True at First Light Ernest Hemingway, 2014-05-22 Both revealing self portrait and dramatic fictional chronicle of his final African safari Ernest Hemingway's last unpublished work was written when he returned from Kenya in 1953 Edited by his son Patrick who accompanied his father on the safari True at First Light offers rare insights into the legendary American writer A blend of autobiography and fiction the book opens on the day his close friend Pop a celebrated hunter leaves Ernest in charge of the safari camp and news arrives of a potential attack from a hostile tribe Drama continues to build as his wife Mary pursues the great black maned lion that has become her obsession Spicing his depictions of human longings with sharp humor Hemingway captures the excitement of big game hunting and the unparalleled beauty of the scenery the green plains covered with gray mist zebra and gazelle traversing the horizon cool dark nights broken by the sounds of the hyena's cry As the group at camp help Mary track her prize she and Ernest suffer the incalculable casualties of marriage and their attempts to love each other well are marred by cruelty competition and infidelity Ernest has become involved with Debba an African girl whom he supposedly plans to take as a second bride Increasingly enchanted by the local African community he struggles between the attraction of these two women and the wildly different cultures they represent In True at First Light Hemingway also chronicles his exploits sometimes hilarious and sometimes poignant among the African men with whom he has become very close reminisces about encounters with other writers and his days in Paris and Spain and satirizes among other things the role of organized religion in Africa He also muses on the act of writing itself and the author's role in determining the truth What is fact and what is fiction This is a question that was posed by Hemingway's readers throughout his career and is one of his principal subjects here Equally adept at evoking the singular textures of the landscape the thrill of the hunt and the complexities of married life Hemingway weaves a tale that is rich in laughter beauty and profound insight True at First Light is an extraordinary publishing event a breathtaking final work from one of this nation's most beloved and important writers

Donald Wallenfang, Megan Wallenfang, 2021-06-18 What does Carmelite spirituality have to teach us about living at peace in the frenetic world of ours today Everything Guiding the reader through a mystical maze of themes Shoeless Carmelite Spirituality in a Disquieted World displays the heart of the Carmelite charism and apostolate as set forth by the religious reform of Saint Teresa of Avila in the latter half of the sixteenth century The reader will be introduced to the history of the Carmelite Order and its unique features including its eremitic and monastic roots attentiveness to the human soul the virtue of humility the spousal meaning of the body the role of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the art of silent contemplative prayer In addition Shoeless features the testimonies of its authors and their mutual vocation to the sacrament of marriage and the Carmelite way of life Readers will become acquainted intimately with the meaning of Mount Carmel and the peculiarity of its zealous form of missionary contemplation A preview is given of the spiritual itinerary toward the summit of this secret height that includes reference to the interior castle and the dark night of the soul Detailed Reports on the Salzburger Emigrants Who Settled in America... Samuel Urlsperger, Ben Marsh, 2021-10-15 The eighteen volumes of Detailed Reports on the Salzburger Emigrants Who Settled in America reproduced in sixteen discrete books contain the diaries and letters of Lutheran pastors who ministered to the Salzburger German speaking Protestant refugees in Georgia Samuel Urlsperger collected and edited these writings into the Urlsperger Reports printed at Orphanage Press Halle Germany from 1735 to 1760 The original German publication Ausführliche Nachricht von den saltzburgischen Emigranten is available through the Internet Archive but this English language translation has not been available online until now In the mid eighteenth century Samuel Urlsperger of the Lutheran Ministry in Augsburg edited the German edition of the Detailed Reports after having distributed the many reports to the faithful in Germany He made major deletions for both diplomatic and economic reasons and suppressed proper names His son Johann August Urlsperger succeeded him He took even greater liberties with the text deleting large sections and rearranging others The English version translated and edited by George Fenwick Jones a German scholar restores the deleted sections and the proper names and provides the original sequencing of the material The Detailed Reports offer insight into daily life in colonial Georgia and provide precious details and vignettes on subjects that receive less attention in other sources notably African Americans women silk production and the cost of goods in a frontier colony The Reports are an underutilized resource for the study of this period and an unparalleled source for the evolution of a rural community during the early years of the colony The Georgia Open History Library has been made possible in part by a major grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities Democracy demands wisdom Any views findings conclusions or recommendations expressed in this collection do not necessarily represent those of the National Endowment for the

Humanities Heaven Is Empty, Hell Is Full Asfaw D. Negotiating Borderlines in Four Contemporary Migrant Writers from the Middle East Petya Tsoneva Ivanova, 2018-10-23 The book considers the persistent tendency to represent the Middle East as a region enclosed in less permeable boundaries This perspective of enclosure haunts Middle Eastern Studies and is part of ongoing cultural debates on cross border circulation currently challenged by spectacular outbursts of violence along resurfacing lines of division This critical study analyses selected works of four contemporary Anglophone migrant writers from the Middle East namely Rabih Alameddine Diana Abu Jaber Laila Halaby and Elif Shafak to demonstrate that in spite of the forceful lines that remain after religious ethnic and political disputes this region does not exist as a rigidly delimited place in the writing of migrants who reclaim it back from beyond its boundaries Rather than being a permanent location it is constructed as a place that flows into other places and is constantly reshaped by a variety of personal stories migrant trajectories departures and returns

Karyana's Journey Sebastien Busque, 2018-01-04 A star is plucked from the heavens given mortal form and sent into the world of Medieth The love of starborn Karyana is the one slim hope that Reveen exiled Planar of Magic has for redemption Such is the will and mercy of the Divine Council There is one member of council however who will stop at nothing to extinguish that faint spark of grace Xelnos the Planar of Destruction would tear all hope from Reveen once and for all Working through Pison a dark assassin of preternatural origin and ability Xelnos sets his will and hatred in Reveen's path But the intricacies of fate are such that none can know the ultimate consequences of any action
