Speculative & Science Fiction Ernest N. Emenyonu, Chimalum Nwankwo, Louisa Uchum Egbunike, 2021 Over the past two decades there has been a resurgence in the writing of African and African diaspora speculative and science fiction writing Discussions around the rise of science fiction and fantasy have led to a push back by writers and scholars who have suggested that this is not a new phenomenon in African literature This collection focuses on the need to recalibrate ways of reading and categorising this genre of African writing through critical examinations both of classics such as Kojo Laing's Woman of the Aeroplanes 1988 and Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o's oeuvre as well as more recent fiction from writers including Nnedi Okorafor, Namwali Serpell and Masande Ntshanga Back cover

Of Minstrelsy and Masks Christine Matzke, Remi Raji, Geoffrey V. Davis, 2006 This collection is dedicated to a distinguished scholar and writer who for a quarter of a century wrote consistently on African literature and the arts and was a major voice in Nigerian literary circles Ezenwa Ohaeto made a mark in contemporary Nigerian poetry by committing pidgin to written form and by so doing introducing different creative patterns He also saw himself as a minstrel as someone who wanted to read, express and enact his work before an audience First and foremost however Ezenwa Ohaeto was someone who unmasked ideas and meanings hidden in the folds of literary works and made them available to an international academic public With his outstanding work on Chinua Achebe he influenced the reception of African literary biography His networks and connections were extensive and wide ranging and they are partly reflected in the essays, creative writing and personal notes assembled in this volume In their various modes and expressions the contributions included here constitute a tribute to Ezenwa Ohaeto's many talents and achievements As an extension of Ezenwa Ohaeto's legacy they expand on various aspects of minstrelsy and the unmasking of texts in a Nigerian and broader African context The book is divided into six sections In Memoriam contains personal tributes by long standing colleagues, mentors and friends Poetry and Fiction collects the voices of three generations of Nigerian writing from the 1960s to the present day followed by poetic and pictorial insights into the domestic and social life of the scholar and family man Section Four comprises two interviews while Sections Five and Six are devoted to critical evaluations of Ezenwa Ohaeto's work and to contemporary perspectives on Nigerian literature respectively

Nnolim, 2010 The multitudinous nature of African literature has always been an issue but really not a problem although its oral base has been used by expatriate critics to accuse African literature of thin plots superficial characterisation and narrative structures African literature also it is observed is a mixed grill it is oral it is written in vernacular or tribal tongues written in foreign tongues English French Portuguese and within the foreign language in which it is written pidgin and creole further bend the already bent language giving African literature a further taint of linguistic impurity African literature further suffers from the nature of its newness and this created problems for the critic Because it is new and because its critics are in simultaneous existence with its writers we confront the problem of instant analysis Issues in African

Literature continues the debate and tries to clarify contemporary burning issues in African literature by focussing on particular areas where the debate has been most concerned or around which it has hovered and been persistent

The People's Right to the Novel Eleni Coundouriotis, 2014-09-15 This study offers a literary history of the war novel in Africa Coundouriotis argues that this genre aimed more specifically at African readers than the continent's better known bildungsroman tradition nevertheless makes an important intervention in global understandings of human rights The African war novel lies at the convergence of two sensibilities it encounters in European traditions the naturalist aesthetic and the discourse of humanitarianism whether in the form of sentimentalism or of human rights law Both these sensibilities are present in culturally hybrid forms in the African war novel reflecting its syncretism as a narrative practice engaged with the colonial and postcolonial history of the continent The war novel Coundouriotis argues stakes claims to collective rights that contrast with the individualism of the bildungsroman tradition The genre is a form of people's history that participates in a political struggle for the rights of the dispossessed

Female Subjectivities in African Literature Smith, Charles, Ce, Chin, 2015-09-23 In literature the ambiguous portraiture of female characters by some male writers and the phallic nature of men's writings have proved a matter of concern to female writers in Africa For decades within African writing the issue of silencing was interrogated particularly as it addressed the muting and marginalisation of black women by male writers through the script of patriarchy which men follow In this series we continue the literary and dramatic tradition of feminist concern for women's issues and we review novels plays and poetry which demonstrate a commitment to exploring the challenges facing modern women in changing times and excerpting the issues of gender feminism identity race history national and international politics specifically as they affect women Female Subjectivities collectively answers the need to question and adumbrate the possibilities of literary revisions showing what it would mean to revise even the Feminist psychoanalyst in a discourse on the subjectivity of women of colour

African Literature Jonathan P. Smithe, 2002 African literature like the continent itself is enormous and diverse East Africa's literature is different from West Africa's which is quite different from South Africa's which has different influences on it than North Africa's Africa's literature is based on a widespread heritage of oral literature some of which has now been recorded Arabic influence can be detected as well as European especially French and English Legends myths proverbs riddles and folktales form the mother load of the oral literature This book presents an overview of African literature as well as a comprehensive bibliography primarily of English language sources Accessed by subject author and title indexes

243 183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909 1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918 African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda Musingafi, Maxwell Constantine Chando, Hungwe, Chipso, 2024-01-16 Within academic circles there is a longstanding issue concerning the portrayal and understanding of African womanhood Frequently these narratives are crafted by outsiders predominantly Western scholars often distorting the lived experiences and unique perspectives of African women This has led to a skewed and sometimes negative perception of African women reinforcing stereotypes and sidelining their voices in critical discussions Moreover this misrepresentation has real world consequences as it impacts social justice initiatives and development projects that rely on misguided narratives rather than the authentic voices of African women African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda emerges as an essential solution to the misrepresentation of African women This comprehensive and meticulously researched book offers an alternative narrative one that is rooted in African perspectives and experiences It addresses the historical cultural and political dimensions of African womanhood providing a rich and nuanced understanding of this multifaceted topic Reconstructing the Canon Austine Amanze Akpuda, 2001 Gabriel Okara Gabriel Okara, 2016-04 Gabriel Okara a prize winning author whose literary career spans six decades is rightly hailed as the elder statesman of Nigerian literature The first Modernist poet of anglophone Africa he is best known for The Fisherman's Invocation 1978 The Dreamer His Vision 2005 and for his early experimental novel The Voice 1964 Arranged in six sections Gabriel Okara Collected Poems includes the poet's earliest lyric verse along with poems written in response to Nigeria's war years literary tributes and elegies to fellow poets activists and loved ones long dead and recent dramatic and narrative poems The introduction by Brenda Marie Osbey contextualizes Okara's work in the history of Nigerian African and English language literatures Gabriel Okara Collected Poems is at once a treasure for those long in search of a single authoritative edition and a revelation and timely introduction for readers new to the work of one of Africa's most revered poets Gender Issues in African Literature Chin Ce, Charles Smith, 2014-04-02 Gender Issues in African Literature examines the ways in which some protagonists of African fictions are made to counter and challenge intertwined Western discourses on gender employment sexuality and health Here the conflict between Tradition and Modernity is argued from the favourite premise of male supremacist ideology showing how women have unlearned these false concepts to build a sustained feminist movement and relearn the value of sisterhood There is a bold attempt to reread Achebe as a consistent in urging women to fight the seemingly oppressive structures that have traditionally discriminated against them and to disregard their diversity and embrace their unity A chapter of Feminist Rewriting disagrees with the attempt to equate theory with political activism and presents Feminist literature as more than a verbal assertion that points to Feminist aesthetics and politics The use of the trauma theory and testimonio literature to explore traumatisation of female characters and its impact for Zimbabwean civil society is a useful addition to these gender studies in African literature
