Grief Calls Forth the Healing Mary Rockefeller Morgan, 2014-04-01 In 1961 Michael Rockefeller son of then governor of New York State Nelson A Rockefeller mysteriously disappeared off the remote coast of southern New Guinea Amid the glare of international public interest the governor along with his daughter Mary Michael's twin set off on a futile search only to return empty handed and empty hearted What followed were Mary's twenty seven year repression of her grief and an unconscious denial of her twin's death which haunted her relationships and controlled her life In this startlingly frank and moving memoir Mary R Morgan struggles to claim an individual identity which enables her to face Michael's death and the huge loss it engendered With remarkable honesty she shares her spiritually evocative healing journey and her story of moving forward into a life of new beginnings and meaning especially in her work with others who have lost a twin The sea change began one November day in 1961 I remember the moment before A window in the corner of my parents living room drew my attention A windblown branch from an azalea bush scratched the surface of the glass making a discordant sound My father stands out clearly his figure powerful and solid next to the soft down pillowed sofa By the window my two brothers and I are clustered around my mother wary and watching him It was barely two months since Father had separated from her And just days before he'd called a press conference choosing to publicly expose his affair and his decision to remarry Father held a yellow cablegram in his hand Mike my twin brother was missing off the coast of New Guinea Missing The s sound Like a thin knife it slipped deep inside me No resistance just a sharp knowing pain and then shimmering silence Adapted from Chapter One
