Global Themes and Local Variations in Organization and Management Gili S. Drori,Markus A. Höllerer,Peter Walgenbach,2013-07-24 Global Themes and Local Variations in Organization and Management Perspectives on Glocalization offers a broad exposition of the relations between the global and the local with regard to organizational and managerial ideas practices and forms This edited volume forges ahead to capture the complexity of modern management and organization that results from the processes of glocalization Universality is among the core underlying principles of the management of organizations as well as of organization and management science itself Yet reality reveals enormous variation across social and cultural contexts For instance multinational corporations must adjust their management practices to adhere to national regulation and local standards manufacturers and service providers routinely tailor their products to suit the local preferences of consumers and non profit organizations amend their advocacy agenda to appeal to local sentiments The work assembled here goes beyond merely describing such patterns of variation and adaptation in organization and management research and commentary engage directly with the tensions between homogeneity and heterogeneity convergence and divergence global and local With contributions from leading scholars in the field of comparative organization studies this collection offers a substantive contribution to the investigation of organization and management as well as providing a valuable resource for students of organization studies international business and sociology Living and Dying in the Contemporary World Veena Das,2015-11-17 Taking a novel approach to the contradictory impulses of violence and care illness and healing this book radically shifts the way we think of the interrelations of institutions and experiences in a globalizing world Living and Dying in the Contemporary World is not just another reader in medical anthropology but a true tour de force a deep exploration of all that makes life unbearable and yet livable through the labor of ordinary people This book comprises forty four chapters by scholars whose ethnographic and historical work is conducted around the globe including South Asia East Asia Latin America Africa the Middle East Europe and the United States Bringing together the work of established scholars with the vibrant voices of younger scholars Living and Dying in the Contemporary World will appeal to anthropologists sociologists health scientists scholars of religion and all who are curious about how to relate to the rapidly changing institutions and experiences in an ever more connected world Human Cloning in the Media ,2008

Endangerment, Biodiversity and Culture Fernando Vidal,Nélia Dias,2015-06-19 The notion of Endangerment stands at the heart of a network of concepts values and practices dealing with objects and beings considered threatened by extinction and with the procedures aimed at preserving them Usually animated by a sense of urgency and citizenship identifying endangered entities involves evaluating an impending threat and opens the way for preservation strategies Endangerment Biodiversity and Culture looks at some of the fundamental ways in which this process involves science but also more than science not only data and knowledge and institutions but also affects and values Focusing on an endangerment sensibility it encapsulates tensions between the normative and the utilitarian the natural and the cultural The chapters situate that specifically modern sensibility in historical perspective and examine central aspects of its recent and present forms This timely volume offers the most cutting edge insights into the Environmental Humanities for researchers working in Environmental Studies History Anthropology Sociology and Science and Technology Studies Technonatures Damian F. White,Chris Wilbert,2010-04-05 Environmentalism and social sciences appear to be in a period of disorientation and perhaps transition In this innovative collection leading international thinkers explore the notion that one explanation for the current malaise of the politics of ecology is that we increasingly find ourselves negotiating technonatural space times International contributors map the political ecologies of our technonatural present and indicate possible paths for technonatural futures The term technonatures is in debt to a long line of environmental cultural theory from Raymond Williams onwards problematizing the idea that a politics of the environment can be usefully grounded in terms of the rhetoric of defending the pure the authentic or an idealized past solely in terms of the ecological or the natural In using the term technonatures as an organizing myth and metaphor for thinking about the politics of nature in contemporary times this collection seeks to explore one increasingly pronounced dimension of the social natures discussion Technonatures highlights a growing range of voices considering the claim that we are not only inhabiting diverse social natures but that within such natures our knowledge of our worlds is ever more technologically mediated produced enacted and contested Culture and Society David Oswell,2006-12-07 Too often cultural studies discourse seems cut off from wider developments in social theory As a sociologist with a strong cultural studies sensibility David Oswell is ideally placed to put this right Through a series of well judged and historically nuanced readings of cultural social theory and critical philosophy this book provides just the bridge between cultural studies and wider debates that we need Nick Couldry London School of Economics and Political Science David Oswell has written a comprehensive introduction to cultural studies that guides the reader through the field s central foundations and its freshest ideas This book Grounds the reader in the foundations of cultural studies and cultural theory language and semiology ideology and power mass and popular culture Analyzes the central problems identity body economy globalization and empire Introduces the latest developments on materiality agency technology and nature Culture and Society is an invaluable guide for students navigating the dynamic debates and intellectual challenges of cultural studies Its breadth and unparalleled coverage of theory will also ensure that it is read by anyone interested in questions of materiality and culture New Religions As Global Cultures Irving Hexham,Karla Poewe,2018-02-12 Although the Great Anti Cult Crusade links new religious movements to dangerous cults brainwashing and the need for deprogramming Karla Poewe and Irving Hexham argue that many cults are the product of a dynamic interaction between folk religions and the teachings of traditional world religions Drawing on examples from Africa the United States Asia and Europe they suggest that few new religions are really new Most draw on rich if localized cultural traditions that are shaped anew by the influence of technological change and international linkages With the widespread loss of belief in biblical mythology in the nineteenth century new mythologies based on science and elements derived from various non Western religious traditions emerged leading to the growth and popularity of new religions and cults Globalization Prof. Manfred B. Steger,2023-12-04 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Since the end of the Cold War globalization the process and the idea has been reshaping the world Global studies scholarship has emerged to make sense of the transnational manifestations of globalization economic social cultural ideological technological environmental and postcolonial But a series of crises in the first two decades of the twenty first century has put the neoliberal globalization system of the 1990s under severe strain Are we witnessing a turn toward deglobalization intensified by the COVID 19 pandemic and the war in Ukraine or a moment of reglobalization spearheaded by digital technology The contributors to this book employ transdisciplinary research to assess past developments the current state and future trajectories of globalization in light of today s dynamics of insecurity volatility and geopolitical tensions The Postcolonial World Jyotsna G. Singh, David D. Kim, 2016-10-04 The Postcolonial World presents an overview of the field and extends critical debate in exciting new directions It provides an important and timely reappraisal of postcolonialism as an aesthetic political and historical movement and of postcolonial studies as a multidisciplinary transcultural field Essays map the terrain of the postcolonial as a global phenomenon at the intersection of several disciplinary inquiries Framed by an introductory chapter and a concluding essay the eight sections examine Affective Postcolonial Histories Postcolonial Desires Religious Imaginings Postcolonial Geographies and Spatial Practices Human Rights and Postcolonial Conflicts Postcolonial Cultures and Digital Humanities Ecocritical Inquiries in Postcolonial Studies Postcolonialism versus Neoliberalism The Postcolonial World looks afresh at re emerging conditions of postcoloniality in the twenty first century and draws on a wide range of representational strategies cultural practices material forms and affective affiliations The volume is an essential reading for scholars and students of postcolonialism Television and the Genetic Imaginary Sofia Bull, 2019-05-30 This book examines the complex ways in which television articulates ideas about DNA in the early 21st century Considering television s distinct aesthetic and narrative forms as well as its specific cultural roles it identifies TV as a key site for the genetic imaginary The book addresses the key themes of complexity and kinship which function as nodes around which older essentialist notions about the human genome clash with newly emergent post genomic sensibilities Analysing a wide range of US and UK programmes from science documentaries science fiction serials and crime procedurals to family history programmes sitcoms and reality shows Television and the Genetic Imaginary illustrates the extent to which molecular frameworks of understanding now permeate popular culture Making Death Matter Tara Mehrabi, 2016-11-18 This thesis is a contribution to feminist laboratory studies and a critical engagement with the natural sciences or more precisely research on the biochemical workings and deadly relations of Alzheimer s disease emanating from a year of field work in a Drosophila fly lab The natural sciences have been a point of fascination within the field of gender studies for decades Such sciences produce knowledge on what gets to count as nature and natural healthy or sick normal or not and they have done it with great societal authority and impact throughout European modernity However feminist technoscience scholars argue that science and knowledge is socially produced and political too Concepts such as nature animal human body sex and life itself are not simply given natural realities but phenomena processed through the naturecultures of the laboratory Situated within such theoretical and methodological approaches this thesis wonders how scientific facts about Alzheimer s disease are made in the lab today What kinds of realities bodies and ethico political concerns are enacted Who gets to live and who gets to die in everyday laboratory practices Theoretically the thesis is grounded particularly within Karen Barad s agential realism and posthumanist performativity and as such it accounts for human and nonhuman entanglements through which AD is performed in the lab in relational ways In other words the thesis explores how AD is enacted in the bodies of transgenic fruit flies Drosophila melanogaster as these flies embody the disease live and die with it Last but not least the thesis explores the materialities of death dying embodiment and biological waste in a biochemistry lab as constitutive parts of the produced knowledge about AD Denna avhandling utgör ett bidrag till feministiska laboratoriestudier och är en kritisk analys av naturvetenskaperna Närmare bestämt är det en feministisk studie av forskning om Alzheimers sjukdom dess biokemiska verkningar och de olika relationer utifrån ett forskningsfältarbete som labbtekniker i ett fluglabb Naturvetenskaperna har under decennier fascinerat genusforskare Dessa discipliner formar kunskapen om vad som är knas som natur och naturligt h älsa och sjukdom normalt eller inte och de har gjort så med stor samhällslegitimerad auktoritet genom Europeisk modernitet Forskare inom feministiska teknovetenskapliga studier har länge hävdat att vetenskap också är social praktik med politiska implikationer Begrepp som natur djur människan kropp kön och livet självt kan inte tas för givna utan formas också i laboratoriets naturkultur Med utgångspunkt i sådana feministiska teknovetenskapliga teoribildningar och metodologiska utgångspunkter bearbetar denna avhandling frågor om hur vetenskapliga fakta om Alzheimers sjukdom skapas i laboratoriet idag Vilka kroppar verkligheter och etiska politiska förhållningssätt aktualiseras Vem får leva och vem får dö i vardagliga laboratoriepraktiker Teoretiskt bygger avhandlingen framför allt på Karen Barads agentiella realism när den diskuterar sammanväningen mellan människan och icke människan samt det som kallas posthumanistisk performativitet i relation till Alzheimers sjukdom som den förkroppsligas i transgena fruktflugor Drosophila melanogaster i laboratoriet I särskilt fokus står relationerna som skapas inom den biokemiska forskningen kring det biologiska avfall och kroppslighet

Asian Biotech Aihwa Ong, Nancy N. Chen, 2010-11-05 Ethnographic analyses of emerging bioscientific enterprises in Asia including genetically modified foods in China clinical trials in India and stem cell research in Singapore South Korea and Taiwan Virulent Zones Lyle Fearnley, 2020-10-01 Lyle Fearnley situates the production of ecological facts about the likely epicenter of viral pandemics inside the shifting cultural landscapes of agrarian change and the geopolitics of global health

Consumption and Everyday Life Mark Paterson, 2023-06-27 With an emphasis on everyday life this respected text offers a lively and perceptive account of the key theories and ideas which dominate the field of consumption and consumer culture This third revised and expanded edition is a major update of the text of the second edition adding new chapters on youth culture and consumption retail psychology gender and consumption the globalization of food and digital consumption and platform capitalism Theoretical perspectives are introduced such as theories of practice critical theory semiotics and psychoanalysis Examples from film literature and television are used to illustrate concepts and trends in consumption and a wide range of engaging and up to date case studies of consumption are employed throughout Historical context is provided to help the reader understand how we became consumers in the first place Written by an experienced teacher the book offers an accessible and thought provoking introduction to the concept of consumption for students in sociology cultural studies human geography history anthropology and social psychology The Motherhood Business Anne Teresa Demo, Jennifer L. Borda, Charlotte H. Kroløkke, 2015-11-13 The essays in The Motherhood Business examine how consumer culture both constrains and empowers contemporary motherhood The collection demonstrates that the logic of consumerism and entrepreneurship has redefined both the experience of mothering and the marketplace Science in performance Simon Parry,2020-09-08 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This book is about science in theatre and performance It explores how theatre and performance engage with emerging scientific themes from artificial intelligence to genetics and climate change The book covers a wide range of performance forms from Broadway musicals to educational theatre from Somali drama to grime videos It features work by pioneering companies including Gob Squad Headlong Theatre and Theatre of Debate as well as offering fresh analysis of global blockbusters such as Wicked and Urinetown The book offers detailed description and analysis of theatre and performance practices as well as broader commentary on the politics of theatre as public engagement with science Science in performance is essential reading for researchers students and practitioners working between science and the arts within fields such as theatre and performance studies science communication interdisciplinary arts and health humanities

Cultural Citizenship: Cosmopolitan Questions Stevenson, Nick,2003-10-01 This book has been written for people who make decisions and bring about change at all sorts of levels and in a wide range of disciplines Researchers and managers have a duty to collaborate with clinicians to understand and make the most of each others skills This necessitates a new paradigm of health service research which is part of a change management culture and change promotion
