Global Mission:

Introduction to Global Missions Zane Pratt, M. David Sills, Jeff K. Walters, 2014-07-01 Missions is the work of the church to reach and teach the peoples of the world for Christ's sake. The missionary call is a vital part of the life of every follower of Jesus Christ and therefore the church. But the effective discipleship of all nations requires a solid biblical, historical, and practical foundation. Therefore the study of missiology demands the effective application of biblical studies, theology, and history. This text brings the rich heritage of evangelical missiology founded on conservative theology to a twenty-first century audience passionate for the proclamation of the gospel. Introduction to Global Missions brings the authors' decades of combined missionary and teaching experience to a survey text appropriate for college or seminary classroom. The book is divided into four sections and thirteen chapters. The text begins with the biblical and theological foundations of Christian missions, including a biblical theology of missions. Before moving to the practical and strategic issues of twenty-first century missions, the authors consider the historical development of missions with a view toward providing a basis for contemporary strategies. A final foundational set of chapters addresses the impact of cultures on the communication of the gospel. The remainder of the text deals with key issues and opportunities in missions, including church planting, missions in the local church, and strategies for disciple making. Introduction to Global Missions provides a foundation for readers to consider their own missionary call, whether as a full-time field missionary or a church member on short-term projects. No matter their role, Great Commission Christians need a framework for doing missions well. Global Mission Rose Dowsett, 2011-06-27 Global Mission is divided into two sections. The first, Reflections and Foundations, comprises nine essays of a more general nature. The second, Contextualization at Work, contains twenty-one essays of a more specific nature, most of them case studies from a particular location and people group. The thirty-three contributors come from five continents and a host of contexts. Some are veterans, some quite young, but every one of them is passionate about God's mission and about building bridges for the gospel in a way that is absolutely faithful to Scripture but also sensitive to specific contexts. North and South, East and West, demonstrate precious unity in Christ in our common calling. Contextualization is complex, and none of the authors claim to have got everything right. But their essays are thoughtful and written out of love for God and love for his world. They tell the stories of trial and error, of struggles and triumphs, as each seeks to present Christ in terms that make sense and can be understood. It is following the process quite as much as specific conclusions which make this book valuable and transferable to many other parts of the global church. The essays also give us a peep into many different societies and the birthing of faith in the grace of the Holy Spirit. Thus we give thanks to God for all that he is wonderfully doing around his world and stimulate our prayers for those who work cross-culturally, especially in pioneer situations. Not all contributors agree on every point, especially when it comes to the difficulties of mission in the Muslim world and increasingly amongst Hindus. There has been no attempt to standardize different approaches, letting a robust conversation develop. Each chapter ends with some suggested study questions useful for personal reflection or group or class discussion The book is deliberately accessible to lay people but stimulating to career missionaries and academics We pray that it may serve the purposes of God for his glory This book was published in partnership with the World Evangelical Alliance

Equipping for Global Mission Linda P. Saunders, Gregory Mathias, Edward L. Smither, 2024-08-13 From Cognitive Teaching to Connected Learning Given the landscape of global Christianity and the variety of approaches to theological and missiological training today how do we equip the global church for the mission of God Should mission organizations or sending churches conduct their own in house training What is the role of Bible colleges and seminaries in equipping for mission today What about informal approaches to theological and ministry training Equipping for Global Mission offers insights from seasoned scholars and practitioners Beginning with theological convictions and practical reflections our authors make a case for what equipping for mission could look like in the present global church Case studies from India China North America and Britain further challenge the reader to reflect on this critical issue The full scope of educating for mission is far too broad of a task for any single organization This is why the contributors serve the church so well by enlarging a much needed conversation This book is a clarion call to all who care about missions and the global church Join world leaders in reshaping missions education today by using the practical and strategic wisdom in these pages

New Funding Models for Global Mission Tim Welch, 2023-04-23 Financing Mission from Anywhere to Everywhere Times are changing and conventional methods of funding missionaries are shifting Churches in Africa Asia and Latin America no longer depend on Western funding for sending out their own missionaries How then does the Majority World fund missionaries New Funding Models for Global Mission begins by summarizing how world missions has been funded from the past to the present It then critiques the common fundraising approach where missionaries raise their own financial support and suggests possible adjustments Tim Welch presents seventeen other funding models that are more appropriate options for contemporary missionaries along with an overview of what the Bible says about missionary funding He concludes with fifteen practical recommendations for individuals churches and mission agencies This book seeks to give prophetic leadership in order to change systems and practices for successfully resourcing missionaries New models better suited to the situation in which the global church finds itself provide more funding and opportunities to glorify the Lord among the nations Western Christians in Global Mission Paul Borthwick,2012-10-03 Missions specialist Paul Borthwick brings an urgent report on how the Western church can best continue in global mission Providing current analysis of the state of the world and Majority World opinion Borthwick offers concrete advice for Western churches who want to avoid the pitfalls of colonialism New Wineskins for Global Mission: Sharon J. Will You Join the Cause of Global Missions? David Alan Black,2012-02-02 Everyone is called to be a missionary and that call comes at the same time as the call to follow Jesus The church in America has come to depend on professionals to do ministry In many churches the pastor paid to do the job is the one who is expected to carry out all functions of the church But it was not always this way Jesus came as God in the flesh The pattern portrayed in the New Testament is that every Christian is part of the body of Christ and the function of Christ s body is to be incarnational to be Jesus Christ for the world John 20 21 Author David Alan Black takes on this attitude of outsourcing our mission in his shortest book yet one he has said might be the most important that he has written Will You Join the Cause of Global Missions If you expect here a call to go to seminary and become a professional missionary you will be sorely disappointed Instead Dave calls for us to replace outsourcing with insourcing Instead of looking for professionals to do the ministry while the rest of us fill the pews he is pointing us back to the Gospel Commission and the call on every Christian life to fulfill that Commission It is not enough in the 21st century to put a little bit of money into the church and expect the pastor and paid staff to do the work Each one of us is called to also give of our time and talents This little book might be dangerous You may not be able to put it down without seeing your life radically changed In fact the book ends with a call to make precisely that promise So will you join the cause of global missions

Introduction to Global Missions Zane Pratt,M. David Sills,Jeff K. Walters,2014-07 Comprehensive treatment of the biblical foundation and unique purpose of global missions Paradigm Shift: Why International Students Are so Strategic to Global Missions Jack D. Burke PhD M.Div.,2019-03-15 It is of strategic importance for international students and scholars to come under the umbrella of global missions The author is convinced there is need for a paradigm shift in global missions With over one million international students from practically every country on the face of the earth many being Christian having come to the U S for their higher education we cannot afford to waste this golden opportunity Reasons will be provided why this is our divine moment in history for Christian leadership to rise up and take action The potential is there for us to create a tremendous impact for Christ on nations which in the past have been difficult to reach God works in mysterious ways and this has to be one of them It is imperative that we get with God s program and focus on identifying Christian international students soon after their arrival on campus training them Biblically and theologically equipping them for their return home following them up after their return with support Documentation is provided some from missionaries themselves showing that properly trained Christian international students after returning home are much more effective than traditional foreign missionaries Reasons why are clearly and with great conviction provided However we still need traditional foreign missionaries because of the fields being white unto harvest but the laborers are few The reader will be fascinated by the illustrations of those Christian international students who returned home to accomplish feats for God on a scale that never before had been thought possible American Airpower Comes of Age: General Henry H. "Hap" Arnold's World War II Diaries, Volume 1 , 2010Boston: The Changing Contours of World Mission and Christianity Todd M. Johnson,Rodney L. Petersen,Gina Bellofatto,Travis Myers,2012-01-09 In November 2010 three hundred faculty students and others interested in Christian mission gathered in Boston to consider how the world the global church and Christian missions have changed since the World Missionary Conference in Edinburgh in 1910 and to reflect on the three previous centennial conferences Tokyo 2010 in May Edinburgh 2010 in June and Cape Town 2010 in October Participants at 2010Boston were not delegates from churches and mission agencies but were students and scholars of various aspects of world Christianity representing the Anglican Episcopal Evangelical mainline Protestant Orthodox and Roman Catholic traditions This conference volume consists of nine keynote messages five student presentations three reports from the other conferences and additional materials from or about 2010Boston The keynote messages address the history of mission especially in and from Boston and the current global context for mission and suggest modes for future Christian engagement with the world and one another Student papers address such conference themes as unity in mission mission and postcolonialism and discipleship in context The closing chapter surveys the conference s eight themes and summarizes the outcomes of the 2010Boston process World Christian Trends Ad30-ad2200 (hb) ,2001 Going Global with God , Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 ,2004 Hope for the World Walter Brueggemann,2001-01-01 By rejecting older typically Eurocentric patterns of missions this volume courageously addresses the new global context for missions evangelism and education American Airpower Comes of Age General Henry H. Arnold,2004-10 This volume has richly enhanced General Henry H Hap Arnold s reputation as the father of today s United States Air Force Major General John W Huston himself an Army Air Forces combat veteran of the war has edited each of Arnold s World War II diaries and placed them in their historical context while explaining the problems Hap faced and evaluating the results of his travels General Huston a professional historian has taught at both the US Air Force Academy and the US Naval Academy A former Chief of the Office of Air Force History and an experienced researcher both here and abroad in the personal and official papers of the war s leaders he has been careful to let Hap speak for himself The result is an account of the four year odyssey that took Arnold to every continent but one as he took part in deliberations that involved Allied leaders in major diplomacy strategy meetings with Franklin D Roosevelt Harry S Truman Winston Churchill Josef Stalin Charles de Gaulle and Chiang Kai shek At those meetings Hap recorded the comments of the various participants His 12 diaries contain his own thoughts which range from being lost over the Himalayas to comforting the wounded as they were airlifted from the Normandy beaches He experienced an air raid in London and viewed the carnage in recently liberated Manila Arnold recorded his honest impressions from private meetings with King George VI in Buckingham Palace to eating from mess kits with his combat crews in the North African desert all while perceptively commenting on the many issues involved and assessing the people the culture and the surroundings This volume offers the best assessment we have of Hap as he survived four wartime heart attacks and continued to work tirelessly for proper recognition of airpower It will also continue my emphasis while Chief of Staff of the US Air Force on encouraging professional reading through making historical accounts available to personnel of the finest air force in the world a success achieved in large part because of Hap Arnold
