Globalisation And Human Dignity Sources And Challenges In Catholic Social Thought:

Globalisation and Human Dignity M. Februari, 2004 Human Dignity in Contemporary Ethics David G.

Kirchhoffer, 2013 Human Dignity in Contemporary Ethics develops a holistic and relevant understanding of human dignity for ethics today. Whilst critics of the concept of human dignity call for its dismissal and many of its defenders rehearse the same old arguments, this book offers an alternative set of methodological assumptions on which to base a revitalized and practical understanding of human dignity which at the same time overcomes the challenges that the concept currently faces. The Component Dimensions of Human Dignity model enables human dignity to serve both as a descriptive category that explains moral choices and as a normative criterion that helps to evaluate moral behaviour. A consideration of two cases, violent crime and physician-assisted suicide, demonstrates how the model offers a way to avoid the pitfalls of both moralism and moral relativism while still leaving space for relativity in ethics. By using an approach that should be acceptable to both religious and secular perspectives alike, this book offers a unique way out of the dignity talk that currently plagues ethics.

Towards an Ethical Framework for Poverty reduction , Globalization and Catholic Social Thought John Aloysius

Coleman, William F. Ryan, 2005 Contributors to this volume assess the meaning of globalization and the capacity of Catholic social thought to understand reform and guide it Sustainable Development Goals and the Catholic Church Katarzyna

Cichos, Jarosław A. Sobkowiak, Ryszard F. Sadowski, Beata Zbarachewicz, Radosław Zenderowski, Stanisław

Dziekoński, 2020-11-29 This book identifies both the consistencies and disparities between Catholic Social Teaching and the United Nations' UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). With Pope Francis' Laudato si' encyclical, Catholicism seems to be engaging more than ever with environmental and developmental concerns. However, there remains the question of how these theological statements will be put into practice. The ongoing involvement of the Catholic Church in social matters makes it a significant potential partner in issues around development. Therefore, with the use of the comparative method, this book brings together authors from multiple disciplines to assess how the political and legal aspects of each of the UN's 17 SDGs are addressed by Catholic Social Teaching. Chapters answer the question of how the Catholic Church evaluates the concept of sustainable development as defined by the Agenda 2030 Goals, as well as assessing how and if it can contribute to shaping the contemporary concept of global development. Examining the potential level of cooperation between the international community and the Catholic Church in the implementation of the Agenda 2030 Goals, this volume will be of keen interest to scholars of Catholic Studies, Religious Studies, and the Sociology of Religion, as well as Environmental Studies and Development Studies.

Human Dignity as a Source of Creativity in Society Dairis Mežvinskis, Michał

Pierchala, Isabelle Markunović, 2024-11-20 The Catholic Social Teaching (CST) Rome Exchange Advanced Training Experience (CREATE) is the new initiative of the Faculty of Social Science (FASS) at the Pontifical University Saint Thomas Aquinas (Angelicum) in Rome. Currently focused on Central and Eastern Europe (CEE), it provides ways for students and experts in

Catholic social teaching CST to access resources and training in Rome so as to develop their knowledge and their capability in using CST for resolving problems faced in their local reality Catholic social teaching Rome Exchange Advanced Training Experience starts from two basic ideas 1 Catholic social thought is a powerful resource in the mission of the Church today but often it needs to be more widely known and better operationalised in practical situations 2 Rome is a centre for the development of Catholic social thought by bringing students and experts to Rome for short or longer stays we can help them to improve their knowledge of CST and practical skills in implementing it while ensuring that they stay connected with their home region CREATE is an integrated set of 5 activities Expert 1 Council EC a network of professors and experts from different Catholic Higher Education Institutions CHEIs in the region meeting once a year in Rome 2 CREATE Prize CP an annual competition starting in 2021 for an original essay by a young researcher student from the CEE on some application of CST to society 3 Salamanca Process Scholarships SP doctorate scholarship and post doc scholarships for Dominican candidates sisters and brothers from Central and Eastern Europe as part of the Salamanca Process of the Dominican Order 4 Laudato si Scholarships LS doctorate and post doc scholarships for young people from the CEE region to develop their research in their home countries and institutions with support from FASS professors Laudato si scholars will come in Rome regularly over a 2 3 year period in order to take advantage of the resources provided by the FASS and the central Catholic institutions in Rome 5 CST Toolkit Scholarships TX a semester long programme of courses in CST January to June starting in 2022 for CEE students at the masters or doctorate level

Introduction Denken en weten over de wereld Bart Raymaekers, 2008 Global Perspectives on Subsidiarity Michelle Evans, Augusto Zimmermann, 2014-05-16 Global Perspectives on Subsidiarity is the first book of its kind exclusively devoted to the principle of subsidiarity It sheds new light on the principle and explores and develops the many applications of the principle of subsidiarity The book provides a comprehensive overview of the principle in all its facets from its philosophical origins in the writings of Aristotle and Aquinas to its development in Catholic social doctrine and its emergence as a key principle in European Union Law This book explores the relationship between subsidiarity and concepts such as sphere sovereignty and social pluralism It analyses subsidiarity in light of globalisation federalism democracy individual rights and welfare and discusses subsidiarity and the Australian Brazilian and German Constitutions Sport, Globalisation and Identity Jim O'Brien, Russell Holden, Xavier Ginesta, 2020-10-15 Sport can be a vehicle for the expression of identity and also a factor in the shaping of identity This book explores the complex interrelationships between nations regions and states in the landscape of contemporary international sport with a particular focus on identity Exploring important themes such as the geopolitics of sports events contested identities and ownership of sport and its impact on sporting cultures the book presents contemporary and historical cases from around the world including football in a divided Ireland sport and the anti Apartheid movement Chinese sporting nationalism and soft power and the role of sport media in the shaping of Catalan identity This is an important resource for students and researchers working in Sports Studies Sports Journalism Sports Management Studies Sports Marketing Football Studies Sport and Identity Studies Sociology of Sport Studies and Cultural Studies International Development Policy: Religion and Development G. Carbonnier,2016-01-06 The rise of fundamentalist movements in major religions has forced decision makers development organizations and academics to turn their attention to its meaning for development Global scholars and practitioners examine these issues and fundamentally question the secular religious dichotomy in development discourse and practice An Introduction to International Relations and Religion Jeffrey Haynes,2014-04-23 Not so very long ago it seemed reasonable to assert that the influence of religion on global politics was on the wane As the Western world became increasingly secular and the process of globalisation deepened it seemed inevitable on the surface at least that the voice of religion was to be heard softly if it was to be heard at all This has now changed and changed perhaps irrevocably As Jeff Haynes argues in this thought provoking and important new book various religious actors are now significantly involved in international relations and have become a crucial influence on policy in a post Westphalian world International Relations and Religion guides the reader through the complex issues at the heart of this topic with clarity and insight This updated second edition starts with a close reading of the many theoretical and analytical concepts notably Huntington and the clash of civilisations that have grown up around this area and then concludes with a summary of the issues under discussion and attempts to put into context what it means to live in a world that is increasingly shaped by a whole host of diverse religious groups Essential reading for students of International Relations and Politics Christian ethics and political economy Morten Bøsterud,Jan C.M. Venter,2020-12-31 The value free and relativistic human and scientific discourses have led to an era of ideology From fascism at the dawn of the century through liberalism and the associated phenomenon of unfettered statism to the current disillusionment of postmodernism and relativism with endeavours towards new mercantilism All have maintained poverty inequality and created scepticism amongst both lay persons and academics Above all else a renewed yearning for moral and ethical direction in political and economic conduct has been created This book provides a Christian ethical reflection on political economic conduct in South Africa as an alternative to current modernistic ideas This book aims to produce new Christian ethical insight into the value of new liberal perspectives on the enhancement of the South African political economy New Christian ethical insight will be gained through new perspectives on the South African political economy

Antonianum ,2009 Angelicum ,2006 Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur ,2007 Work & Human Fulfillment Pontificia Accademia delle scienze sociali,2003 Catholic Social Teaching has been described as the best kept secret of the Church This is particularly regrettable now that the Catholic Church is one of the few global voices to uphold the primacy of labor over capital Rapid transformations in the world economy mean that growth productivity and profitability are no longer closely associated with increases in employment In Work and Human Fulfillment members of the Pontifical Academy of Social Sciences and their colleagues explore the recent changes in the world of work The book includes a summary of the key positions taken by the Church on work and employment and extracts of the papers presented and discussed at the three plenary sessions of the Pontifical Academy in 1996 1997 and 1999 focusing on the following areas Present situation and current trends of work across the world globalized economy contemporary institutions and their response to unemployment capital labor analysis of policy options and culture of work

L'Attività della Santa Sede ,2006 The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2004 What Does God Think About Brexit? David Nixon,2019-12-27 This book is a theological reflection about the process and event of Brexit Britain s departure from the European Union Within a framework of liberation and postmodern theology it examines Brexit against a history of the EU with themes of community identity marriage and divorce It considers the emotional reactions which have been generated and places Brexit in the context of contemporary populism and the politics of the United States The book concludes with a call for reconciliation via new imaginaries of solidarity and inclusion
