God And Charity Images Of Eastern Orthodox Theology Spirituality And Practice:

God and Charity Thomas Hopko, 1979-01-01      Orthodox Christianity Carl S. Tyne, 2003 The Orthodox Church is one of the three major branches of Christianity There are over 300 million adherents throughout the world The Orthodox Church is a fellowship of independent churches which split from the Roman Church over the question of papal supremacy in 1054 The Orthodox adherents include people in Greece Georgia Russia and Serbia There are an estimated one million members in the United States This Advanced book explains the basic principles of Orthodox Christianity and describes in detail the holidays observed by the Orthodox Church In addition relevant book literature is presented in bibliographic form with easy access provided by title subject and author indexes      Practices, Politics, and Performance Michael G. Cartwright, 2006-06-01 Drawing on the hermeneutical reflections of John Howard Yoder Stanley Hauerwas and Mikhail Bakhtin Cartwright challenges the way twentieth century American Protestants have engaged the problem of the use of scripture in Christian ethics and issues a summons for a new debate oriented by a communal approach to hermeneutics By analyzing particular ecclesial practices that stand within living traditions of Christianity the politics of scriptural interpretation can be identified along with the criteria for what a good performance of scripture should be This approach to the use of scripture in Christian ethics is displayed in historical discussions of two Christian practices through which scripture is read ecclesiologically the Eastern Orthodox liturgical celebration of the Eucharist and the Anabaptist practice of binding and loosing or the rule of Christ When American Protestants consider performances of scripture such as these alongside one another within more ecumenical contexts they begin to confront the ecclesiological problem with their attempts to use the Bible in Christian ethics the relative absence of constitutive ecclesial practices in American Protestant congregations that can provide moral orientation for their interpretations of Christian scripture      Balthasar and Prayer Travis LaCouter, 2021-12-02 This study renders an original and constructive Catholic theology of prayer drawing on the work of Hans Urs von Balthasar 1905 1988 Travis LaCouter explores the trinitarian Christological ecclesial anthropological and eschatological dimensions of prayer in Balthasar's theology and shows how these combine to give a powerful account of prayer's proper theological scope and purpose There is also a critical dimension of prayer which is arguably underdeveloped in some of Balthasar's key texts but which LaCouter shows to have significant dialogical potential with contemporary accounts of parrhesia since Foucault This approach demonstrates the centrality of prayer to Balthasar's entire theological system and does so in a way which itself constitutes an exercise in Catholic systematics This study is also distinctive for establishing a method of proceeding through Balthasar's sprawling oeuvre and the similarly vast secondary literature by arguing for three categories of texts in Balthasar's writings and separately three waves of Balthasar readers Thus this study is a resource not just for those interested in prayer but for anyone interested in reading Balthasar today      I Love, Therefore I Am Nicholas V. Conversation Emmanuel Clapsis, 2000 Here is a coherent creative set of essays by a well established Orthodox theologian who dares to address many of the critical and controversial issues of the day The author is an Orthodox ecumenist who has taken seriously the ecumenical commitment of his church and attempts to do theology in conversation with other Christian traditions and theologies in the context of the ongoing theological deliberations of the World Council of Churches and more specifically of the Faith and Order commission He deals with a wide range of issues including the Orthodox church and the ecumenical movement naming God papal primacy politics and the Christian faith population consumption and the environment violence what the Spirit says to the churches the challenge of contextual theologies and the eucharist as missionary event
