Malcolm Richards,2023-09-12 Proximate Difference in Aesthetics Jacques Derrida and Institutional Critique examines interconnections between the texts of Jacques Derrida and works related to Institutional Critique in art At a juncture between philosophy and art texts by Derrida such as Diff rance Parergon Economimesis and Force of Law and works by Marcel Broodthaers Michael Asher Mierle Laderman Ukeles Fred Wilson Louise Lawler Andrea Fraser Maria Eichhorn and Cameron Rowland reveal shared investments in questions around the archive the institutional frames for art and the collision of aesthetics economics and the law These juxtapositions lead to insights not only into the relevance of Derrida s work to contemporary aesthetics but also into how the approaches of Institutional Critique offer a way of thinking through issues raised by Derrida s texts In being against traditional aesthetics Derrida and the artists under consideration brush up against the foundational premises of the institutions of philosophy aesthetics and art creating productive frictions that expose not only the foundational fictions and premises of their respective fields but also an alternative means of approaching philosophy art and aesthetics The small differences that Derrida and these artists open up through their practice radically reframe ways of thinking about their respective institutions fields and traditions The Cormorant and The Killing Ground Bernace Charles,2011-01-28 The Cormorant and The Killing Ground is a novel about the pressures of teaching and about two people who believe they have found true love Eight male high school faculty members spend many of their summer holidays playing at paintball The game turns deadly when one member Randolph Blake learns that another member much like a brother to himself Michael Fenell has sexually blackmailed the woman Josey Valchos into bed with himself Josie is also a member of the high school faculty where Randolph and Michael teach But what has Michael learned about Josey that is so alarming that she actually takes him to bed to keep him from telling Randolph The book ends with Michael and Randolph coming to one last violent game played out on the island called The Killing Ground where they play paintball Only Josey and Michael know the reason for the island s name the story travels back and forth in time showing the history of Michael and Josey s tie to each other It shows why Josey has changed her name has had plastic surgery has changed her hair color and why she hates Michael as deeply as she does Amid her scheming she never expects to fall in love with Randolph Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on Un-American Activities United States. Department of the Treasury. Bureau of Statistics,1873 Annual List of Merchant Vessels of the United States ,1874 Liberating Histories Claire Norton,Mark Donnelly,2018-07-11 Liberating Histories makes an original scholarly contribution to contemporary debates surrounding the cultural and political relevance of historical practices Arguing against the idea that specifically historical readings of the past are necessary or are compelled by the force of past events themselves this book instead focuses on other forms of past talk and how they function in politically empowering ways against social injustices Challenging the authority and constraints of academic history over the past this book explores various forms of past talk including art films activism memory nostalgia and archives Across seven clear chapters Claire Norton and Mark Donnelly show how activists and campaigners have used forms of past talk to unsettle common sense thinking about political and social problems how journalists artists curators filmmakers and performers have referenced the past in their practices of advocacy and how grassroots archivists help to circulate materials that challenge the power of authorised institutional archives to determine what gets to count as a demonstrable feature of the past and whose voices are part of the historical record Written in a lucid accessible manner and combining insightful critical analysis and philosophical argument with clear consideration of how different forms of past talk influence the narration of pasts in a variety of socio political contexts Liberating Histories is essential reading for students and scholars with an interest in historiography and the ethical and political dimensions of the historical discipline

The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of the Contemporary World Paul Graves-Brown, Rodney Harrison, Angela Piccini, 2013-10-17 It has been clear for many years that the ways in which archaeology is practised have been a direct product of a particular set of social cultural and historical circumstances archaeology is always carried out in the present More recently however many have begun to consider how archaeological techniques might be used to reflect more directly on the contemporary world itself how we might undertake archaeologies of as well as in the present This Handbook is the first comprehensive survey of an exciting and rapidly expanding sub field and provides an authoritative overview of the newly emerging focus on the archaeology of the present and recent past In addition to detailed archaeological case studies it includes essays by scholars working on the relationships of different disciplines to the archaeology of the contemporary world including anthropology psychology philosophy historical geography science and technology studies communications and media ethnoarchaeology forensic archaeology sociology film performance and contemporary art This volume seeks to explore the boundaries of an emerging sub discipline to develop a tool kit of concepts and methods which are applicable to this new field and to suggest important future trajectories for research It makes a significant intervention by drawing together scholars working on a broad range of themes approaches methods and case studies from diverse contexts in different parts of the world which have not previously been considered collectively
