Committee on Indian Affairs, 1942      Weeds Evelyn I. Funda, 2020-04-15 In Thomas Jefferson's day 90 percent of the population worked on family farms Today in a world dominated by agribusiness less than 1 percent of Americans claim farm related occupations What was lost along the way is something that Evelyn I Funda experienced firsthand when in 2001 her parents sold the last parcel of the farm they had worked since they married in 1957 Against that landscape of loss Funda explores her family's three generation farming experience in southern Idaho where her Czech immigrant family spent their lives turning a patch of sagebrush into crop land The story of Funda's family unfolds within the larger context of our country's rich immigrant history western culture and farming as a science and an art Situated at the crossroads of American farming Weeds A Farm Daughter's Lament offers a clear view of the nature the cost and the transformation of the American West Part cultural history part memoir and part elegy the book reminds us that in losing our attachment to the land we also lose some of our humanity and something at the very heart of our identity as a nation      Mineral Rights for Alaska Homesteaders United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs, 1959      Mineral Rights for Alaska Homesteaders United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs. could for agricultural purposes only pre-empt land. Along the Upper Sunshine Coast of those who took up the challenge, only some succeeded in carving a life out of this wild land while many failed. Through prodigious research and the careful cultivation of interviews, Barbara Ann Lambert tells the stories of those resourceful arrivals. Employing the day journals of homesteaders and interviews with their descendants, Lambert conveys the rich history of the Sunshine Coast. From Saltery Bay to Lund, she evokes the struggles and triumphs of those who once lived in this place. Lambert calls paradise Tall Tales of Montana Homesteading and Beyond. Thelma Van Hook Kirkish, 2011-09-06. A biography and moving story of a remarkable lady who is an avid horsewoman since the day she was born. Homesteading days in southeastern Montana on the prairie is about a strong, hard-working family surviving hardships and heartbreak, including love along the way. The mode of transportation was usually a horse or horse and buggy. No electricity, inside plumbing, or water, just the light of the kerosene lamps. During the depression years, the family made their own good times with many humorous stories and made the best of the bad. This story takes you to Missoula, Montana, then to Grand Coulee Dam as it was being built, then later to San Francisco during World War II, where she raised her three teenaged daughters and then the fun began. Urban Homesteading and HUD-owned Abandoned Homes. United States. Congress. House. Committee on Banking, Finance, and Urban Affairs. Subcommittee on Housing and Community Development, 1982. The Homesteader. Oscar Micheaux, 1917. H.R. 1691, the Homesteading and Neighborhood Restoration Act. United States. Congress. House. Committee on Banking and Financial Services. Subcommittee on Housing and Community Opportunity, 1996. Homesteading and Moving On. Helen Kurtenbach Furr, 2015-05-16. An absorbing account of second-generation German immigrants who remained in rather than left Depression-era South Dakota despite bleak prospects for their late nineteenth-century homestead. Homesteading and Moving On conveys one woman's memory of how, in its modest, devoted way, her family surmounted obstacles and over nine decades flourished nationwide, bolstered by faith, love, and mutual respect. Helen Kurtenbach Furr's recollections of her rural prairie childhood and subsequent travels throughout America demonstrate how documenting well-lived lives creates linkage and tribute. She wants future family generations to know their heritage and she hopes they'll recognize why understanding and appreciation are so important. The Homesteader (Western Novel). Oscar Micheaux, 2022-01-04. Jean Baptiste is a hard-working man whose only dream is to make a life for himself in Dakota. However, even as a black pioneer, he is doomed to be separated from the love of his life due to racial laws prohibiting interracial marriages. Thus, to avoid the all-consuming loneliness, he instead decides to get married to Orlean. However, his new father-in-law is a nightmare from hell, and although a preacher, all his attention is focused upon him rather than in the service of God. Can Baptiste survive the ordeal, or will he succumb to the psychological pressures? The novel is semi-autobiographical and was also adapted into a critically acclaimed silent-era film featuring an all-Black film cast. Extract: Their cognomen was Stewart, and three years had gone by since their return from Western Kansas, where they had been on what they now chose to regard as a Wild Goose Chase. The substance was that as farmers they had failed to raise even one crop during the three years they spent there so had in the end therefore returned broken and defeated to the rustic old district of Indiana where they had again taken up their residence on a rented farm Welcomed home like the return of the prodigal the age old gossip of I told you so had been exchanged and the episode was about forgotten
