Forest Products Exports Mary E. Lassanyi, 1991 Global Issues and Outlook in Pulp and Paper Gerard F. Schreuder, 1988 Quick Bibliography Series, 1976 Logging the Globe M. Patricia Marchak, 1995 With the growth of industrial forestry in the southern hemisphere and the restructuring of forestry in the northern hemisphere the industry is undergoing tremendous change Logging the Globe investigates the transformations that are taking place and their ecological social and economic impact General Technical Report RM., 1990 Canada and the Global Economy John N. H. Britton, 1996 A collection of essays by twenty three of Canada's leading economic geographers Canada and the Global Economy is a comprehensive study of the evolving economic and geographic patterns of Canadian development It provides a benchmark for research on the spatial development of the Canadian economy The contributors explore four central themes the locational impacts of the openness of the Canadian economy Canada's relatively simple economic geography in terms of regional variations in resources and urban development the problems of keeping pace with rapid advances in technology and the role of government in maintaining a national market and assisting economic development They outline the essential elements of Canada's contemporary economic geography and highlight the origins and spatial imprint of change in the Canadian economy in particular they provide an assessment of Canada's participation in significant international patterns of economic change Canada and the Global Economy is concerned not only with the economic size and location of consumption and production but also with institutional changes and shifts in employment the sectoral composition of economic activity and the organizational structure and locational behaviour of particular industries and firms Special attention is given to the technological development of both established industries and new service and manufacturing activities A timely addition to the field it provides a geographic perspective on significant changes in jobs and types of work that result from the transformation of economic activities Research Note, 1988 Canadian Natural Resource and Environmental Policy Melody Hessing, Michael Howlett, 1997 This book examines policy making in one of the most significant areas of activity in the Canadian economy natural resources and the environment It discusses the evolution of resource policies from the early era of exploitation to the present era of resource and environmental management Using an integrated political economy and policy perspective the book provides an analytic framework from which the foundation of ideological perspectives administrative structures and substantive issues are explored The integration of social science perspectives and the combination of theoretical and empirical work make this innovative book one of the most comprehensive analyses of Canadian natural resource and environmental policy to date Stress in Poultry Karen J. Clingerman, 1990 Japan's Agricultural Marketing and Trade Mary E. Lassanyi, 1990 An Analysis of the Timber Situation in the United States, 1989-2040 Richard W. Haynes, 1991 Canada on the Threshold of the 21st Century C.H.W. Remie, J.-M.
