Francois Simiand François Simmiand, Marina Cedronio, 1987-01-01 Méthode historique et science sociale François Simiand, 2024-01-21 Méthode historique et science sociale 2e partie de François Simiand se penche sur les principes et applications de la méthode historique dans le contexte plus large des sciences sociales L'auteur discute des approches spécifiques utilisées dans la recherche historique soulignant l'importance de la rigueur méthodologique et de l'analyse critique des sources François Simiand, 1987 Méthode historique et sciences sociales François Simiand, Marina Cedronio, 1987 History and Sociology in France Robert Leroux, 2017-08-31 In the late 19th century and early part of the 20th with the coming of age of sociology in France the idea that there could be a science of history was the subject of much and varied debate The methodological problems surrounding historical knowledge that were debated throughout this period concerned not only scientific history but the social sciences as well and sociology more specifically Although sociology was from its origins in competition with the discipline of history from the outset it too was interested in history as a form of objective knowledge Many of sociology's founders believed that by retracing historical processes they could make a clean break with abstraction and metaphysics For their part historians generally remained hostile to any kind of systematization And yet at the end of the 19th century the science of history would draw some valuable lessons from the emerging methodology of sociology It was in large part under the impetus of the issues and problems raised by the philosopher Henri Berr and by the Durkheimian School with the economist François Simiand as its lead protagonist that the community of historians increasingly aware of the limits of narrative history turned so enthusiastically to social and economic history just as Durkheim and his disciples consulted history in order to avoid the twin pitfalls of the philosophy of history and of introspective psychology History and Sociology in France focuses on this dialogue of the two neighboring sciences La méthode historique appliquée aux sciences sociales Charles Seignobos, French Historians 1900-2000 Philip Daileader, Philip Whalen, 2010-03-16 French Historians 1900-2000 The New Historical Writing in Twentieth Century France examines the lives and writings of 40 of France's great twentieth century historians Blends biography with critical analysis of major works placing the work of the French historians in the context of their lifetimes Includes contributions from over 30 international scholars Provides English speaking readers with a new insight into the key French historians of the last century representations et images inconscientes les mentalités restituent les sociétés disparues dans les catégories l'aide desquelles elles se pensaient elles-mêmes L'Histoire ou la pensée des autres André Burguière directeur d'études l'cole des hautes études en sciences sociales est membre de la rédaction des Annales

Irreverence and the Sacred Hugh B. Urban, Greg Johnson, 2019 Irreverence and the Sacred brings together some of the most cutting edge interdisciplinary and international scholars working today in order to debate key issues in the critical and comparative study of religion The project is inspired in large part by the work of Bruce Lincoln whose influential and wide ranging scholarship has consistently posed challenging provocative and often irreverent questions that have really pushed the boundaries of the field of religious studies in important sometimes controversial ways Retracing the history of the discipline of religious studies Lincoln argues that the field has tended to champion a validating feel good approach to religion rather than posing more critical questions about religious claims to authority and their role in history politics and social change A critical approach to the history of religions he suggests would focus on the human temporal and material aspects of phenomena that are claimed to have a superhuman eternal or transcendent status This volume takes up Lincoln's challenge to do better by engaging in critical analyses of four key themes in the study of religion myth ritual gender and politics The book also interrogates the politics of scholarship itself critically examining the relations of power and material interests at work in the study as well as the practice of religion The scholars involved in this project include not only some of the most important figures in the American study of religion such as Wendy Doniger Russell McCutcheon Ivan Strenski and Lincoln himself but also European scholars whose work is hugely influential overseas but not as well known in the U S such as Stefan Arvidsson Claude Calame Nicolas Meylan and others
