Mobley,2024-09-09 RELIGIOUS SYNCRETISM IN AFRICAN CHRISTIANITY ISAIAH OLUWAJEMIRIYE

OLATOYAN,2024-04-18 Christianity among the African people whether on the soil of Africa or in diaspora is perceived and defined differently by different people For instance among African traditional religious people and Muslims Christianity is a foreign religion that must not be allowed to thrive in Africa To several Africans who profess Jesus Christianity is good but it is not adequate and effective enough to handle all human needs Still among some Western Christians and missionaries African Christianity is superficial and lacks total commitment to Christ Of course the Africans are a cultural people with profound religious inclinations Their traditional religion ATR has tremendously shaped their worldviews and socioeconomic and political activities Consequently when traditional Africans are converted to Christianity they do not break ties with their traditional religions completely The examination of relevant biblical texts on syncretism however reveals that God condemns the worship of many gods and places a curse on anyone who offers sacrifices to carved images and bows to them in worship Therefore this work investigates the root cause of religious syncretism among African people In the attempt to find answers to why the average African Christian finds it difficult if not impossible to abandon his her traditional religious belief systems completely to embrace Christianity the author concludes that unless the issues surrounding the African forgotten and secret covenants are exposed and decisively addressed in the light of biblical teaching syncretism will continue to be a stigma on the fabric of African Christianity Therefore to overcome the threats of syncretism in African Christianity there is a need to establish a sound theological and missiological framework that can address the problems associated with the African worldviews and belief systems This task must be carried out under the searchlight of Scriptures Missionary Enterprise and Rivalry in Igboland, 1857-1914 Felix K. Ekechi,1972 This study of the evangelization of the Igbos uses archives of the Holy Ghost Fathers in Paris Prior to 1885 the protestant missions dominated the field but from that date the Roman Catholic influence was established and the two churches struggle for mastery is the central theme Spearmasters Molefi Kete

Asante,Emeka Nwadiora,2007-04-26 Spear Masters contends that in Africa there exists only one religion with a vast array of denominations African religion is expressed in a different way by each of the denominations which creates confusion for those who believe that there are more than one African religion Spear Masters presents information about some of the larger and most significant expressions of the sole African religion so that the reader will understand the relationship between God the creator and the notions of the relationship with the family and community The term spear master relates to the integrity and ethics that had to accompany the maker and user of the spear in ancient African societies The essence of religion presented in Spear Masters is the deification of one's society and nation and making sacred the traditions and rituals of the ordinary lives of the people

War of Visions Francis M. Deng, 2011-10-01

The civil war that has intermittently raged in the Sudan since independence in 1956 is according to Francis Deng a conflict of contrasting and seemingly incompatible identities in the Northern and Southern parts of the country Identity is seen as a function of how people identify themselves and are identified in racial ethnic cultural linguistic and religious terms The identity question related to how such concepts determine or influence participation and distribution in the political economic social and cultural life of the country War of Visions aims at shedding light on the anomalies of the identity conflict The competing models in the Sudan are the Arab Islamic mold of the North representing two thirds of the country in territory and population and the remaining Southern third which is indigenously African in race ethnicity culture and religion with an educated Christianized elite But although the North is popularly defined as racially Arab the people are a hybrid of Arab and African elements with the African physical characteristics predominating in most tribal groups This configuration is the result of a historical process that stratified races cultures and religions and fostered a passing into the Arab Islamic mold that discriminated against the African race and cultures The outcome of this process is a polarization that is based more on myth than on the realities of the situation The identity crisis has been further complicated by the fact that Northerners want to fashion the country on the basis of their Arab Islamic identity while the South is decidedly resistant Francis Deng presents three alternative approaches to the identity crisis First he argues that by bringing to the surface the realities of the African elements of identity in the North thereby revealing characteristics shared by all Sudanese a new basis for the creation of a common identity could be established that fosters equitable
