The Trinity John M. Farrelly, 2005-01-04 The mystery of the Trinity is the central Christian belief that defines God's essence God's ongoing love for humanity and saving grace Yet over the past few centuries especially in the West Christians have either ceased believing in the Trinity or simply no longer recognize its relevance in their ecclesial or individual lives Written in an ecumenical spirit that engages contemporary questions and theological viewpoints The Trinity Rediscovering the Central Christian Mystery articulates the mystery of the Trinity for people formed by modern historical consciousness science awareness of the equal dignity of men and women and respect for world religions By first identifying contemporary problems with the Christian proclamation of the Trinity in our culture and major differences among modern theologians John Farrelly OSB explores Scripture the life and message of Jesus Christ the various stages of the development of Trinitarian doctrine in Christian History the relation of the Trinity to creation and salvation the generation of the Son from the Father within the Trinity and the procession of the Holy Spirit from Father and Son and the meaning of three persons in one God He concludes by reflecting on the implications this renewed theology of the Trinity has for ecclesiology and Christian spirituality in our twenty first century world especially in relation to other world religions The Living Church, 1981-07 God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume Two Jeff B. Pool, 2010-01-01 This book constitutes the second volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God's Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering vol 2 Evil and Divine Suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God This second volume of studies proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of this symbol those implicit attestations that provide the conditions of possibility for divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation as identified and examined in the first volume of this project an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love The second volume then investigates the first two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally attest 1 divine grief suffering because of betrayal by the beloved human or human sin and 2 divine self sacrifice suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation Each divine wound thus constitutes a response to a creaturely occasion The suffering in each divine wound also occurs in two stages a passive stage and an active stage In divine grief God suffers because of human sin betrayal of the divine lover by the beloved human divine sorrow as the passive stage of divine grief and divine anguish as the active stage of divine grief In divine self sacrifice God suffers in response to the misery or bondage of the beloved human's infidelity divine travail focused on the divine incarnation in Jesus of Nazareth as the active stage of divine self sacrifice and divine agony focused on divine suffering in the crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth as the passive stage of divine self sacrifice      Feminist Theology Watson, 2003-12-08

The Thomist , 1987 A speculative quarterly review      God as Father? Johann Baptist Metz, Edward Schillebeeckx, 1981

Mission and the Coming of God Tim Chester, 2006-10-01 How does the eschatological future impinge on the present Is the kingdom of God present outside the confession of Christ in movements towards social justice Is Christian hope a stimulus to social involvement or an alternative And how does the present impinge on the eschatological future What is the relationship between our actions now and the new creation Is there eschatological continuity between the two Jürgen Moltmann one of our most influential contemporary theologians has had much to say both on eschatology and its relationship to mission This book explores his thought along with evangelical responses to it Eschatology has been central to evangelical debates about social involvement ever since the Lausanne Congress in 1974 The book examines how evangelicals themselves have related hope and mission The book highlights the important contribution Moltmann has made while offering a critique of his thought from an evangelical perspective In so doing it touches on pertinent issues for evangelical missiology The conclusion takes John Calvin as a starting point proposing an eschatology of the cross which offers a critique of the over realized eschatologies in liberation theology and triumphalistic forms of evangelicalism iThis is a work of major importance engaging with crucial themes and leading Christian thinkers A must read for all reactive evangelicals Tim Chester's work is always good but this is the best yet i Martyn Atkins Principal Cliff College Calver UK Despite the attention of Moltmann and despite intra evangelical debate on the nature of mission over the last three decades the task of bringing Moltmann and evangelicalism into dialogue has remained on the table for some time Tim Chester takes up the agenda His combination of practical experience in mission and theological ability equip him well for this task and the result is a study which brings academic reasoning to bear on Christian thought about eschatology and its vital connection with the missionary responsibility of the church It rewards our careful attention Stephen Williams Professor of Systemic Theology at Union

Theological College Belfast iEschatology in relation to mission is often reduced to plans for Ohishingi the Great Commission as soon as possible or to lurid end time scenarios that feed our fantasy more than they fuel biblical mission So it is refreshing to have this wide ranging in depth study of the theme that engages with one of the most well known theologians of biblical hope J rgen Moltmann alongside a number of renowned evangelical scholars yet stays rooted in the text and vision of the Bible itself This is searching theology in the service of biblical missiono as all theology ultimately should be Chris Wright International Director Langham Partnership International

The Struggle to Serve Simone M. St. Pierre, 1994 An academic inquiry into the role of women in the Roman Catholic Church calls attention to the injustices that women experience within the hierarchic and patriarchal confines of the Roman Catholic Church The main intent of this work is to examine the exclusion of women from the ministrerial priesthood in light of Schussler Fiorenza and Ruether s process of conversion to a self awareness that men and women are the Church

Modern Trinitarian Perspectives John Thompson, 1994 Provides a survey of modern thought on the doctrine of the Trinity which has recently enjoyed a revival of interest The author examines the work of important theologians and their views on the relationship of the trinitarian doctrine to Scripture the Church philosophy politics and society

Trinity and Society Leonardo Boff, 2005-04-11 In this book Brazilian Leonardo Boff Franciscan priest and professor of theology joins other contemporary theologians in defending both the truth and the practical value of the doctrine of the Trinity For Boff the community of Father Son and Holy Spirit is not only the truth about God it is also the prototype of human community dreamed of by those who wish to improve society the model for any just egalitarian while respecting differences social organization Frequently expressing agreement with Moltmann s The Trinity and the Kingdom Boff argues that true and relevant Trinitarian faith must begin not with the oneness but with the threeness of God not with theistic speculation about God as the solitary One but with openness to the self revelation of God as a community or society of divine persons who are what they are in their co existence co relatedness and self surrender to each other Boff also suggests how a social doctrine of the Trinity enables us to overcome the conflict between individualistic capitalism and collectivistic socialism oppressor and oppressed male and female church authorities and church members

Trinitarian Personhood Bill Ury, 2002-02-01 The concept of the person is a crucial yet elusive component in the development of Western thought Few concepts are as replete with definitional difficulty Equally important is the application of a proper definition to all major Christian doctrinal commonplaces This work recognizing the insufficiency of modern theology to offer a cogent concept of person proposes a thorough historical and theological evaluation of Trinitarian personhood presented in three critical paradigm shifts by which one can measure the development of the idea of true personhood presented The three watershed eras of discernment of divine personhood presented are seen here as first the Cappadocian position of the mutual indwelling perichoresis of the divine persons is contrasted with Augustine's view of the place of relations in defining divine persons Second the ideas of Richard of St Victor whose caritas consummata and its relational implications met the nemesis of the Thomistic category of subsistent relations And last as an example of this important discussion in modernity the German Heribert Mühlen's dynamic phenomenological approach to Trinitarian personhood is offered as a means of countering the implicit modalisms of Barth and Rahner If the personhood of God is in essence Being in Another then Christianity must apply that ontology to all sectors of reality to be fully Christian

Indian Theological Studies, 1994

Promise and Presence John E. Colwell, 2011-09-22 John Colwell presents a robust sacramental theology for Protestant churches He maintains that a doctrine of the Trinity leads us to conceive of God's gracious engagement with his creation as one that is mediated through that creation And this lies at the foundation for an understanding of the sacraments Colwell further argues that the Church and Scripture confer context definition and validity on all other sacramental events The final section reconsiders the seven Sacraments of the Catholic tradition in the light of the understanding of sacramentality developed earlier in the book baptism confirmation the Lord's Supper cleansing healing ministry and marriage Colwell discusses the Sacraments from an evangelical perspective but with a committed ecumenical intent

Till the Heart Sings Samuel L. Terrien, 1985

Ancient Near Eastern Literature and the Hebrew Scriptures about the Fatherhood of God David Tasker, 2004 Ancient Near Eastern Literature and the Hebrew Scriptures About the Fatherhood of God discusses some of the main father god concepts of the people of the Ancient Near East then examines the eighteen occurrences of God's fatherhood specifically mentioned in Hebrew Scripture From these sources the book develops a theology of God's fatherhood that honors both ancient and modern scrutiny Although many studies have explored the subject of the fatherhood of God mostly from the perspective of nonbiblical disciplines and through the lens of Greco-Roman mythology this book takes into account the wealth of material from the ancient Near East the birthplace of the Hebrew Scriptures

Unsearchable Riches David N. Power, 2008-07-29 This study has two aims The first is to relate studies on symbolism and its modes to an understanding of the liturgy The second is to relate these studies to the renewal of the liturgy in a time of crisis Since the first aim is affected by the second it may be well to say something about the nature of the crisis at this point The crisis as it touches on liturgy is twofold First there is a crisis of vision and second a crisis of hope The churches are forced to ask how well the vision of reality or the world view projected in liturgical celebration expresses a sense of being in time and a sense of the holy that are pertinent to contemporary fact and contemporary models of reality This is the crisis of vision At the same time the churches are part of a humanity which lives in a time of disintegration and destruction a humanity continually compelled to consider whether there are any hopes by which it is possible to face the future The despair of the age is represented in the twofold holocaust of the century There is the holocaust of the Jewish people under the Nazi regime and there is the imminent nuclear holocaust which threatens the entire world Can those who profess faith in Jesus Christ profess it in such an age from the Introduction
