Theatre of the Book, 1480-1880 Julie Stone Peters, 2003 This volume explores the impact of printing on the European theatre in the period 1480-1880 and shows that the printing press played a major part in the birth of modern theatre

Catalogue Maggs Bros, 1910

Fellow Men Bridget Alsdorf, 2022-07-12 Focusing on the art of Henri Fantin Latour 1836-1904 and his colleagues Gustave Courbet Edgar Degas Édouard Manet Frédéric Bazille and Pierre Auguste Renoir Fellow Men argues for the importance of the group as a defining subject of nineteenth century French painting Through close readings of some of the most ambitious paintings of the realist and impressionist generation Bridget Alsdorf offers new insights into how French painters understood the shifting boundaries of their social world and reveals the fragile masculine bonds that made up the avant garde A dedicated realist who veered between extremes of sociability and hermetic isolation Fantin Latour painted group dynamics over the course of two decades from 1864 to 1885 This was a period of dramatic change in French history and art events like the Paris Commune and the rise and fall of impressionism raised serious doubts about the power of collectivism in art and life Fantin Latour's monumental group portraits and related works by his friends and colleagues from the 1850s through the 1880s represent varied visions of collective identity and test the limits of association as both a social and an artistic pursuit By examining the bonds and frictions that animated their social circles Fantin Latour and his cohorts developed a new pictorial language for the modern group one of fragmentation exclusion and willful withdrawal into interior space that nonetheless presented individuality as radically relational

Book Auction Records Frank Karslake, 1921 A priced and annotated annual record of international book auctions

Baudelaire and Photography Timothy Raser, 2017-07-05 While Baudelaire's Le Peintre de la vie moderne is often cited as the first expression of our theory of modernism his choice of Constantin Guys as that painter has caused consternation from the moment of the essay's publication in 1863 Worse still in his Salon de 1859 Baudelaire had also chosen to condemn photography in terms that echo to this day Why did the excellent critic choose a mere reporter and illustrator as the painter of modern life How could he have overlooked photography as the painting of modern life In this study of modernity and photography in Baudelaire s writing Timothy Raser who has written on the art criticism of Baudelaire Proust Claudel and Sartre shows how these two aberrations of critical judgment are related and how they underlie current discussions of both photography and modernism Timothy Raser is Professor of French at the University of Georgia USA      National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1971 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70      The Bookseller ,1865

Bookseller ,1865 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series      The Turn Around Religion in America Michael P. Kramer,2016-02-24 Playing on the frequently used metaphors of the turn toward or turn back in scholarship on religion The Turn Around Religion in America offers a model of religion that moves in a reciprocal relationship between these two poles In particular this volume dedicates itself to a reading of religion and of religious meaning that cannot be reduced to history or ideology on the one hand or to truth or spirit on the other but is rather the product of the constant play between the historical particulars that manifest beliefs and the beliefs that take shape through them Taking as their point of departure the foundational scholarship of Sacvan Bercovitch the contributors locate the universal in the ongoing and particularized attempts of American authors from the seventeenth century forward to get it whatever that it might be right Examining authors as diverse as Pietro di Donato Herman Melville Miguel Algarin Edward Taylor Mark Twain Robert Keayne Nathaniel Hawthorne Paule Marshall Stephen Crane Ralph Waldo Emerson and Joseph B Soloveitchik among many others and a host of genres from novels and poetry to sermons philosophy history journalism photography theater and cinema the essays call for a discussion of religion s powers that does not seek to explain them as much as put them into conversation with each other Central to this project is Bercovitch s emphasis on the rhetoric ritual typology and symbology of religion and his recognition that with each aesthetic enactment of religion s power we learn something new      Engraved on Steel Basil Hunnisett,2018-09-05 First published in 1998 Engraved on Steel focuses on engraving and engravers exploring the use of steel engraving in both the decorative arts and in printing Basil Hunnisett also describes the context of the steel engraver s work The processes by which steel engraving became one of the most widely used forms of printing in the 19th century are described in detail as the developments in the print industry paper manufacture and publishing that determined its history The activities of print publishers are also examined including those of art unions      List of Works Relating to Money and Banking New York Public Library,1908      The Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1894      Catalogue of Ancient and Modern Books Sotheran,1852      Sale-catalogues of Second-hand Books on Sale by Henry Sotheran & Co Sotheran, Henry and Co,1871      The Most Arrogant Man in France Petra ten-Doesschate Chu,2024-05-14 A comprehensive reinterpretation of the pioneering and media savvy artist The modern artist strives to be independent of the public's taste and yet depends on the public for a living Petra Chu argues that the French Realist Gustave Courbet 1819-1877 understood this dilemma perhaps better than any painter before him In The Most Arrogant Man in France Chu tells the fascinating story of how in the initial age of mass media and popular high art this important artist managed to achieve an unprecedented measure of artistic and financial independence by promoting his work and himself through the popular press The Courbet who emerges in Chu's account is a sophisticated artist and entrepreneur who understood that the modern artist must sell and not only make his art Responding to this reality Courbet found new ways to package exhibit and publicize his work and himself Chu shows that Courbet was one of the first artists to recognize and take advantage of the publicity potential of newspapers using them to create acceptance of his work and to spread an image of himself as a radical outsider Courbet introduced the independent show by displaying his art in popular venues outside the Salon and he courted new audiences including women And for a time Courbet succeeded achieving a rare freedom for a nineteenth century French artist If his strategy eventually backfired and he was forced into exile his pioneering vision of the artist's career in the modern world nevertheless makes him an intriguing forerunner to all later media savvy artists
