Vincent, 1992 This text looks at the New World Information and Communication Order NWICO It offers an exploration of the research environment in which news flow and international news content are created Chapters cover global and human journalism and provide a journalistic agenda for future newswriting Global Glasnost Johan Galtung, 1992 Media Studies: Institutions, theories, and issues Pieter Jacobus Fourie, 2001 This outcomes based textbook provides comprehensive information on the makeup of media institutions theories in media studies and critical issues that face the media today With this guide media students learn the history of the media and learn how to keep up with the latest trends and developments in broadcasting printed press and film Outlined is how to develop an internal media policy with company mission statements news and programming policies The relationship of the media to the economy politics and society and how the media represents race gender violence and terrorism are also discussed Global Communication Cees J Hamelink, 2014-12-01 Comprehensive in its scope and scale rigorously argued and richly illustrated with wide ranging examples this clearly written and user friendly book from a veteran commentator on international communication will be valuable for students and scholars Strongly recommended Daya Thussu Professor of International Communication University of Westminster Global Communication explores the history present and future of global communication introducing and explaining the theories stories and flows of information and media that affect us all Based on his experience teaching generations of students to critically examine the world of communication around them Cees Hamelink helps readers understand the thinkers concepts and questions in this changing landscape This book Explores the cultural economic political and social dimensions and consequences of global communication Introduces the key thinkers who have been inspirational to the field Teaches you to master the art of asking critical questions Takes you through concrete cases from UN summits to hot lines and cyber surveillance Boosts your essay skills with a guided tour of the literature including helpful comments and recommendations of what to cite Brings you directly into the classroom with a series of video lectures This book guides students through the complex terrain of global communication helping you become a critically informed participant in the ever changing communication landscape It is essential reading for students of communication and media studies Networks of Global Governance Francesco Petrini, 2014-06-02 Including several contributions from an international group of historians and experts of international relations this book analyses the relationship between the United Nations and European integration The book which covers from 1945 to the present is organised into three sections each dedicated to a different phase of the integration process during which EU UN relations had a different character The essays of the first section deal with the 1950s and 1960s and show the active part played by UN bodies in shaping the integration process In the second part covering the 1970s and 1980s it is the European Community which is shown to have had a visible impact on the life and the decision making process of several UN bodies Finally the third part of the book on the post Cold War years describes a more complex situation characterised by new geopolitical responsibilities of the European Union but also by its deep internal transformations due to several treaty revisions and the enlargement to Eastern Europe Thus dynamics similar to those described in the first section return with UN bodies shaping some of the internal rules of the EU but these coexist with strengthened European activity in the United Nations in some cases leading to real partnerships

Mindful Journalism and News Ethics in the Digital Era Shelton A. Gunaratne, Mark Pearson, Sugath Senarath, 2015-02-11 This book aims to be the first comprehensive exposition of mindful journalism drawn from core Buddhist ethical principles as a fresh approach to journalism ethics It suggests that Buddhist mindfulness strategies can be applied purposively in journalism to add clarity fairness and equity to news decision making and to offer a moral compass to journalists facing ethical dilemmas in their work

It comes at a time when ethical values in the news media are in crisis from a range of technological commercial and social factors and when both Buddhism and mindfulness have gained considerable acceptance in Western societies Further it aims to set out foundational principles to assist journalists dealing with vulnerable sources and recovering from traumatic assignments
