The Art Criticism of Francis Ponge Shirley Ann Jordan, 1994 This study of Francis Ponge's essays on contemporary artists L'Atelier contemporain attempts to broaden the popular view of the author as a poet of objects It explores Ponge's perception of art criticism as an inherently problematic genre and exposes the inhibitions surrounding the production of the essays The study demonstrates how Ponge's essays on artists parallel developments in his other works They are seen as instrumental in his movement towards open texts and a stress on the creative process itself as well as opportunities to reaffirm his philosophical and aesthetic stance Francis Ponge and the Nature of Things Patrick Alan Meadows, 1997 One of the most significant French poets of the twentieth century Francis Ponge is treated in this study The fundamental role of atomistic philosophy in Ponge's writings especially as expressed in Lucretius's De Rerum Natura is discussed Meadows is the first author to examine Ponge's writings in a book length study The Material, the Real, and the Fractured Self Susan Harrow, 2004-01-01 In The Material the Real and the Fractured Self Susan Harrow explores the fascinating interrelation of subjectivity materiality and representation in the poetry and related texts of four modern French writers Arthur Rimbaud Guillaume Apollinaire Francis Ponge and Jacques R du She demonstrates the richness and the relevance of modern French poetry for today's readers putting contemporary thought to work on the fractured self emerging in the post Baudelairian lyric Harrow addresses the widely perceived marginalization of poetry in the writing theory debate demonstrating that the emergence of a self at once shaped by and straining against material historical subjective and cultural impediments reveals fertile relations between theory and poetry Where purer forms of postmodernist thinking have stressed the dissolution and dispersal of the human subject new approaches informed by cultural studies autobiography theory and gender studies work to recover fictions of experience and retrieve submerged narratives of the self Probing the activity of textual self recovery among the debris of history and fantasy visuality and desire and culture and corporeality The Material the Real and the Fractured Self imparts something of the startling beauty and the raw urgency of poetry writing across the broad modern period Francis Ponge Tineke Kingma-Eijgendaal, Paul J. Bourdieu,1990 Pierre Bourdieu is one of the most protean intellectual forces in contemporary French thought He holds the chair in sociology at the prestigious Collège de France yet his influence extends far beyond the area of sociological research and theory Bourdieu's work presented in over twenty books lies on the borders of philosophy anthropology and ethnology and cultural theory The present volume consists of diverse individual texts produced between 1980 and 1986 which take two forms interviews in which Bourdieu confronts a series of probing and intelligent interviewers and conference papers that clarify and extend specific areas of his current research Now that Bourdieu's work has achieved wide diffusion and celebrity this is an appropriate time for this volume a pause for retrospection and resynthesis for correction of misreadings and extension of previous insights and for projection of the next stages of his work For this English edition Bourdieu's celebrated inaugural lecture at the Collège de France Leçon sur la Leçon has been added Because of the verve and clarity of Bourdieu's arguments in this book it is a very readable and concise introduction to his work Poetry and Cosmogony Chris

Principalities and Powers Jamie Pitts,2014-08-28 Principalities and Powers is an ambitious analysis of John Howard Yoder's complex sociological theory Jamie Pitts' work transcends ideological boundaries which have perplexed the many writers who have approached the legacy of John Howard Yoder after his death in 1997 Although there is much disagreement a broad consensus is forming that his theology was on the one hand focused on the social and political meaning of the New Testament accounts of Jesus Christ and on the other hand sociologically reductive hermeneutically tendentious and ecclesialogically ambiguous Principalities and Powers proposes a revision of Yoder's theology that maintains its broadly sociological emphasis but corrects for its apparent methodological political and metaphysical problems Specifically adjustments are made to his social theory to open it to spiritual reality to hone its analytical approach and to clarify its political import To do so his preferred framework for social criticism the theology of the principalities and powers is examined in the context of his wider work and its critics and then synthesized with concepts from Pierre Bourdieu's influential reflexive sociology Food, Poetry, and the Aesthetics of Consumption Michel Delville, 2012-08-06 From Plato's dismissal of food as a distraction from thought to Kant's relegation of the palate to the bottom of the hierarchy of the senses the sense of taste has consistently been devalued by Western aesthetics Kant is often invoked as evidence that philosophers consider taste as an inferior sense because it belongs to the realm of the private and subjective and does not seem to be required in the development of higher types of knowledge From a gastrosophical perspective however what Kant perceives as a limitation becomes a new field of enquiry that investigates the dialectics of diet and discourse self and matter inside and outside The essays in this book examine the importance of food as a pivotal element both materially and conceptually in the history of the Western avant garde From Gertrude Stein to Alain Robbe Grillet and Samuel Beckett from F T Marinetti to Andy Warhol from Marcel Duchamp to Eleanor Antin the examples chosen explore the conjunction of art and foodstuff in ways that interrogate contemporary notions of the body language and subjectivity Francis Ponge, 2023-04-17
