Inventing the Dream Kevin Starr,1986-12-04 This second volume in Kevin Starr s passionate and ambitious cultural history of the Golden State focuses on the turn of the century years and the emergence of Southern California as a regional culture in its own right How hauntingly beautiful how replete with lost possibilities seems that Southern California of two and three generations ago now that a dramatically diferent society has emerged in its place writes Starr As he recreates the lost California Starr examines the rich variety of elements that figured in the growth of the Southern California way of life the

Spanish Mexican roots the fertile land the Mediterranean like climate the special styles in architecture the rise of Hollywood He gives us a broad array of engaging and often eccentric characters from Harrison Gray Otis to Helen Hunt Jackson to Cecil B DeMille Whether discussing the growth of winemaking or the burgeoning of reform movements Starr keeps his central theme in sharp focus how Californians defined their identity to themselves and to the nation The Billboard ,1926

Techniques of Illusion Katharina Rein,2023-05-03 This book explores stage conjuring during its golden age from about 1860 to 1910 This study provides close readings highlighting four paradigmatic illusions of the time that stand in for different kinds of illusions typical of stage magic in the golden age and analyses them within their cultural and media historical context Pepper's Ghost the archetypal mirror illusion The Vanishing Lady staging a teleportation in a time of a dizzying acceleration of transport the levitation simulating weightlessness with the help of an extended steel machinery and The Second Sight a mind reading illusion using up to date communication technologies These close readings are completed by writings focusing on visual media and expanding the scope backwards and forwards in time roughly to 1800 and to 2000 This exploration will be of great interest to students and scholars in theatre and performance studies BorrowedTime L.A.
