U.S. History Through Children's Literature Wanda Miller, 1997-03-15 Allow students to step back in time to experience the thoughts feelings dilemmas and actions of people from history For each history topic Miller suggests two titles one for use with the entire class and one for use with small reading groups Summaries of the books author information activities and topics for discussion are supplemented with vocabulary lists and ideas for research topics and further reading This integrated approach makes history meaningful to students and helps them retain historical details and facts The Outlook, 1902 The American Contractor, 1916 The United States Catalog, 1904 The Church Eclectic, 1903 The Cumulative Book Index, 1903 The Publishers Weekly, 1902 Deaccessioning and Its Discontents Martin Gammon, 2018-11-06 The first history of the deaccession of objects from museum collections that defends deaccession as an essential component of museum practice Museums often stir controversy when they deaccession works formally remove objects from permanent collections with some critics accusing them of betraying civic virtue and the public trust In fact Martin Gammon argues in Deaccessioning and Its Discontents deaccession has been an essential component of the museum experiment for centuries Gammon offers the first critical history of deaccessioning by museums from the seventeenth to the twenty first century and exposes the hyperbolic extremes of deaccession denial the assumption that deaccession is always wrong and deaccession apology when museums justify deaccession by finding some fault in the object as symptoms of the same misunderstanding of the role of deaccessions in proper museum practice He chronicles a series of deaccession events in Britain and the United States that range from the disastrous to the beneficial and proposes a typology of principles to guide future deaccessions Gammon describes the liquidation of the British Royal Collections after Charles I's execution when masterworks were used as barter to pay the king's unpaid bills as establishing a precedent for future deaccessions He recounts among other episodes U S Civil War veterans who tried to reclaim their severed limbs from museum displays the 1972 Hoving affair when the Metropolitan Museum of Art sold a number of works to pay for a Velázquez portrait and Brandeis University's decision later reversed to close its Rose Art Museum and sell its entire collection of contemporary art An appendix provides the first extensive listing of notable deaccessions since the seventeenth century Gammon ultimately argues that vibrant museums must evolve embracing change loss and reinvention Historia William P.
