Literatures Peter Moopi, Rodwell Makombe, 2023-10-06 This book explores literary representations of African immigrant experiences in Western countries against the backdrop of colonial stereotypes and recent expressions of anti-immigrant sentiment in Europe and America The book deploys the concept of coloniality of migrancy to explore how global coloniality continues to shape the identities and lived experiences of African immigrants as represented in African diasporic literatures It considers the persistence of racist and discriminatory attitudes and patterns of thought that developed during slavery and colonialism and asks to what extent it is possible for African immigrants to transcend race in their configuration of their identity Five key twenty first century African diasporic novels are considered in the analysis Imbolo Mbue's Behold the Dreamers Dave Eggers' What is the What The Autobiography of Valentino Achak Deng Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's Americanah NoViolet Bulawayo's We Need New Names and Helon Habila's Travellers Overall the book demonstrates that despite the hostility migrants of colour encounter Africans are shunning the victimhood of colonialism and slavery and finding alternative ways of navigating and inhabiting the modern world Foregrounding the usefulness of decoloniality and postcolonial theory as theoretical tools this book will be an invaluable resource to researchers across the fields of African literature migration sociology politics and decolonial studies

Letters of Louis MacNeice Louis MacNeice, 2014-11-20 Louis MacNeice is increasingly recognised as one of the greatest poets of the twentieth century and his work has been a defining influence upon a generation of Irish poets that includes Derek Mahon, Michael Longley and Paul Muldoon. The Selected Letters is indispensable as a resource for an understanding of the intellectual culture of the mid twentieth century. A Classics don, poet, playwright and globetrotting BBC producer, the medley and blend of MacNeice's cultural influences seems exemplary in its modernity. He kept up a significant correspondence with E. R. Dodds, Anthony Blunt and T. S. Eliot to name but three prominent figures of the time. During his time at the BBC, MacNeice witnessed many key events including the partition of India in 1947 and the independence of the Gold Coast from Britain in 1957 and these are recorded in two long sequences to his wife, the singer Hedli Anderson. His complex relationship to Ireland and to his Irish heritages speak resonantly to contemporary debates about Irish and Northern Irish cultural identity. Finally, the Letters will do much to broaden our understanding of a vivid and often enigmatic personality whose varied life and individual charisma have often resisted explanation.
