A Companion to Latin American Literature Stephen M. Hart, 2007 The evolution of Latin American literature A Companion to Latin American Literature offers a lively and informative introduction to the most significant literary works produced in Latin America from the fifteenth century until the present day It shows how the press and its product the printed word functioned as the common denominator binding together in different ways over time the complex and variable relationship between the writer the reader and the state The meandering story of the evolution of Latin American literature from the letters of discovery written by Christopher Columbus and Vaz de Caminha via the Republican era at the end of the nineteenth century when writers in Rio de Janeiro as much as in Buenos Aires were beginning to live off their pens as journalists and serial novelists until the 1960s when writers of the quality of Clarice Lispector in Brazil and García Márquez in Colombia suddenly burst onto the world stage is traced chronologically in six chapters which introduce the main writers in the main genres of poetry prose the novel drama and the essay A final chapter evaluates the post boom novel testimonio Latino and Brazilian literature gay Afro Hispanic and Afro Brazilian literature along with the Novel of the New Millennium This study also offers suggestions for further reading STEPHEN M HART is Professor of Hispanic Studies University College London and Profesor Honorario Universidad de San Marcos Lima

El llano en llamas y otros cuentos Juan Rulfo, 1955 The Plain in Flames Juan Rulfo, 2012-09-01 Juan Rulfo is one of the most important writers of twentieth century Mexico though he wrote only two books the novel Pedro Páramo 1955 and the short story collection El llano en llamas 1953 First translated into English in 1967 as The Burning Plain these starkly realistic stories create a psychologically acute portrait of poverty and dignity in the countryside at a time when Mexico was undergoing rapid industrialization following the upheavals of the Revolution According to Ilan Stavans the stories depth seems almost inexhaustible with a few strokes Rulfo creates a complex human landscape defined by desolation These stories are lessons in morality They are also astonishing examples of artistic distillation To introduce a new generation of readers to Rulfo's unsurpassable literary talents this new translation repositions the collection as a classic of world literature Working from the definitive Spanish edition of El llano en llamas established by the Fundación Juan Rulfo Ilan Stavans and co translator Harold Augenbraum present fresh translations of the original fifteen stories as well as two more stories that have not appeared in English before The Legacy of Matilde Arcangel and The Day of the Collapse The translators have artfully preserved the author's peasantisms in appreciation of the distinctive voices of his characters Such careful elegiac rendering of the stories perfectly suits Rulfo's Mexico in which people on the edge of despair nonetheless retain a sense of self of integrity that will not be taken away
