Globality Versus Democracy? Hans Köchler, 2000 Globalization Kent Deng, 2010-10-05 This is a collective volume on present day globalisation with nine chapters from authors of several academic disciplines It covers wide aspects ranging from the nature impact challenges and implications of globalisation to responses from a country or community when facing globalisation today or tomorrow Policy suggestions are also made This book will hence help the reader to understand the currently debated issues Globalistics and Globalization Studies George Modelski., Anton L. Grinin, Valentina M. Bondarenko., Ivan A. Aleshkovski, Alexey I. Andreev, Julia V. Zinkina, Oleg A. Alekseenko, Olga G. Leonova, David Christian, Tatyana L. Shestova, Craig G. Benjamin, Sergey V. Tsirel, William R. Thompson, Kentaro Sakuwa, Mikhail A. Kaverin, Sergey Yu. Malkov, Vladimir Maslov, Stanislav Ye. Bilyuga, Olga I. Davydova, Dmitry S. Malkov., Lowell Gustafson, David Baker, Alexander V. Markov, Joseph Voros, Alexander D. Panov, 2015-01-01 This yearbook is the fourth in the series with the title Globalistics and Globalization Studies The subtitle of the present volume is Global History Big History The point is that today our global world really demands global knowledge Thus there are a few actively developing multidisciplinary approaches and integral disciplines among which one can name Global Studies Global History and Big History They all provide a connection between the past present and future Big History with its vast and extremely heterogeneous field of research encompasses all the forms of existence and all timescales and brings together constantly updated information from the scientific disciplines and the humanities Global History is transnational or world history which examines history from a global perspective making a wide use of comparative history and of the history of multiple cultures and nations Global Studies express the view of systemic and epistemological unity of global processes Thus one may argue that Global Studies and Globalistics can well be combined with Global History and Big History and such a multi disciplinary approach can open wide horizons for the modern university education as it helps to form a global view of various processes The Concept of Humanitarian Intervention in the Context of Modern Power Politics Hans Köchler, 2001 Economics Versus Human Rights Manuel Couret Branco, 2008-12-03 In this book Manuel Branco demonstrates that economics is intrinsically opposed to the promotion of human rights in other words it is uncovering economic interests behind the persistent denial of human rights especially economic social and cultural rights How is Global Dialogue Possible? Johanna Seibt, Jesper Garsdal, 2014-12-11 Intercultural dialogue is often invoked in vague reference to a method that can build cross cultural understanding and facilitate global policy making This book clarifies the theoretical foundations of intercultural dialogue and demonstrates the practical significance of intercultural value inquiry combining the perspectives of philosophy conflict research religious studies and education Globalization and Geopolitics in the Middle East Anoushiravan Ehteshami, 2007-03-14 Examining globalization in the Middle East this book provides a much needed assessment of the impact of globalization in the greater Middle East including North Africa in the context of the powerful geopolitical forces at work in shaping the region today Written by a well known authority in this area this book demonstrates that unlike in other regions such as East Asia geopolitics has been a critical factor in driving globalization in the Middle East The author argues that whereas elsewhere globalisation has opened up the economy society culture and attitudes to the environment in the Middle East it has had the opposite effect with poor state formation little interregional trade foreign and interregional investment and reassertion of traditional identities This book explores the impact of globalization on the politics economies and social environment of the greater Middle East in the context of the region's position as the central site of global geopolitical competition at the start of the twenty first century Emerging Market Economies and Financial Globalization Leonardo E. Stanley, 2018-03-15 In the past foreign shocks arrived to national economies mainly through trade channels and transmissions of such shocks took time to come into effect However after capital globalization shocks spread to markets almost immediately Despite the increasing macroeconomic dangers that the situation generated at emerging markets in the South nobody at the North was ready to acknowledge the pro cyclicity of the financial system and the inner weakness of decontrolled financial innovations because they were enjoying from the great moderation Monetary policy was primarily centered on price stability objectives without considering the mounting credit and asset price booms being generated by market liquidity and the problems generated by this glut Mainstream economists in turn were not majorly attracted in integrating financial factors in their models External pressures on emerging market economies EMEs were not eliminated after 2008 but even increased as international capital flows augmented in relevance thereafter Initially economic authorities accurately responded to the challenge but unconventional monetary policies in the US began to create important spillovers in EMEs Furthermore in contrast to a previous surge in liquidity funds were now transmitted to EMEs throughout the bond market The perspective of an increase in US interest rates by the FED is generating a reversal of expectations and a sudden flight to quality Emerging countries currencies began to experience higher volatility levels and depreciation movements against a newly strong US dollar are also increasingly observed Consequently there are increasing doubts that the unexpected favorable outcome observed in most EMEs at the aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis GFC would remain

Gandhi Nehru And Globalization Harish Thakur, 2010 Globalization and Civil Society in East Asian Space Khatharya Um, Chiharu Takenaka, 2022-12-30 This book critically examines the impact of globalization changing power dynamics migration and evolving rights regimes on regional order discourse of national governance state and society relations and the development of civil society in East Asia Providing a textured critical reading of East Asia as an economically socially and politically dynamic region this book also presents the region as one shaped simultaneously by progressive as well as regressive pulls Attentive to prevailing issues as well as to states and civil societies responses to them it focuses on changing societies and politics in East Asia particularly on shifting notions of citizenship nationhood and peoplehood The contributions feature new and timely conclusions drawn from multidisciplinary fields including law public policy sociology Asian studies gender sexuality and ethnic studies and include direct testimonies from citizens of East and Southeast Asia Globalization and Civil Society in East Asian Space will appeal to students and scholars of sociology political science and Asian studies more broadly Globalization and Citizenship in the Asia-Pacific A. Davidson,K.

Weekley,1999-04-25 Millions of people around the Asia Pacific region are suffering from the twin effects of globalization and exclusionary nationality laws Some are migrant workers without rights in host countries some are indigenous peoples who are not accorded their full rights in their own countries Yet others are refugees escaping from regimes that have no respect for human rights This collection of essays discusses the ways in which citizenship laws in the region might be made consistent with human dignity It considers the connectedness of national belonging and citizenship in East and Southeast Asian and Pacific states including Australia the impact of mass migration cultural homogenization and other effects of globalization on notions of citizenship and possibilities of commitment to a transnational democratic citizenship that respects cultural difference

Propaganda and Power in the Age of Globalization Simon Sherratt,2024-08-15 Following victory in World War II the US and Western Europe claimed to be the champions of the political ideals of democracy and freedom along with the economic ideal of free market capitalism Two decades into the twenty first century these once noble ideals have been reduced to little more than myths myths that bear scant resemblance to the realities of the powerful political and economic forces that dominate the Western world This book examines the dangerous prospects we face as the societies built upon these myths begin to fragment and crumble In an open and accessible style this book argues that much of the confusion that currently plagues the West is due to the fact that its social economic and political systems are saturated by a little understood and rarely acknowledged system of propaganda This book seeks to clear away this propagandistic facade in order to reveal where power really lies in Western societies examining how this power functions and how it has corrupted the ideals of democracy freedom and capitalism to suit its own ends This volume will be of value to those interested in modern history and social and political history
