Hebbels Prose Tragedies:

Hebbel's Prose Tragedies Mary Garland, 1973-07-05 A study of the nineteenth century German writer Friedrich Hebbel concentrating on his tragedies in prose and examining in particular the way in which the language is used to convey Hebbel's beliefs attitudes and intellectual preoccupations and also the dramatic effects The three tragedies Judith Maria Magdalene and Agnes Bernauer are studied in turn Encyclopedia of the Romantic Era, 1760-1850 Christopher John

Murray, 2013-05-13 In 850 analytical articles this two volume set explores the developments that influenced the profound changes in thought and sensibility during the second half of the eighteenth century and the first half of the nineteenth century The Encyclopedia provides readers with a clear detailed and accurate reference source on the literature thought music and art of the period demonstrating the rich interplay of international influences and cross currents at work and to explore the many issues raised by the very concepts of Romantic and Romanticism Encyclopedia of German Literature Matthias Konzett, 2015-05-11 Designed to provide English readers of German literature the opportunity to familiarize themselves with both the established canon and newly emerging literatures that reflect the concerns of women and ethnic minorities the Encyclopedia of German Literature includes more than 500 entries on writers individual work and topics essential to an understanding of this rich literary tradition Drawing on the expertise of an international group of experts the essays in the encyclopedia reflect developments of the latest scholarship in German literature culture and history and society In addition to the essays author entries include biographies and works lists and works entries provide information about first editions selected critical editions and English language translations All entries conclude with a list of further readings

Twentieth-century Reworkings of German Literature Gundula Sharman, 2002 A study of six modern reworkings of classic works of German literature A literary reworking is a fictional work based on an earlier usually canonical literary work Gundula M Sharman considers six twentieth century examples of this phenomenon in German literature including Peter Schneider's Lenz as a reworking of Georg Büchner's novella of the same title Ulrich Plenzdorf's Die neuen Leiden des jungen Werther as a reworking of Goethe's Werther Wolfgang Koeppen's Der Tod in Rom based on Thomas Mann's Der Tod in Venedig and three other pairs of reworkings original works from the genres of drama the novella and the novel The indebtedness of such reworkings to the original works is openly acknowledged often in the title and this invites the reader to draw comparisons and to note contrasts between reworking and original The twentieth century author's interpretation and the reader's reception of the older work merge to form a subtext of the reworking giving rise to a third narrative in the reader's imagination The better the reader knows the literary model the more multi-faceted the reworking appears The purpose of each reworking is unique One may demonstrate how much the world has changed since the publication of the original while another argues that society has not changed at all One may be conceived as an anti-work to the original while another serves to endorse its message Common to all reworkings however is a gain in historical depth and in each case themes and issues arise from the relationship of reworking to original that are not immediately apparent when the reworking is considered on its own Gundula M Sharman teaches in the German Department at the University of Aberdeen Scotland
