How To Make Decisions That Stay Made:

Resources in Education, 1990      Disrupting the Teacher Opportunity Gap Jon Saphier, 2023-07-12 For over 70 years our nation's public schools have engaged in a multitude of reform efforts at all levels of the educational enterprise Without question we have encountered bright spot examples of educators who have elevated the quality of their teaching and learning and even helping to narrow achievement gaps And without question our approach has been for the most part scattershot The painful truth is that there is no single silver bullet solution Excellent teaching is a highly complex endeavor and no single program course of study or survival guide will adequately prepare our educators to meet the challenge With that said as Ron Edmonds proclaimed more than 40 years ago We can whenever and wherever we choose successfully teach all children whose schooling is of interest to us We already know more than we need to do that So if the knowledge base for high impact teaching is there why has it been so difficult to implement it at scale c Provided by publisher      Jsl Vol 6-N5

Regent Park Redux Laura Johnson, Robert Johnson, 2017-05-12 Regent Park Redux evaluates one of the biggest experiments in public housing redevelopment from the tenant perspective Built in the 1940s Toronto's Regent Park has experienced common large scale public housing problems. Instead of simply tearing down old buildings and scattering inhabitants, the city's housing authority came up with a plan for radical transformation. In partnership with a private developer, the Toronto Community Housing Corporation organized a twenty year billion dollar makeover. The reconstituted neighbourhood, one of the most diverse in the world, will offer a new mix of amenities and social services intended to reknit the urban fabric. Regent Park Redux, based on a ten year study of 52 households as they moved through stages of displacement and resettlement, examines the dreams and hopes residents have for their community and their future. Urban planners and designers across the world, in cities facing some of the same challenges as Toronto, will want to pay attention to this story.

In the Image of God Shirley Mayhood, 2022-05-02 We were created in the image of our Creator. It was a perfect and loving relationship, but when Adam and Eve chose evil over that relationship with their Creator, that image of God we were created with was lost to us. In our world today, many Christians are more attuned to the world than to God's Word. Many seem to have the attitude that because they are in the world, they must be like the world. But this world is not anything like God, and Christians need to come to the certain knowledge that they are in the world but not of the world. We as God's kids are not to live in the image of a lost world careening into a dark and bottomless pit of pure evil. Jesus Christ became our atoning sacrifice so that you and I can return to that original image of God that we were created to be. This ought to be our goal in life: to be like God, to do our very best to live in the image of God. This book is a daily devotional of biblical attitudes, characteristics of Jesus Christ, the deep meaning and example of God's amazing precepts and loving actions. God gave us a book to show us His right and loving law, but when Jesus came, He condensed all of the Father's law into just two. Jesus said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself." On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets. Matthew 22:37-40. It is my sincere hope that this book of devotions will help all who read it to know God better, to love Him more, and to understand what the true image of God means. 451
