is a product of an international research program Foundations of Science and Ethics launched in 1976 by the Inter University Centre of Post Graduate Studies Dubrovnik Yugoslavia with the financial support of the Volkswagen Foundation According to the outline of the program formulated in 1976 by a committee consisting of Professors Dagfinn Føllesdal, Rudolf Haller, coordinator Lorenz Krüger, Karel Lambert, Keith Lehrer, Kuno Lorenz, Gunther Patzig, Ivan Supek and Paul Weingartner its general purpose was to investigate the interplay of various internal and external factors in the development of science. Generous financial support from the Volkswagen Foundation made it possible to plan four annual conferences, the first of which was held in Dubrovnik on March 6-12, 1978. This volume contains the majority of the papers presented in the first Dubrovnik conference; the main theme of this conference was Rationality in Science and Ethics. Some of the papers appear here in a thoroughly revised form. Further results of the research program will be discussed in three other conferences to be held in Dubrovnik in 1979, 1981; the papers presented in these conferences will be published separately. Professor Rudolf Haller of the University of Graz assumed the burden of the practical planning and organization of the first conference as well as that of the other three conferences. I wish to thank Professor Haller on behalf of all participants for carrying out this demanding and time-consuming task.

Dreams, Plans, Goals Ken Gaub, 1993 DREAMS How to have them PLANS How to make them GOALS How to reach them Is there a vision burning in your heart that you can't seem to shake? Do you want to make a positive mark on the world around you? Can you see yourself accomplishing great things in your future? Maybe you have a dream but you're afraid to verbalize it or even pray about it because it appears impossible. Let Ken Baub show you how to plan for the future and set goals that will make your dreams happen. Discover practical ways to turn your dreams into reality, make your plans succeed and set goals and achieve them. Would you like to do something great for God, something that will make a difference? This practical book will help you not just to think it but to think it and make it happen.

Globalistics and globalization studies Leonid E. Grinin, Ilya V. Ilyin, Peter Herrmann, Andrey V. Korotayev, 2016-01-01 The present volume is the fifth in the series of yearbooks with the title Globalistics and Globalization Studies. The subtitle of the present volume is Global Transformations and Global Future. We become more and more accustomed to think globally and to see global processes. And our future can all means be global. However, is this statement justified? Indeed, in recent years many have begun to claim that globalization has stalled; that we are rather dealing with the process of anti-globalization. Will not we find ourselves at some point again in an edifice spanning across the globe but divided into national apartments separated by walls of high tariffs and mutual suspicion? Of course, some setbacks are always possible because the process of globalization cannot develop smoothly. It is a process which is itself emerging from contradictions and is shaped by a new contradiction. They often go much further than underlying systemic changes allow. They break forward as the vanguard of a victorious army and then often meet resistance of various social and political forces and may suddenly start to roll back just at the moment when everyone expects their further offensive. We believe that this is what is happening with globalization at present. The yearbook will be interesting to a wide range of researchers, teachers, students and all those who are concerned about global issues.

National Sovereignty, the Common Heritage of Mankind and the Role of the International Seabed Authority Zlatibor R. Milovanović, 1980 Space for Mankind's Benefit Jesco von Puttkamer, Thomas J. McCullough, 1972 The Michigan Technic, 1960 Goals in a Global Community: The international values and goals studies Ervin Laszlo, Judah Bierman, 1977 Time and Meaning in History Nathan Rotenstreich, 2012-12-06

There are several characteristics of Nathan Rotenstreich's work which are striking. His thoughtful writings are both subtle and deep; they are steeped in his critical appreciation of other thinkers of this and preceding times, an appreciation which is formed by his learned understanding of the history of philosophy and with all this he has an original and independent intelligence. He has from time to time brought his skills to bear upon historical scholarship, most notably perhaps in his book Between Past and Present 1958, 2nd edition 1973, his interpretive essays in the philosophy of history Philosophy, History and Politics 1976, and his scholarly work concerned with the influence of historical development upon modern Jewish thought Tradition and Reality 1972. Related to these and equally works of that philosophical humanity which Professor Rotenstreich embodies are his Humanism in the Contemporary Era 1963, Spirit and Man: An Essay on Being and Value 1963, and Reflection and Action 1983. Rotenstreich combines both the naturalistic and the phenomenological attitudes in an interesting and illuminating way through the full spectrum of issues in the philosophy of history in this century. Surely he sets boundaries to any doubtful extrapolation. Not only would he bring the understanding of history back from those who claim it as only a positive science but equally would he prevent the transformation of that understanding into merely speculative inquiry.

The Rotarian, 1977-08. Established in 1911, The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide. Each issue contains feature articles, columns, and departments about or of interest to Rotarians. Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Gandhi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr. have written for the magazine.

The Imaginer of Memos Leo Farr, 2011-06. The Imaginer of Memos is an example of what I call ficlution: fic the first three letters of fiction and lution the last two syllables of solution to form the word ficlution. A type of writing that presents a fictitious story that is meant to entertain and stimulate but also to present a real human problem combining emotions with facts and offering a possible solution to that problem. Here is the story of a man who struggles to overcome many handicaps as a child and as an adult as all humans in their own lives must do. Along the way he experiences love and triumph, pain and suffering, loneliness and friendship. Finally he becomes aware of and he accepts a life-long mission of faith: Memos. That mission is to fill in the details of the concept of Memos to form a new social unit through which mankind may ultimately find the meaning of life and the universe. Leo Farr is happily married and has five children and five grandchildren. He is presently retired from the State of California and living in Sacramento, California. Over the years as a counselor and supervisor in the Department of Rehabilitation, as a coach for youth sports, and as an author, he has shown a deep interest in the development of children and the personality of adults. He has written three other books: Stacey and her Lessons in Learning, Children Dogs and other Wild Things, and Ficlution of Coaching. Eating and Mankind Purpose, 1929
