Fintech and the Future of Finance Erik Feyen, Harish Natarajan, Matthew Saal, 2023-04-03 Fintech the application of digital technology to financial services is reshaping the future of finance Digital technologies are revolutionizing payments lending investment insurance and other financial products and services and the COVID 19 pandemic has accelerated this process Digitalization of financial services and money is helping to bridge gaps in access to financial services for households and firms and is promoting economic development Improved access to basic financial services translates into better firm productivity and growth for micro and small businesses as well as higher incomes and resilience to improve the lives of the poor Technology can lower transaction costs by overcoming geographical access barriers increasing the speed security and transparency of transactions and allowing for more tailored financial services that better serve consumers including the poor Women can especially benefit Yet too many people and firms still lack access to essential financial services that could help them thrive It is time for policy makers to embrace fintech opportunities and implement policies that enable and encourage safe financial innovation and adoption Fintech and the Future of Finance Market and Policy Implications explores the implications of fintech and the digital transformation of financial services for market outcomes on the one hand and regulation and supervision on the other hand and how these interact The report which provides a high level perspective for senior policy makers is accompanied by notes that focus on salient issues for a more technical audience As the financial sector continues to transform itself policy trade offs will evolve and regulators will need to ensure that market outcomes remain aligned with core policy objectives Several policy implications emerge

- 1 Manage risks while fostering beneficial innovation and competition
- 2 Broaden monitoring horizons and reassess regulatory perimeters
- 3 Review regulatory supervisory and oversight frameworks
- 4 Be mindful of evolving policy trade offs as fintech adoption deepens
- 5 Monitor market structure and conduct to maintain competition
- 6 Modernize and open financial infrastructures
- 7 Ensure public money remains fit for the digital world
- 8 Pursue strong cross border coordination and sharing of information and best practices
