Elizabeth MacFarlane, 2013-07-01 Just as J M Coetzee's post 2003 books present essays and narrative alongside one another this book engages with its ideas through both critical and creative writing Reading Coetzee interleaves critical essays on Coetzee's works with an autobiographical narrative detailing MacFarlane's more personal response to her reading and writing The presentation of elements of the creative with the critical and the critical within the creative aims to challenge the traditional boundary between the two This kind of methodology derives from the idea and practice of embodiment that an idea or philosophy does not float free but is tied to the idiosyncrasies divergences and subjective travel of its speaker or writer Coetzee's Elizabeth Costello Slow Man and Diary of a Bad Year explicitly address themes which abide more surreptitiously throughout his oeuvre the divisions and paradoxes which occur the moment pen gains page the value of literature and the ethics of embodiment In revealing the dialogue between writer self and reader self and between author and character these recent novels invite a rereading of Coetzee's previous literature Reading Coetzee explores Coetzee's preoccupation with the act of writing using his recent books as a lens through which to view his eight previous novels as well as his memoirs and essays Reading Cats and Dogs Françoise Besson, Zélia M. Bora, Marianne Marroum, Scott Slovic, 2020-12-30 Throughout the world people spend much of their time with animal companions of various kinds frequently with cats and dogs What meanings do we make of these relationships In the ecocritical collection Reading cats and Dogs a diverse array of scholars considers the philosophy literature and film devoted to human relationships with companion species In addition to illuminating famous animal stories by Beatrix Potter Jack London Italo Svevo and Michael Ondaatje readers are introduced to the dog poems of Shuntaro Tanikawa a Turkish documentary on stray cats as neighborhood companions and the representation of diverse animal companions in Cameroonian novels Focusing on Stray and Feral Companions The Usefulness of Companion Animals and Problematizing Companion Animals Reading Cats and Dogs aims both to confirm and topple readers' assumptions about the fellow travelers with whom we share our lives our streets and fields and our planet Fifteen contributors from various countries reveal the aesthetic ethical and psychological complexities of our multispecies relationships demonstrating the richness of ecocritical animal studies Reading Dionysus Courtney J.P. Friesen, 2015-07-17 Courtney J P Friesen explores shifting boundaries of ancient religions by way of the reception of a popular tragedy Euripides Bacchae As a play staging political crises provoked by the arrival of the foreign god Dionysus and his ecstatic cult audiences and readers found resonances with their own cultural moments This dramatic deity became emblematic of exuberant and liberating spirituality and at the same time a symbol of imperial conquest Thus readings of the Bacchae frequently foreground conflicts between religious autonomy and political authority and between ethnic diversity and social cohesion This cross disciplinary study traces appropriations and evocations of this drama ranging from the fifth century BCE through Byzantium not only among pagans but also Jews and Christians Writers variously articulated their religious visions over against Dionysus often while paradoxically adopting the god's language and symbols Consequently imitation and emulation are at times indistinguishable from polemics and subversion
