The Many Faces of God Jaap Durand,2007-03-01 Since the Enlightenment of the eighteenth century theologians and philosophers have brought about profound changes in the discourse about God The orthodox image of God developed in the previous seventeen centuries in Roman Catholicism as well as within Protestantism has come under great pressure but it would be wrong to think that this image is no longer relevant and that only a few conservative Christians hold on to it

God, the Creator and Lord of All Samuel Harris,1896 Studies on the Conceptual Foundations Ervin Laszlo,Judah Bierman,2013-10-22 Goals in a Global Community The Original Background Papers for Goals for Mankind A Report to the Club of Rome expounds on the idea of a global community by analyzing the human predicament in terms of the diverse images of possibility that drive our differing national and social behaviors More specifically it asks whether humanity can create a global community with apparently conflicting and yet so fundamentally similar goals This volume is comprised of 12 chapters and opens with a discussion on long term trends and the evolution of complexity suggesting that socioeconomic systems may be more effectively understood in light of dissipative systems The following chapters explore the historical evolution of mankind s inner and outer dimensions how to make sustainable economic growth a global possibility the possibilities of changing motivation as well as finding motivation to change and why social motives are the strongest driving forces behind change of goals for the global community The book also proposes solar energy as a permanent clean source of abundant energy in a fully ordered and economically feasible global transition The final section argues that the Club of Rome must continue to risk advocacy and recognize that human values are a fact of human existence This monograph will be a
