Francois Mauriac Revisited:

François Mauriac Revisited David O'Connell, 1995 In this new entry in Twayne's World Authors Series David O'Connell provides an exceptionally well written jargon free introduction to Mauriac a thoroughly updated rendition of Maxwell Smith's well received Francois Mauriac 1970 Drawing on a trove of primary source material that has become available in the interim O'Connell focuses on the people and events influencing Mauriac's personal life and how these were manifested in his writings Organizing his material partly chronologically and partly by genre O'Connell surveys the writer's major accomplishments and occasional failings he sheds much needed light on such developments as the spiritual crisis Mauriac underwent in 1927-30 and the writer's shift from supporter of right wing causes to leading spokesman for the Resistance during World War II Observing that Mauriac's influence at home and abroad was enormous during his lifetime and that since his death no Catholic writer of comparable stature has emerged to replace him O'Connell underscores Mauriac's enduring place in world literature Readers seeking a first rate guide to this cardinal writer need look no further than Francois Mauriac Revisited

Confession in the Novel Les W. Smith, 1996 A heritage of conflict in author character relations emerges through works by Dostoevsky Mauriac O'Connor and DeLillo where the issue of a character's freedom from the author's perspective proves essential to understanding narrative form

Mauriac Paul Cooke, 2021-11-22 Although internationally renowned as a novelist journalist and essayist Nobel Prize winning author François Mauriac 1885-1970 never established a reputation as a poet Yet it was Maurice Barrès's favourable review of his first collection of verse Les Mains jointes that launched Mauriac's career in 1910 He went on to publish three further collections of poems and insisted to the end of his life that despite critical neglect of his verse he remained first and foremost a poet This book offers the first ever in depth exploration of the whole of Mauriac's verse output After a chapter tracing his general conception of poetry and comparing his ideas to those of other poets and theorists each of Mauriac's verse collections is analysed in turn as are many of his poems that were published exclusively in literary journals A final chapter explores the significant relationship between Mauriac's verse and his novels revealing the multiple connections between these two series of texts This volume will appeal to those with an interest in twentieth century French poetry and more generally to those interested in the relationship between verse and prose

God and Mammon François Mauriac, 2003 In this translation of two seminal works by Mauriac the 1930 novel What Was Lost and its theoretical basis the 1929 essay God and Mammon Raymond MacKenzie re-introduces Mauriac to the English speaking world

A Deeper Vision Robert Royal, 2015-10-30 In this wide ranging and ambitious volume Robert Royal a prominent participant for many years in debates about religion and contemporary life offers a comprehensive and balanced appraisal of the Catholic intellectual tradition in the twentieth century The Catholic Church values both Faith and Reason and Catholicism has given risen to extraordinary ideas and whole schools of remarkable thought not just in the distant past but throughout the troubled decades of the twentieth century Royal presents in a single volume a sweeping but readable account of how Catholic thinking developed in philosophy theology Scripture studies culture literature and much more in the twentieth century This involves great figures recognized as such both inside and outside the Church such as Jacques Maritain Bernard Lonergan Joseph Pieper Edith Stein Alasdair MacIntyre Charles Taylor Romano Guardini Karl Rahner Henri du Lubac Karol Wojtyla Joseph Ratzinger Hans Urs von Balthasar Charles Peguy Paul Claudel George Bernanos Francois Mauriac G K Chesterton Gerard Manley Hopkins Christopher Dawson Graham Greene Sigrid Undset J R R Tolkien Czeslaw Milosz and many more Royal argues that without rigorous thought Catholicism however welcoming and nourishing it might be would become something like a doctor with a good bedside manner but who knows little medicine It has always been the aspiration of the Catholic tradition to unite emotion and intellect action and contemplation But unless we know what the tradition has already produced especially in the work of the great figures of the recent past we will not be able to answer the challenges that the modern world poses or even properly recognize the true questions we face This is a reflective non polemical work that brings together various strands of Catholic thought in the twentieth century A comprehensive guide to the recent past and the future Stolen Limelight Margaret E. Gray,2022-05-15 Who has not in a favored moment stolen the limelight whether inadvertently or by design The implications of such an act of display its illicitness its verve its vertiginous reversal of power its subversiveness are explored in this book Narrative crafting and management of such scenarios are studied across canonical novels by Gide Colette Mauriac and Duras as well as by African Francophone writer Oyono and detective novelist Japrisot As manipulated within narrative acts of display position a viewer or reader from whom response from veneration or desire to repugnance or horror is solicited but this study demonstrates that display can also work subversively destabilising and displacing such a privileged spectator As strategies of displacement these scenarios ultimately neutralise and even occult the very subject they so energetically appear to solicit Powered by gendered tensions this dynamic of display as displacement works toward purposes of struggle resistance or repression Nouveaux cahiers François Mauriac n°03 François Mauriac,2014-04-01 Ce volume est le troisi me de la s rie des Nouveaux cahiers Fran ois Mauriac

The French Writers' War, 1940-1953 Gisèle Sapiro, 2014-04-23 The French Writers War 1940 1953 is a remarkably thorough account of French writers and literary institutions from the beginning of the German Occupation through France's passage of amnesty laws in the early 1950s To understand how the Occupation affected French literary production as a whole Gisèle

Sapiro uses Pierre Bourdieu's notion of the literary field. Sapiro surveyed the career trajectories and literary and political positions of 185 writers. She found that writers' stances in relation to the Vichy regime are best explained in terms of institutional and structural factors rather than ideology. Examining four major French literary institutions from the conservative French Academy to the Comité national des écrivains, a group formed in 1941 to resist the Occupation, she chronicles the institutions' histories before turning to the ways that they influenced writers' political positions. Sapiro shows how significant institutions and individuals within France's literary field exacerbated their loss of independence or found ways of resisting during the war and Occupation as well as how they were perceived after Liberation.
