Rick Russ, 2009-12 The command that the Lord left for all Christians is to make disciples of all people For many that means talking about church to a neighbor a golf buddy a co worker or perhaps a family member For Rick the great commission was a call to bring spiritual freedom to those who had lost their societal freedom inmates America's ever increasing prison population lost to the message of salvation In a world full of focus on victims and victim's rights Rick saw the opportunity to bring the message of salvation to the offenders Though many of the men and women to whom Rick ministers will never be free from the bars that surround them because of their crime against another person or society they can be free from the condemnation that has souls as its focus This is a book that describes a ministry It describes a ministry to men and women who from hardened circumstances find the softness of salvation through personal forgiveness and an understanding that Christ's arms are long enough to reach around even the vilest sinner to bring them to Him Read with your heart Read with the knowledge that Christ still stands at the door and knocks and He will join anyone who with a repentant heart will open Mike Berry Motivational Speaker Lessons learned from our relationship quietly emerge with focused challenges Rick's life lessons connections with those in need and the lost and of course answering God's call guide him and I to this healing place Georgetown County Detention Center Ongoing encouragement to all who read this book Prevention intervention and aftercare will always be needed for the least of these Chaplain C Williams

Opening the Doors Paul Gill, 2018-09-12 How does a holy God associate with paedophiles murderers drug addicts alcoholics and others rejected by mainstream society This book is a product of many years working with and in some cases befriending the most despised people in society prisoners It addresses questions such as Why do some people end up in prison Do they just wake up one morning and think I am going to rob a bank today What happens when they get to prison How do they cope with the violence Is rehabilitation a realistic expectation How can victims of crime be helped and supported Ideal for outsiders volunteers and others helping out with prisoners Contains wise advice based on years of experience Places imprisonment in a Christian context Captures the essence of why some people end up in prison Reviews of the 1st edition Exceptionally insightful not to say riveting There is good theology too and difficult issues are addressed with great humanity The lavish presentation makes the book especially accessible and invites further reading and reflection Michael Hirst Handsomely produced a handbook for future prison chaplains Opening the Doors is indispensable beginning with the first day on the job the processes involved and the nexus between prison community and justice system Rarely is the inner world of prisoners offered with such detail and precision Every reader will learn something new whether it be the day to day life of chaplains or searing insights into the spirit and nature of humanity itself drawn from unsparing reality Ultimately it is Gill's sheer honesty and those of the prisoners themselves that remains with the reader Dr Toby Davidson lecturer at Macquarie University Sydney editor of Francis Webb's Collected Poems and author of the critical study Christian Mysticism and Australian Poetry Knitting together stories and facts about the prison experience to provide an insight into this world and a helpful guide to anyone wanting to work within it Catholic Record The book itself matches what a day working inside of prison is like For example the language is coarse and honest the stories are jarring and emotive the artworks and layout keep you guessing as to what is going to be around the next corner Gill's reflective poetry interspersed examines the role and the emotions of the chaplain Gill's book should be a guide to prison chaplaincy as it gives a window to humanising the dehumanised. Unheard Voices Imelda Wickham, 2021-06-07 This book is an attempt by the author to give us a brief human insight into life behind bars in one of our penal institutions. It is written from the perspective of someone who has walked the walk with the prisoner for twenty years and now questions the effectiveness of our criminal justice system. She is an advocate for a Restorative Justice System and sees this model as the way forward. She argues that true justice lies in healing for all involved in criminal behaviour including victim perpetrator and society. The second part of the book hears the voices of the prisoners in emotionally charged reflections on the reality of life within a prison cell. The author challenges the use of prisons to deal with addictions mental health issues and homelessness. Where prisons are needed as they are for a small cohort of people they should be open institutions dedicated to rehabilitation based on the needs of the individual and on societal needs of the time
