and Africa demonstrating with admirable clarity how policies and practices of neo liberal globalization in those regions cannot be adequately understood without appreciating how they are a product of the exploitative histories of colonialism Written with conceptual sophistication personal knowledge and deep conviction these essays represent a major scholarly intervention in contemporary debates about globalization and education Fazal Rizvi Professor Graduate School of Education University of Melbourne Australia Professor Emeritus University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign USA This intriguing and provocative volume deals with crucial intersections between global forces and national initiatives with respect to the most crucial agency of transformation education The cumulative efforts of this assembly of committed intellectuals reveal the forces that retard progress in the two largest continents and offers compelling suggestions on how to redefine the boundaries of power the contents of knowledge and the use of critical thinking to create alternative spaces of autonomy freedom liberation and empowerment Toyin Falola University Distinguished Professor Frances Higginbotham Nalle Centennial Professor University of Texas at Austin This volume well crafted by Dip Kapoor one of the finest scholars in the postcolonial education field brings together writers who examine processes of learning and education more broadly within the context of the dominant discourses of globalisation and development They unveil the underlying neocolonial neoliberal tenets of these processes strongly echoing what Hardt and Negri would call Empire In short another important reading resource provided by Dip Kapoor and colleagues Peter Mayo Professor Chair Educational Studies University of Malta Finally a much awaited intervention on neoliberal globalization from Asian and African perspectives This book makes a compelling case for a historically grounded regionally specific analysis of globalization The contributions are extraordinary for their textured and embedded analysis of neoliberal globalization One of those rare books that deserve to be read across the social sciences Sangeeta Kamat Associate Professor International Education University of Massachusetts Amherst USA Globalization and Its Counter-forces in Southeast Asia Terence Chong, 2008 Presents a multidimensional perspective of globalisation in Southeast Asia Looks at political economic security social and cultural dimensions of globalisation and local responses showing evidence of complex interfacing between the global and the local championing the need for a multidisciplinary approach to globalisation studies Innovation in the Asia Pacific Thomas Clarke, Keun Lee, 2017-10-20 This book promotes the creation of advanced knowledge based economies driven by innovation networks and the continuous development of human capital and capability It provides valuable insights into the growing emergence of knowledge based industries of the Asia Pacific and highlights research on modes of creativity and innovation intellectual property the components of national innovation systems such as firms education and training knowledge and technical infrastructure and public policy The Asia Pacific region is currently in the process of transforming from being the manufacturing centre of the global economy to a centre of innovation for the knowledge economy with the successful IPO of Alibaba in 2014 being a prime example of this shift From a neo Schumpeterian perspective the region is increasingly engaged in shortening and intensifying cycles of innovation The historic agreement at the Beijing APEC meeting between China and the US to radically reduce carbon emissions indicates that one imperative of this innovation is to contribute to sustainability The fact that the US Government is moving away from this historic commitment while the Chinese Government is endorsing the commitment indicates an emerging opportunity for Asia to lead the world technologically in a vital industrial sector of the future Routledge Handbook of Public Policy in the Global South Gedion Onyango, Ishtiaq Jamil, 2025-06-30 This important new handbook provides a comprehensive assessment of contemporary public policy and governance in the Global South It offers incisive comparative analyses and presents policy specific case studies from across Asia Latin America Middle East and Africa The aim is to inform future governance research policy and practice in these regions This book is timely as it responds to how governments in the Global South are dealing with recent complex series of challenges and crises of the 21st Century These range from the pressures of a global pandemic to the impacts of climate change democratic backsliding deteriorating public services and the realignments in the international political economy following the rise of China In doing so it reflects on the political transformations global convergences and underlying regional as well as national trajectories that have taken place recently focusing on among others Democratic governance and institutional trust Public service delivery motivation and governance outcomes Policy crises disaster management and climate change Policy successes and failures Policy innovations digitalisation and policy research in the Global South Different authors bring together varied and specialised perspectives and experiences which are important for researchers practitioners and policymakers wishing to understand emerging governance models innovations and challenges within the Global South Interconnected Worlds: Tourism in Southeast Asia K.C. Ho, 2001-07-05 Examines the political discourse behind tourism presenting some questions regarding the tensions associated with the interconnections This title focuses on deterritorialisation and the development of fresh regionalisms paying specific attention to collaborative efforts in tourism development Globalisation and its Economic Consequences Shujiro Urata, Ha Thi Thanh Doan, 2021-08-30 Given the rising criticisms of and growing doubts about globalisation this timely edited volume looks at globalisation and its economic impact on eight countries in Asia and the Pacific region namely Australia China Indonesia Japan Malaysia Thailand the United States US and Vietnam The eight selected countries are members of the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC forum and yet the economies of these member countries have benefited differently from globalisation This book summarises findings from existing academic literature in a coherent framework and reviews them critically to provide a balanced analysis It also identifies the mechanisms through which globalisation impacts economies and explains how understanding of such mechanisms can be useful for formulating policies which would benefit from globalisation while achieving inclusive economic growth in the context of rising nationalism and protectionism The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/10.4324/9781003138501> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license      Territorial Development and Water-Energy-Food Nexus in the Global South Laura Montedoro, Alice Buoli, Alessandro Frigerio, 2022-09-18 This volume collects the results from the Politecnico di Milano's award winning Boa_Ma_Nh Maputo research by design project which studied various transdisciplinary approaches to development in the context of the Global South. The challenges of urbanization are well known but that only goes so far in aiding implementation. From local considerations like water access and housing rights to global issues like climate change territorial development demands solutions that address the needs of the specific population while keeping such goals as sustainability and inclusion in mind. By focusing on a number of towns within the Maputo Province of Mozambique and thus addressing many of the issues endemic to Sub-Saharan Africa the research structurally presented so as to aid those who may require introduction to the issue makes a clear case in favor of always keeping the Water Energy Food WEF Nexus in mind when formulating development strategies for improving people's lives as well as the wisdom of marrying academic findings with the insights accrued by local NGOs and institutions thereby expanding the potential idea bank beyond the Eurocentric status quo that has tended to dominate the field.

Spaces of Global Knowledge Diarmid A. Finnegan, Jonathan Jeffrey Wright, 2016-03-09 Global knowledge was constructed, communicated and contested during the long nineteenth century in numerous ways and places. This book focuses on the life geographies, material practices and varied contributions to knowledge be they medical or botanical, cartographic or cultural of actors whose lives crisscrossed an increasingly connected world. Integrating detailed archival research with broader thematic and conceptual reflection the individual case studies use local specificity to shed light on global structures and processes revealing the latter to be lived and experienced phenomena rather than abstract historiographical categories. This volume makes an original and compelling contribution to a growing body of scholarship on the global history of knowledge. Given its wide geographic disciplinary and thematic range this book will appeal to a broad readership including historical geographers and specialists in history of science and medicine, imperial history, museum studies and book history.

Asia Literacy in a Global World Hannah Soong, Nayia Cominos, 2018-08-20 This book is particularly timely in light of continuing international efforts to integrate Asia literacy into a national educational system where understanding of Asia, its languages, cultures, histories and beliefs is still at an emergent stage for a nation that is evolving into what George Megalogenis refers to as an Eurasian society. 2015 The contributors to this collection range from the pioneers who created and developed the Asia literacy research space to those who bring additional new theoretical insights through disciplines such as linguistics and ethnography. Their analysis has resulted in recommendations to develop a deeper understanding of working and living in diverse communities. The book also brings together theoretical perspectives on the current Australian socio-cultural and political context and how that can impact on pedagogical advancement in Asia literacy. The book argues for a broadening focus on what the outcomes Asia literacy in a global world can be for all Australians and offers counter narratives to the myth of a homogenous White Australian culture to provide new ways of engaging with curriculum and pedagogy that transcend superficial awareness of multiculturalism to embrace realistic and reflective principles of global education      Globalization in Southeast Asia Shinji Yamashita, Jeremy Seymour Eades, 2003

The rapid postwar economic growth in the Southeast Asia region has led to a transformation of many of the societies there together with the development of new types of anthropological research in the region Local societies with originally quite different cultures have been incorporated into multi ethnic states with their own projects of nation building based on the creation of national cultures using these indigenous elements At the same time the expansion of international capitalism has led to increasing flows of money people languages and cultures across national boundaries resulting in new hybrid social structures and cultural forms This book examines the nature of these processes in contemporary Southeast Asia with detailed case studies drawn from countries across the region including Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore and Thailand At the macro level these include studies of nation building and the incorporation of minorities At the micro level they range from studies of popular cultural forms such as music and textiles to the impact of new sects and the world religions on local religious practice Moving between the global and the local are the various streams of migrants within the region including labor migrants responding to the changing distribution of economic opportunities and ethnic minorities moving in response to natural disaster      Transdisciplinary Engineering: A Paradigm Shift C.-H. Chen, A.C. Trappey, M. Peruzzini, 2017-07-20

Concurrent Engineering is based on the concept that different phases of a product life cycle should be conducted concurrently and initiated as early as possible within the Product Creation Process PCP Its main goal is to increase the efficiency and effectiveness of the PCP and reduce errors in the later stages and to incorporate considerations for the full lifecycle through life operations and environmental issues of the product It has become the substantive basic methodology in many industries and the initial basic concepts have matured and become the foundation of many new ideas methodologies initiatives approaches and tools This book presents the proceedings of the 24th ISPE Inc International Conference on Transdisciplinary formerly Concurrent Engineering TE 2017 held in Singapore in July 2017 The 120 peer reviewed papers in the book are divided into 16 sections air transport and traffic operations and management risk aware supply chain intelligence product innovation and marketing management human factors in design human engineering design methods and tools decision supporting tools and methods concurrent engineering knowledge based engineering collaborative engineering engineering for sustainability service design digital manufacturing design automation artificial intelligence and data analytics smart systems and the Internet of Things The book provides a comprehensive overview of recent advances in transdisciplinary concurrent engineering research and applications and will be of interest to researchers design practitioners and educators working in the field      Cultural Issues in Psychology Andrew Stevenson, 2020-04-30 This book offers an engaging introduction to cultural and cross cultural psychology and offers an interdisciplinary approach to the key research theories and controversies that impact on human behaviour in a global context How is human behavior and experience intertwined with culture From this starting point this second edition of Cultural Issues in Psychology explores the role of culture in relation to mainstream and critical perspectives of our discipline Beginning with an examination of culture itself as well as related concepts such as ethnicity race and nation it goes on to trace historical developments in the role of culture in psychology Including a new chapter on migration and additional coverage of indigenous psychologies ethnographic research methods and cosmopolitanism the new edition reflects the latest developments in this global discipline Also featuring up to date research examples and revision exercises the book reviews and explains classic and contemporary approaches to cultural issues relating to social cognitive developmental and health psychology Also including chapters on culture and lifespan and culture and psychopathology this is the essential entry level text on cultural and cross cultural psychology for students taking psychology and related courses

The Role of Multinational Enterprises in Globalization Jörn Kleinert, 2004 Global Learning and Education Andrew Peterson, Paul Warwick, 2014-10-24 What is globalisation How are its effects felt by different people across the world How can we help young people flourish in a world characterised by globalisation Conflict poverty breaches of human rights and environmental sustainability are everyday issues for global citizens today old and young Global Learning and Education presents a detailed and challenging introduction to a central concern facing education systems and curricula around the world How young people understand and experience globalisation and how meaningful global learning can be developed Encouraging a critical and reflective approach in order to advance understanding of a range of theoretical and practical factors it considers the meaning and definitions of globalisation global citizenship and global education Global Learning and Education explores key issues including interconnectedness and interdependency cultural diversity social justice and sustainable development It considers how global learning should and can imbue all aspects of education within curriculum subjects through project based learning and through extra curricular activities that help students participate and engage in global issues It argues the importance of the mission and ethos of a school itself of shaping global learning for different educational contexts and of ensuring teaching and learning meets the needs of individual learners Global Learning and Education is a comprehensive thought provoking sometimes contentious introduction for educationalists concerned with what globalisation means for our young people Illustrated throughout with case studies that seek to inspire creativity and hope and including questions and suggested reading for further investigation it is essential reading for all those involved in the teaching and learning of young people as well as those studying this vital topic on Education Studies and Masters level courses

Knowledge Production, Area Studies and Global Cooperation Claudia Derichs, 2017-04-27 Whereas Area Studies and cross border cooperation research conventionally demarcates groups of people by geographical boundaries individuals might in fact feel more connected by shared values and principles than by conventional spatial dimensions Knowledge Production Area Studies and Global Cooperation asks what norms and principles lead to the creation of knowledge about cross border cooperation and connection It studies why theories methods and concepts originate in one place rather than another how they travel and what position the scholar adopts while doing research particularly in the field Taking case studies from Asia the Middle East and North Africa the book links the production of alternative epistemologies to the notion of global cooperation and reassesses the ways in which the concept of connectedness can be applied at the translocal and individual rather than the formal international and collective level Knowledge Production Area Studies and Global Cooperation provides an innovative and critical approach towards established means of producing knowledge about different areas of the world demonstrating that an understanding of pluri local connectivity should be integrated into the production of knowledge about different areas of the world and the behavioural dimension of global cooperation By shifting the view from the collective to the individual and from the formal to often invisible patterns of connectedness this book provides an important fresh perspective which will be of interest to scholars and students of Area Studies Politics International Relations and Development Studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY ND 4.0 license
