Inside the walls of Angola State Penitentiary survival isn't about rehabilitation It's about becoming someone you never intended to be Michael Burge entered the system as a broken young man shaped by childhood abuse and street violence He emerged as Iron Mike a figure both feared and respected in one of America's most notorious prisons This true crime account follows Burge's transformation from a neglected child to a hardened survivor revealing how the very institutions meant to reform can instead destroy Through intimate details of prison hierarchy unwritten codes of conduct and the constant threat of violence Albert Schriber exposes the brutal reality of life behind bars When a violent incident leads to murder charges Burge faces a legal system that seems more interested in punishment than understanding the circumstances that created him This isn't a story of redemption but a stark warning about what happens when society locks people away without addressing the trauma that made them criminals in the first place When the system breeds the very violence it claims to prevent who bears responsibility Subterranean Fanon Gavin Arnall, 2020-08-18 The problem of change recurs across Frantz Fanon's writings As a philosopher psychiatrist and revolutionary Fanon was deeply committed to theorizing and instigating change in all of its facets Change is the thread that ties together his critical dialogue with Hegel Marx Freud and Nietzsche and his intellectual exchange with C saire Koj ve and Sartre It informs his analysis of racism and colonialism n gritude and the veil language and culture disalienation and decolonization and it underpins his reflections on Martinique Algeria the Caribbean Africa the Third World and the world at large Gavin Arnall traces an internal division throughout Fanon s work between two distinct modes of thinking about change He contends that there are two Fanons a dominant Fanon who conceives of change as a dialectical process of becoming and a subterranean Fanon who experiments with an even more explosive underground theory of transformation Arnall offers close readings of Fanon s entire oeuvre from canonical works like Black Skin White Masks and The Wretched of the Earth to his psychiatric papers and recently published materials including his play Parallel Hands Speaking both to scholars and to the continued vitality of Fanon s ideas among today s social movements this book offers a rigorous and profoundly original engagement with Fanon that affirms his importance in the effort to bring about radical change

Derrida's Marrano Passover Agata Bielik-Robson, 2022-12-15 In this first ever monograph on Jacques Derrida's Toledo confession where he portrayed himself as sort of a Marrano of the French Catholic culture Agata Bielik Robson shows Derrida's marranismo to be a literary experiment of auto fiction She looks at all possible aspects of Derrida's Marrano identification in order to demonstrate that it ultimately constitutes a trope of non identitarian evasion that permeates all his works just as Marranos cannot be characterized as either Jewish or Christian so is Derrida's universal Marranism an invitation to think philosophically politically and last but not least metaphysically without rigid categories of identity and belonging By concentrating on Derrida's deliberate choice of marranismo Bielik Robson shows that it penetrates deep into the very core of his late thinking constantly drawing on the literary works of Kafka Celan Joyce Cixous and Valéry and throws a new light on his early works most of all Of Grammatology Dissemination and Difference She also offers a completely new interpretation of many of Derrida's works only seemingly non-related to the Marrano issue like Glas Given Time Counterfeit Money Death Penalty Seminar and Specters of Marx In these new readings this book demonstrates that the Marrano Derrida is not a marginal auto-biographical figure overshadowed by Derrida the Philosopher it is one and the same thinker who discovered marranismo as a literary trope of openness offering up a new genre of philosophical story telling which centers around Derrida's Marrano auto-fable
