globalfilmstudies com providing updates and extensions of case studies in the book and analysis of the latest developments in Hollywood's Embassies Ross Melnick, 2022-04-26 Winner 2022 Richard Wall Memorial Award Theatre global film issues Library Association Beginning in the 1920s audiences around the globe were seduced not only by Hollywood films but also by lavish movie theaters that were owned and operated by the major American film companies These theaters aimed to provide a quintessentially American experience Outfitted with American technology and accoutrements they allowed local audiences to watch American films in an American owned cinema in a distinctly American way In a history that stretches from Buenos Aires and Tokyo to Johannesburg and Cairo Ross Melnick considers these movie houses as cultural embassies He examines how the exhibition of Hollywood films became a constant flow of political and consumerist messaging selling American ideas products and power especially during fractious eras Melnick demonstrates that while Hollywood's marketing of luxury and consumption often struck a chord with local audiences it was also frequently tone deaf to new social cultural racial and political movements He argues that the story of Hollywood's global cinemas is not a simple narrative of cultural and industrial indoctrination and colonization Instead it is one of negotiation booms and busts successes and failures adoptions and rejections and a precursor to later conflicts over the spread of American consumer culture A truly global account Hollywood's Embassies shows how the entanglement of worldwide movie theaters with American empire offers a new way of understanding film history and the history of U S soft power Hollywood Meme Iain Robert Smith, 2016-11-15 Acknowledgements Introduction 1 Tracing The Hollywood Meme Towards a Comparative Model of Transnational Adaptation 2 Hollywood and the Popular Cinema of Turkey 3 Hollywood and the Popular Cinema of the Philippines 4 Hollywood and the Popular Cinema of India Conclusion Bibliography Index Runaway Hollywood Daniel Steinhart, 2019-01-22 After World War II as cultural and industry changes were reshaping Hollywood movie studios shifted some production activities overseas capitalizing on frozen foreign earnings cheap labor and appealing locations Hollywood unions called the phenomenon runaway production to underscore the outsourcing of employment opportunities Examining this period of transition from the late 1940s to the early 1960s Runaway Hollywood shows how film companies exported production around the world and the effect this conversion had on industry practices and visual style In this fascinating account Daniel Steinhart uses an array of historical materials to trace the industry s creation of a more international production operation that merged filmmaking practices from Hollywood and abroad to produce movies with a greater global scope Global Media, Culture, and Identity Rohit Chopra, Radhika Gajjala, 2012-10-02 This edited volume examines the ways that global media shapes relations between place culture and identity Through the included essays Chopra and Gajjala offer a mix of theoretical reflections and empirical case studies that will help readers understand how the media can shape cultural identities and conversely how cultural formations can influence the political economy of global media The interdisciplinary international scholars gathered here push the discussion of what it means to do global media studies beyond uncritical celebrations of the global media technologies or globalization as well as beyond perspectives that are a priori dismissive of the possibilities of global media Some of the key questions and themes that the international contributors explore within the text include Is the global audience of global television the same as the global audience of the internet Can we conceptualize the global culture media identity dynamic beyond the discourse of postcolonialism How does the globalization of media affect feelings of nationalism How is the growth of a consumer global middle class spread and resisted through media Global Media Identity and Culture takes a comparative media approach to addressing these and other issues across media forms including print television film and new media Nollywood Central Jade L. Miller,2019-07-25 Nollywood is often portrayed by the popular press as an unruly industry with mysteriously fast and cheap production and shadowy distribution networks In the first overview of Nigeria s burgeoning video film industry Jade L Miller reveals that this portrayal is over simplistic and often untrue Investigating Nollywood s complete global production and distribution chain Nollywood Central presents a full portrait of the Nollywood industry as both highly organised and strategically structured In doing so it interrogates the position and rise of new cultural industry hubs demonstrating how a creative industry can emerge be sustainable and circulate globally even though it exists outside of formal global networks and government supported infrastructure Deepening understanding of this prolific industry while at the same time contributing to debates surrounding global flows of culture this is a critical resource for students and scholars of Media and Communication Studies Film Studies Television Studies and African Studies

World Cinema Shekhar Deshpande, Meta Mazaj, 2018-01-17 World Cinema A Critical Introduction is a comprehensive yet accessible guide to film industries across the globe From the 1980s onwards new technologies and increased globalization have radically altered the landscape in which films are distributed and exhibited Films are made from the large scale industries of India Hollywood and Asia to the small productions in Bhutan and Morocco They are seen in multiplexes palatial art cinemas in Cannes traveling theatres in rural India and on millions of hand held mobile screens Authors Deshpande and Mazaj have developed a method of charting this new world cinema that makes room for divergent perspectives traditions and positions while also revealing their interconnectedness and relationships of meaning In doing so they bring together a broad range of issues and examples theoretical concepts viewing and production practices film festivals large industries such as Nollywood and Bollywood and smaller and emerging film cultures into a systemic yet flexible map of world cinema The multi layered approach of this book aims to do justice to the depth dynamism and complexity of the phenomenon of world cinema For students looking to films outside of their immediate context this book offers a blueprint that will enable them to transform a casual encounter with a film into a systematic inquiry into world cinema American Film History Cynthia Lucia, Roy Grundmann, Art Simon, 2015-09-08 From the American underground film to the blockbuster superhero this authoritative collection of introductory and specialized readings explores the core issues and developments in American cinematic history during the second half of the twentieth century through the present day Considers essential subjects that have shaped the American film industry from the impact of television and CGI to the rise of independent and underground film from the impact of the civil rights feminist and LGBT movements to that of 9 11 Features a student friendly structure dividing coverage into the periods 1960 1975 1976 1990 and 1991 to the present day each of which opens with an historical overview Brings together a rich and varied selection of contributions by established film scholars combining broad historical social and political contexts with detailed analysis of individual films including Midnight Cowboy Nashville Cat Ballou Chicago Back to the Future Killer of Sheep Daughters of the Dust Nothing But a Man Ali Easy Rider The Conversation The Texas Chain Saw Massacre Longtime Companion The Matrix The War Tapes the Batman films and selected avant garde and documentary films among many others Additional online resources such as sample syllabi which include suggested readings and filmographies for both general and specialized courses will be available online May be used alongside American Film History Selected Readings Origins to 1960 to provide an authoritative study of American cinema from its earliest days through the new millennium Understanding Global Media Terry Flew, 2018-03-03 This key textbook provides a comprehensive and up to date account of developments in international communication worldwide Taking a comparative approach to the major theories of global media Terry Flew looks at the rise of global media production networks and the emergence of media cities multiculturalism and the question of a global media culture This engaging book raises the question of whether we are now in a post global age and discusses whether there is a stable global communications order or instead a stage of increased competition among digital and traditional media and between the US and emergent powers such as China Drawing on a wide range of perspectives and written by a renowned author this is an essential introduction for undergraduate and postgraduate students of media studies communication studies and cultural studies and anyone interested in the study of media and globalization Globalization and Latin American Cinema Sophia A. McClennen, 2018-05-25 Studying the case of Latin American cinema this book analyzes one of the most public and most exportable forms of postcolonial national culture to argue that millennial era globalization demands entirely new frameworks for thinking about the relationship between politics culture and economic policies Concerns that globalization would bring the downfall of national culture were common in the 1990s as economies across the globe began implementing neoliberal free market policies and abolishing state protections for culture industries Simultaneously new technologies and the increased mobility of people and information caused others to see globalization as an era of heightened connectivity and progressive contact Twenty five years later we are now able to examine the actual impact of globalization on local and regional cultures especially those of postcolonial societies Tracing the full life cycle of films and studying blockbusters like City of God Motorcycle Diaries and Children of Men this book argues that neoliberal globalization has created a highly ambivalent space for cultural expression one willing to market against itself as long as the stories sell The result is an innovative and ground breaking text suited to scholars interested in globalization studies Latin American studies and film

The Economic Rise of China Zhihua Wang, Eleftherios Giovanis, Nikolaos Karagiannis, 2022-08-08 This book seeks to reinvigorate debates on the growing forces influencing China's social and economic evolution. It draws attention to several neglected areas in the discussion of China's rapid economic expansion such as unbalanced growth mass internal migration international labour flows and disparities in access to education public health and housing China's rapid economic development has attracted the interest of many scholars following its emergence as the world's second largest economy and stimulated research into the underlying factors that have made this development unique. In advancing research the chapters included in this edited book help with refining our understanding of the forces that have been driving China's social economic political institutional and technological developments addressing the related issues thus advancing the social economic literature within the China context. This book serves the interests of scholars who seek to understand more fully the development of China as well as of other emerging economies. One of the chapters in this volume was originally published in the Review of Evolutionary Political Economy Other chapters were originally published in the Forum for Social Economics.

Transnational Cinema and Ideology Milja Radovic, 2014-06-13 Increasingly as the production distribution and audience of films cross national boundaries film scholars have begun to think in terms of transnational rather than national cinema This book is positioned within the emerging field of transnational cinema and offers a groundbreaking study of the relationship between transnational cinema and ideology The book focuses in particular on the complex ways in which religion identity and cultural myths interact in specific cinematic representations of ideology Author Milja Radovic approaches the selected films as national regional products and then moves on to comparative analysis and discussion of their transnational aspects This book also addresses the question of whether transnationalism reinforces the nation or not one of the possible answers to this question may be given through the exploration of the cinema of national states and its transnational aspects Radovic illustrates the ways in which these issues represented and framed by films are transmitted beyond their nation state borders and local ideologies in which they originated and questions whether therefore one can have an understanding of transnational cinema as a platform for political dialogue Hollywood's Drama Diaries: Beyond the Silver Screen Pasquale De Marco, 2025-03-18 In the realm of cinema where dreams are conjured and stories take flight Hollywood's Drama Diaries Beyond the Silver Screen unveils the secrets behind the silver screen and explores the profound impact of cinema on our lives This captivating book embarks on a journey through the art and craft of filmmaking celebrating the visionaries who bring stories to life and examining the cultural and societal significance of cinema From the iconic studios of Hollywood to the independent filmmakers pushing boundaries we trace the evolution of cinema witnessing the birth of genres the rise of stars and the technological advancements that have revolutionized the way we experience movies Beyond the glitz and glamour of the red carpets Hollywood s Drama Diaries delves into the intricate relationship between filmmakers and their audiences exploring the creative process the challenges of adaptation and the power of collaboration We uncover the unsung
