Global Tensions Lourdes Beneria, Savitri Bisnath, 2005-11-08 Against the backdrop of demonstrations in Seattle Porto Alegre and Genoa and within the context of growing resistances to free trade and the current global trends Global Tensions takes a close look at the challenges posed by the processes of globalization at the beginning of the twenty first century Composed of original essays by renowned scholars this volume explores controversial topics such as free trade women s rights labor standards the World Trade Organization and global tensions

The Oxford Handbook of International Law and Development , 2023-11-11 Since the mid twentieth century international law and international development have become two of the most prominent secular languages through which aspirations about a better world are articulated They have shaped the both the treatment and self understanding of the developing world often by positing the West as a universal model against which developing states their citizens and natural environments should be measured and disciplined In recent years however critical scholars have investigated the deep linkages between the concept of development the doctrines and institutions of international law and broader projects of ordering at the international level They have shown how the leading models de radicalise if not derail initiatives to redefine development and pursue other forms of global well being Bringing together scholars from both the Global South and the Global North the contributions in this Handbook invite readers to consider the limits of common normative and developmentalist assumptions At the same time the Handbook demonstrates how disparate but still identifiable set of ideas imaginaries norms and institutional practices related to law development and international governance shape today s profoundly unequal material conditions threatening the future of human and nonhuman life on the planet The book focuses on five distinct areas existing disciplinary frameworks institutions and actors regional theatres of international law and development competing social and economic agendas and alternative futures Offering a unique overview of the field of international law and development and assembling major critical historical and political economic insights this Handbook is an unmissable resource for scholars of international law international relations development studies and global history as well as anyone interested in the past present and future of our world

Law and Globalization from Below Boaventura de Sousa Santos, César A. Rodríguez-Garavito, 2005-09-08 This book is an unprecedented attempt to analyze the role of the law in the global movement for social justice Case studies in the book are written by leading scholars from both the global South and the global North and combine empirical research on the ground with innovative sociolegal theory to shed new light on a wide array of topics Among the issues examined are the role of law and politics in the World Social Forum the struggle of the anti sweatshop movement for the protection of international labour rights and the challenge to neoliberal globalization and liberal human rights raised by grassroots movements in India and indigenous peoples around the world These and other cases the editors argue signal the emergence of a subaltern cosmopolitan law and politics that calls for new social and legal theories capable of capturing the potential and tensions of counter hegemonic globalization Our Uncommon Heritage Charles Perrings,2014-04-17 Biodiversity change is the biggest environmental problem of our time It leads to much more than species extinctions affecting the food we eat the diseases we face our vulnerability to fire and flood and our ability to adapt to climate change Our Uncommon Heritage explores the many dimensions of human driven biodiversity change It integrates ecology economics and policy to examine the causes and consequences of changes in ecosystems species and genes and to identify better ways to manage those changes It explores the place of biodiversity in the wealth of nations the rights and responsibilities people have for natural resources at local regional national and international levels and the challenges faced in protecting the common good at the global level This is an important book for students and researchers in the fields of conservation and sustainability science ecology natural resource economics and management It also has much to say to those engaged in international conservation health agriculture forestry and fisheries policy Food Security, Nutrition and Sustainability Geoffrey Lawrence,Kristen Lyons,Tabatha Wallington,2013-10-18 As the threats of food insecurity loom ever larger the world faces the sad irony of food shortages in the global South alongside a purported obesity epidemic in the global North The twin issues of food production and food access are of particular concern in the context of climate change peak oil biofuels and land grabs by wealthy nations Food Security Nutrition and Sustainability offers critical insights by international scholars with chapters on global food security supermarket power new technologies and sustainability The book also assesses the contributions of diet and nutrition research in building socially just and environmentally sustainable food systems and provides policy recommendations to improve the health and environmental status of contemporary agri food systems The book features contributions from a range of social science perspectives including sociology anthropology public health and geography with case study material drawn from throughout the world Public Engagement for Public Education Marion Orr,John Rogers,2011 This volume examines the ways youth parents community members and civic leaders join forces to improve public education Heterodox Economics of Military Spending Adem Yavuz Elveren,2025-04-22 Covering Institutional Post Keynesian Marxist and Feminist perspectives Heterodox Economics of Military Spending provides a comprehensive analysis of the effect of military expenditures on the economy The impact of military spending on economic growth has always been a crucial issue for policymakers and academics There exists an extensive body of literature on how military spending affects macroeconomic variables including but not limited to economic growth profit rates income inequality gender inequality and employment Different schools of economic thought have proposed various theoretical approaches to investigate the role of military production in a capitalist economy While some of these approaches are competitive others complement each other Heterodox Economics of Military Spending is the first book to analyze the effects of military spending on various macroeconomic perspectives by considering all major alternative economic schools This book also contributes to the literature by introducing new theoretical models and empirical evidence with a special focus on its impact on economic growth This book will be of great interest to readers in defense and peace economics the history of economic thought Marxist economic theory feminist economics and pluralist approaches to economics Economic Security for a Better World ,2004 In all regions of the world the seven forms of labour related security have been affected by globalisation and the policies steering it This analysis drawing on a large amount of new data identifies the main trends provides indexes of national performance looks at sources and forms of insecurities and considers policies that could improve economic security Book jacket Negotiating Trade in Uncertain Worlds Clara Weinhardt,2019-11-22 This book shows how a constructivist account of bargaining sheds new light on the emergence of impasse situations in international trade negotiations It uncovers the subtle ways in which misperceptions and the problems of overcoming them complicate negotiations It brings to the forefront misperceptions and sticky beliefs that complicate trade talks between the Global South and the Global North Empirically the book examines the recent negotiations of Economic Partnership Agreements between the European Union EU and West Africa 2002 2014 In doing so it enriches the study of negotiations of development oriented trade agreements in the context of a major North South partnership By exploring a constructivist perspective on game theory the author uncovers how the repeated impasse situations followed from the different games both sides expected to be playing The author shows that such misperceptions endured because they reflected deep seated normative disagreements not only over the effects of neo liberal trade reforms but also over how to structure EU Africa post colonial trade relations in the 21st century Comparing and contrasting both sides divergent perspectives helps us to see how trade negotiations are never just about economic interests but also about the re negotiation of the values and ideas that structure state interaction The book draws on a large set of qualitative primary data on EU West Africa trade negotiations Negotiating trade in uncertain worlds will be of great interest to students and scholars of international relations international political economy international trade international negotiations EU external relations EU Africa cooperation economic diplomacy international relations of the developing world and North South cooperation Handbook of the International Political Economy of Trade David Deese,2014-08-29 This accessible comprehensive and pertinent Handbook will be of interest to academics researchers and students working in the fields of international politics in particular political economy and foreign policy and the economics of trade Practitio My Los Angeles Edward W. Soja,2014-03-14 At once informative and entertaining inspiring and challenging My Los Angeles provides a deep understanding of urban development and change over the past forty years in Los Angeles and other city regions of the world Once the least dense American metropolis Los Angeles is now the country s densest urbanized area and one of the most culturally heterogeneous cities in the world Soja takes us through this urban metamorphosis analyzing urban restructuring deindustrialization and reindustrialization the globalization of capital and labor and the formation of an information intensive New Economy By examining his own evolving interpretations of Los Angeles and the debates on the so called Los Angeles School of urban studies Soja argues that a radical shift is taking place in the nature of the urbanization process from the familiar metropolitan model to regional urbanization By looking at such concepts as new regionalism the spatial turn the end of the metropolis era the urbanization of suburbia the global spread of industrial urbanism and the transformative urban industrialization of China Soja offers a unique and remarkable perspective on critical urban and regional studies

Fifty Key Thinkers on Development David Simon, 2006 This essential guide to the world's most influential development thinkers this authoritative text presents a unique guide to the lives and ideas of leading contributors to the contested terrain of development studies Reflecting the diverse interdisciplinary nature of the area the book includes entries on modernisers like Hirshman Kindleberger and Rostow dependencistas such as Frank Cardoso and Amin progressives like Prebisch Helleiner and Streeten political leaders enunciating radical alternative visions of development such as Mao Nkrumah and Nyerere progenitors of religiously or spiritually inspired development such as Gandhi and Ariyaratne development environment thinkers like Blaikie Brookfield and Shiva This is a fascinating and readable introduction to the major figures that have shaped the field ideal for anyone studying or working in the area

The Routledge Handbook of Archaeology and Globalization Tamar Hodos, 2016-11-18 This unique collection applies globalization concepts to the discipline of archaeology using a wide range of global case studies from a group of international specialists The volume spans from as early as 10 000 cal BP to the modern era analysing the relationship between material culture complex connectivities between communities and groups and cultural change Each contributor considers globalization ideas explicitly to explore the socio cultural connectivities of the past In considering social practices shared between different historic groups and also the expression of their respective identities the papers in this volume illustrate the potential of globalization thinking to bridge the local and global in material culture analysis The Routledge Handbook of Archaeology and Globalization is the first such volume to take a world archaeology approach on a multi period basis in order to bring together the scope of evidence for the significance of material culture in the processes of globalization This work thus also provides a means to understand how material culture can be used to assess the impact of global engagement in our contemporary world As such it will appeal to archaeologists and historians as well as social science researchers interested in the origins of globalization

The New Law and Economic Development David M. Trubek, Alvaro Santos, 2006-08-21 This book is a collection of essays that identify and analyze a new phase in thinking about the role of law in economic development and in the practices of development agencies that support law reform The authors trace the history of theory and doctrine in this field relating it to changing ideas about development and its institutional practices The essays describe a new phase in thinking about the relation between law and economic development and analyze how this rising consensus differs from previous efforts to use law as an instrument to achieve social and economic progress In analyzing the current phase these essays also identify tensions and contradictions in current practice This work is a comprehensive treatment of this emerging paradigm situating it within the intellectual and historical framework of the most influential development models since World War II Iberian Worlds Gary W. McDonogh, 2009 A vivid reading of globalization through centuries of Iberian peoples places and encounters Europe's Green Revolution and Others Since Jonathan Harwood, 2012 This book focuses on the development of public sector plant breeding in Germany from the nineteenth century through its fate under National Socialism arguing that peasant friendly research has an important role to play in future Green Revolutions The SAGE Handbook of Responsible Management Learning and Education Dirk C. Moosmayer, Oliver Laasch, Carole Parkes, Kenneth G. Brown, 2020-08-10 Reflecting the rapid rise in popularity of recent initiatives such as the UN Principles for Responsible Management Education PRME this handbook exhaustively covers a variety of responsible management learning and education topics and provides an invaluable roadmap for this fast developing field Covering various perspectives on the topic right through to contexts methods outcomes and beyond this volume will be an invaluable integrative resource for practitioners and researchers alike and is designed to serve a range of communities that deal with topics related to sustainability responsibility and ethics in management learning and education A Handbook of Food Crime Allison Gray, Ronald Hinch, 2019-10-09 Food today is over corporatized and under regulated It is involved in many immoral harmful and illegal practices along production distribution and consumption systems These problematic conditions have significant consequences on public health and well being nonhuman animals and the environment often simultaneously In this insightful book Gray and Hinch explore the phenomenon of food crime Through discussions of food safety food fraud food insecurity agricultural labour livestock welfare genetically modified foods food sustainability food waste food policy and food democracy they problematize current food systems and criticize their underlying ideologies Bringing together the best contemporary research in this area they argue for the importance of thinking criminologically about food and propose radical solutions to the realities of unjust food systems Capitalism, For and Against Ann E. Cudd, Nancy Holmstrom, 2011-01-06 Political philosophy and feminist theory have rarely examined in detail how capitalism affects the lives of women Ann Cudd and Nancy Holmstrom take up opposing sides of the issue debating whether capitalism is valuable as an ideal and whether as an actually existing economic system it is good for women In a discussion covering a broad range of social and economic issues including unequal pay industrial reforms and sweatshops they examine how these and other issues relate to women and how effectively to analyze what constitutes capitalism and women s interests Each author also responds to the opposing arguments providing a thorough debate of the topics covered The resulting volume will interest a wide range of readers in philosophy political theory women s studies and global affairs
