Helene Cixous achieved world fame for her short stories criticism and fictionalized autobiography Dedans 1969 Her work quickly became controversial because it frankly tested a distinction between male and female writing Her literary experiments and her conclusions make her one of the most stimulating and most elusive feminist theorists of our time Verena Andermatt Conley a professor of French and women's studies at Miami University has written the first full length study of Cixous in English Looking at Cixous as writer teacher and theoretician Conley takes up Cixous's ongoing exploration of the feminine as related to the masculine words not to be equated with woman and man and her search for a terminology less freighted with emotion and prejudgment Conley has updated this paperback edition with a new preface bibliography and interview with Cixous conducted by the editors of Hors Cadre Language and Sexual Difference Susan Sellers, 1991-12-02

An accessible introduction to French feminist theory and contemporary French women's writing for non French speakers The book offers a context to this challenging controversial body of work by giving clear accounts of the philosophical post structural and psychoanalytic debates which have had such an impact on French intellectual life in recent years and to which French feminist writers offer a response The Taiwanese Cinematization of Feminine Writing Ya-chen Chen, 2022-09-30 A

The obese female body has often been portrayed as the other to the slender body However this process of othering or viewing as different has created a repressive discourse where excess has increasingly come to be studied as a physical abnormality or a signifier of a personality defect in contemporary Western society This book engages with the multifarious reimaginings of the excessive embodiment in contemporary women's writing drawing specifically on the construction of this form of embodiment in the works of Fay Weldon Jeanette Winterson Margaret Atwood Claude Tardat and Judith Moore whose texts offer a distinct literary response to the rigidly homogeneous and limiting representations of fatness while prompting heterogeneous approaches to reading the excessive female embodiment Hélène Cixous, Rootprints Mireille Calle-Gruber, Hélène Cixous, 2012-11-12 Helene Cixous is undoubtedly one of the most brilliant and innovative contemporary thinkers Published here in English for the first time Helene Cixous Rootprints is an ideal introduction to Cixous's theory and her fiction tracing her development as a writer and intellectual whose remarkable prespicacity and electrifying poetic force are known world wide Unprecedented in its form and content this collection breaks new ground in the theory and practice of auto biography Cixous's creative reflections on the past provide occasion for scintillating forays into the future The text includes an extended interview between Cixous and Calle Gruber exploring Cixous's creative and intellectual processes a revealing collection of photographs taken from Cixous's family album set against a poetic reflection by the author selections from Cixous's private notebooks a contribution by Jacques Derrida original thing pieces by Calle Gruber On the Politics of Ugliness Sara Rodrigues, Ela Przybylo, 2018-08-29 Ugliness or unsightliness is much more than a quality or property of an individual's appearance it has long functioned as a social category that demarcates access to social cultural and political spaces and capital The editors of and authors in this collection harness intersectional and interdisciplinary approaches in order to examine ugliness as a political category that is deployed to uphold established notions of worth and entitlement On the Politics of Ugliness identifies and challenges the harmful effects that labels and feelings of ugliness have on individuals and the socio political order It explores ugliness in relation to the intersectional processes of racialization colonization and settler colonialism gender making ableism heteronormativity and fatphobia On the Politics of Ugliness asks that we fight against visual injustice and imagine new ways of seeing Critical Writing for Embodied Approaches Elizabeth Mackinlay, 2019-02-21 Autoethnography is a unique discipline which steps inside and outside the self to experience embody and express social and cultural meaning At once a performative political and poetic genre of research writing it holds the potential to uncover the heart of the world if only for a moment The author uses theory as story and story as theory to explore her place in the world through painstaking and intimate self and social narratives to lay bare the unique challenges and rewards of autoethnography Framed around the metaphor of heartlines the author explores autoethnographic practice as critical feminist and decolonial work and the power it holds for not only imagining a wise ethical and loving world but for making such a kind place possible Through a performative journey of the heart we travel with the author as she unearths the power of words of writing and not writing evoking in particular the work of Hélène Cixous and Virginia Woolf This reflective passionate and pioneering volume will be of interest and value to all those interested in autoethnography and the ways in which it can be applied as critical ethical and political work in the social sciences

The Routledge Companion to Ethics and Research in Ethnomusicology Jonathan P. J. Stock, Beverley Diamond, 2022-11-30 The Routledge Companion to Ethics and Research in Ethnomusicology is an in depth survey of the moral challenges and imperatives of conducting research on people making music. It focuses on fundamental and compelling ethical questions that have challenged and shaped both the history of this discipline and its current practices. In 26 representative cases from across a broad spectrum of geographical, societal and musical environments, authors collectively reflect on the impacts of ethnomusicological research, exploring the ways our work may instantiate privilege or risk, bringing harm as well as the means that are available to provide recognition, benefit and reciprocity to the musicians and others who contribute to our studies. In a world where differing ethical values are often in conflict and where music itself is meanwhile a powerful tool in projecting moral claims, we aim to uncover the conditions and consequences of the ethical choices we face as ethnomusicologists, thereby contributing to building a more engaged, restructured discipline and a more globally responsible music studies. The volume comprises four parts: 1. sound practices and philosophies of ethics; 2. fieldwork encounters; 3. environment, trauma, collaboration; and 4. research in public domains.

Art and Aesthetics of Modern Mythopoeia V2 Ritushree Sengupta & Ashish Kumar Gupta, 2021-05-15. Human culture has always weaved myths around its pattern of existence for multiple purposes. The interplay of religion and social practices have found their own space within the sphere of mythology. It is possible to read mythical texts to probe into the greater picture of human civilization. The contribution of myths towards the shaping of human beliefs, behavioural patterns are evident and assessing them often reveals a plethora of cultural histories, unexplored and therefore unacknowledged before. The contribution of mythopoeia towards the construct of human socio-cultural identity has been largely accepted. Modern academia has thus taken a strong interest in revisionist literature to understand the hitherto unknown nuances of human civilization. In the edited anthology Art and Aesthetics of Modern Mythopoeia: Literatures, Myths and Revisionism Vol II, like the first volume, an attempt has been made to anthologize the works of a large number of authors who have talked about pertinent issues in the context of myth-making, the latent politics of mythopoeia and has taken into account several under-explored texts that are rich in mythical content. This volume offers a wide range of critical studies involving classical as well as modern myths around the globe.

Writing Differences Susan Sellers, 1988. Writing Differences is a collection of readings from the members of Helene Cixous' research seminar at the Centre d'Etudes Feminines in Paris.
