Globalization And Postapartheid South Africa:

Disabling Globalization Gillian Patricia Hart, 2002 An unequivocally excellent work of scholarship that makes significant theoretical and empirical contributions to the understanding of globalization and the working of contemporary neo liberal capitalism Hart is especially innovative in placing the study of Taiwanese industrialists in South Africa in relation to both the agrarian history of Taiwan and China and the way that Taiwanese overseas firms have operated in places other than South Africa It is a very rare combination of talents and knowledge that makes such a study possible James Ferguson author of Expectations of Modernity

Globalization and Post-apartheid South Africa Abebe Zegeye, Richard Legé Harris, Pat Lauderdale, 2005 This volume examines the progress made toward greater equality in South Africa in spite of the conflicting demands made by global capital and the population of South Africa on a weakened state structure Investigating such issues as African identities in the cultural and historical context of globalization growth and redistribution in South Africa the social reintegration of demobilized military personnel policing in the post apartheid era the poverty environment relationship and reproductive dynamics and gender based violence this engaging volume provides interdisciplinary scholars and students with varied perspectives on the effects of globalization in post apartheid South Africa Each chapter offers original research and theory

South Africa and the Logic of Regional Cooperation James J. Hentz, 2005 Examines South Africa's role in regional political economy since its transition to democracy

Globalisation of Accounting Standards Jayne Maree Godfrey, Keryn Chalmers, 2007-01-01 In this book Jayne Godfrey and Keryn Chalmers explore the intricacies of the globalisation of accounting standards arguably one of the most significant business developments of the wider globalisation process during the past two decades They examine the key issues and implications of this harmonization of accounting standards from the perspectives of a diverse range of worldwide stakeholders Globalisation of Accounting Standards shows that globalisation approaches differ significantly because countries seek to maintain varying degrees of sovereignty over their regulations International differences in economic political legal religious and social characteristics also affect globalisation approaches and in turn influence national accounting standard setting agendas The book explores why countries relinquish their existing national accounting standard setting regimes to join the global movement It also seeks to resolve questions such as To what extent are national incentives altruistic economic political or social Who are the winners and losers in the process This authoritative book is thoroughly researched and expertly informed Written by both academics and regulators it tackles a critical and controversial issue in the globalisation movement As such it will be of great interest to a wide ranging audience including international national private and public sector standard setters economic regulators accounting academics and political economists and strategists

Religion and Social Development in Post-apartheid South Africa Ignatius Swart, Hermann Rocher, Sulina Green, Johannes Erasmus, 2010-10-01 It reflects original research and contributes to new developments in the field of theology and religion with regard to its developmental role within a transformation context The book may easily stand out in future as seminal in the way that it promoted the social development debate of the church and its organisational structures from an interdisciplinary focus Prof Antoinette Lombard Department of Social Work and Criminology University of Pretoria Globalization and Health ,2004-11-01 This international collection of essays on globalization and health examines the global health issues associated with the economic technological political social cultural and environmental effects of globalization the increasing movement of capital people technology goods information environmental pollution and disease around the globe These essays analyze the complex linkages between globalization and health the health effects of globalization at all levels global national and local and the policy and institutional responses associated with the health consequences of globalization Media in Postapartheid South Africa Sean Jacobs,2019 Media in Postapartheid South Africa examines recent political developments in South Africa using media as a narrator of social transition from the days of the struggle against apartheid to a capitalist consumer economy Practising Empowerment in Post-Apartheid South Africa Agatha Herman,2017-07-28 Despite the promise and optimism surrounding the post apartheid transition South African society continues to be highly racialised in its discourses identities and practices even within the very strategies that aim to change power relations and heal racialised divisions Renowned for its brutal past practices the wine industry in South Africa has long been associated with white power and black exploitation and remains dogged by continuing allegations of poor working conditions and labour abuses Through in depth longitudinal fieldwork this book considers how different ethics interact and draws attention to the positive changes and continuing development challenges faced in South Africa Situating practice at its heart it brings a novel everyday and micro scale dimension to understandings of empowerment in the post apartheid South African wine industry It develops a critical analysis of the interplay between practice as scaled and inherently spatial and discourse to conceptualise how big concepts such as empowerment are articulated materialised and experienced at the ground level Through this it gives voices to the marginalised who experience empowerment setting these within the context of their relations with the other stakeholders who shape this engagement This book contributes to broader critical social science debates around ethical development and questions of power and empowerment in development interventions This is critical to reducing the disconnection between policy aims and realities within development and empowerment initiatives as well as enabling ethical commodities to be strategic in retaining their appeal throughout their networks Globalisation and Migration Ronaldo Munck,2013-09-13 This book critically examines the new issues and new politics regarding migration in the era of globalisation from a majority world perspective It examines the current shifts in the global political economy and the effects it has for example in relation to rural displacement When and how does this lead to national and or transnational migration We need to examine the ways in which migration is cut across and impacts on the generation of racism and xenophobia in the west The issue of remittances by migrants to the developing nations needs careful study as does the controversial issue of brain drain versus brain gain through migration The growing importance of trafficking for forced labour has now been taken up by various international bodies but is it the new normality or simply an unfortunate side effect of globalisation to be overcome through legislation Migration is becoming increasingly gendered in its composition and flows but also in the receiving countries where men and women do very different jobs We can predict the increasing racialization and gendering of migration but how will the state and society respond to these shifts This book was published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly GLOBALISATION AND TRANSITIONAL IDEOLOGIES Ernest L. VEYU, Stephen A. MFORTEH, 2021-11-22 The papers in this volume define the departure from the margin to the centre assess emerging literatures and shifting language concerns dismantle the hegemony of colonial English propose alternatives to the imperialism that underlies globalisation and question hegemonic assumptions in language and literature Development in Post-Apartheid South Africa Hlengiwe Mabizela, Nirmala Dorasamy, 2025-09-30 This book seeks to provide an in depth analysis of the political governance and socio economic landscape of South Africa in the aftermath of apartheid It examines the complexities and dynamics that have influenced and shaped the development of the country since 1994 identifying the enduring issues and challenges along with the opportunities present for building a sustainable and inclusive South Africa in the future The book aims to enhance comprehension of how South Africa can traverse its distinctive development trajectory by examining the wider political context governance structures and policy measures The objective is to analyse the impact of the political and governance structures instituted in the post apartheid era on the country's developmental path This encompasses the transformation of public administration and the influence of political dynamics and governance in determining the trajectory of the country's future In this effort the book not only explores significant accomplishments since 1994 but also engages in a critical examination of the limitations governmental shortcomings and challenges that persistently obstruct the progress of the country Furthermore it presents insights and recommendations aimed at enhancing governance enacting policy reforms and devising strategies to foster sustainable development Globalization, Economic Inclusion and African Workers Kate Meagher, Laura Mann, Maxim Bolt, 2018-10-03 This book addresses the question of whether greater inclusion in the global economy offers a solution to rising unemployment and poverty in contemporary Africa The authors trace the connection between global demographic change and new mechanisms of economic inclusion via global value chains digital networks labour migration and corporate engagement with the bottom of the pyramid challenging the claim that African workers have become functionally irrelevant to the global economy They expose the shift of global demand for African workers from formal to increasingly informalised labour arrangements mediated by social enterprises labour brokers graduate entrepreneurs and grassroots associations Focusing on global employment connections initiated from above and from below the authors examine whether global labour linkages increase or reduce problems of vulnerable and unstable working conditions within African countries and considers the economic and political conditions needed for African workers to capture the gains of inclusion in the global economy This book was previously published as a special issue of the Journal of Development Studies Globalisation and New Identities Peter Alexander, Marcelle C. Dawson, Meera Ichharam, 2006 Bringing together 12 ethnographic studies of post apartheid South Africa this reference focuses on the emergence of new South African identities with both strong local characteristics and powerful global influences It shows how in different ways through adoption adaptation avoidance and resistance South Africans are responding to the forces and connections of globalization

Freedom and Democracy in an Imperial Context Robert Nichols, Jakeet Singh, 2014-03-26 Freedom and Democracy in an Imperial Context Dialogues with James Tully gathers leading thinkers from across the humanities and social sciences in a celebration of and critical engagement with the recent work of Canadian political philosopher James Tully Over the past thirty years James Tully has made key contributions to some of the most pressing questions of our time including interventions in the history of moral and political thought contemporary political philosophy democracy citizenship imperialism recognition and cultural diversity In 2008 he published Public Philosophy in a New Key a two volume work that promises to be one of the most influential and important statements of legal and political thought in recent history This work along with numerous other books and articles is foundational to a distinctive school of political thought influencing thinkers in fields as diverse as Anthropology History Indigenous Studies Law Philosophy and Political Science Critically engaging with James Tully's thought the essays in this volume take up what is his central and ever more pressing question how to enact democratic practices of freedom within and against historically sedimented and actually existing relationships of imperialism

The State, Education and Equity in Post-Apartheid South Africa Enver Motala, 2020-09-10 This title was first published in 2002 Has the South African post apartheid state been able to achieve its stated goals What has been the relationship between the process of educational reform and the impact on the state of the Constitution and other laws This seminal book responds to these questions by examining the development and implementation of social policy in South Africa during the first years of democratic government particularly in relation to education The post apartheid state was immediately faced with a broad spectrum of political social economic and human rights issues The research analyzes whether the aims and objectives of the new administration were achieved no other single collection of research in South Africa collectively explores the issues raised in this endeavour The book will appeal to a wide range of professionals including researchers academics planners policy makers public servants and postgraduate students

Globalization and Race Kamari Maxine Clarke, Deborah A. Thomas, 2006 Kamari Maxine Clarke and Deborah A Thomas argue that a firm grasp of globalization requires an understanding of how race has constituted and been constituted by global transformations Focusing attention on race as an analytic category this state of the art collection of essays explores the changing meanings of blackness in the context of globalization It illuminates the connections between contemporary global processes of racialization and transnational circulations set in motion by imperialism and slavery between popular culture and global conceptions of blackness and between the work of anthropologists policymakers religious revivalists and activists and the solidification and globalization of racial categories A number of the essays bring to light the formative but not unproblematic influence of African American identity on other populations within the black diaspora Among these are an examination of the impact of black America on racial identity and politics in mid twentieth century Liverpool and an inquiry into the distinctive experiences of blacks in Canada Contributors investigate concepts of race and space in early twenty first century Harlem the experiences of trafficked Nigerian sex workers in Italy and the persistence of race in the purportedly non racial language of the New South Africa They highlight how blackness is consumed and expressed in Cuban timba music in West Indian adolescent girls fascination with Buffy the Vampire Slayer and in the incorporation of American rap music into black London culture Connecting race to ethnicity gender sexuality nationality and religion these essays reveal how new class economies ideologies of belonging and constructions of social difference are emerging from ongoing global transformations Contributors Robert L Adams Lee D Baker Jacqueline Nassy Brown Tina M Campt Kamari Maxine Clarke Raymond Codrington Grant Farred Keshia Fikes Isar Godreau Ariana Hernandez Reguant Jayne O Ifekwunigwe John L Jackson Jr Oneka LaBennett Naomi Pabst Lena Sawyer Deborah A Thomas

Globalisation, Higher Education, the Labour Market and Inequality Antonia Kupfer, 2014-07-16 Globalisation Higher Education the Labour Market and Inequality addresses the global transformation of higher education in relation to changes in the labour market It focuses on the relative impact of elements of globalisation on social inequality and provides insights into the ways in which these general forces of change are transformed into specific policies shaped by global forces and the various national values institutional structures and politics of the specified societies The book begins with a theoretical conceptualization for a comparative understanding of globalization higher education labour markets and inequality This is followed by a range of mainstream accounts from an international selection of contributors of the ways in which national systems have responded to the forces of globalisation and the increasing demand for higher education graduates in Australia the Czech Republic Germany Japan New Zealand and the UK Finally contributors explore more specific concerns such as the transition from higher education to the labour market in China and Sweden the division of the knowledge workers into traditional social groups in the US and the role and salience of Doctoral programmes in South Africa in developing a knowledge economy This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Education and Work

World Yearbook of Education 2023 Janelle Scott, Monisha Bajaj, 2022-11-07 The World Yearbook of Education 2023 centers on the intersection of racialization inequality and education It critically examines how racial formation and its associated logics about citizenship belonging justice equality and humanity manifest in early childhood education primary secondary and higher education as well as non formal community based education settings The chapters offer multisited perspectives into how racialization has and continues to shape educational inequality with an eye towards the agency and resistance of youth and communities in contesting such forms of domination and marginalization Across three sections the book examines how forces of imperialism white supremacy and colonization have shaped racialization in distinct locations and how education was historically utilized as a site for both the creation and or reification of difference It reveals the lingering effects of processes of racialization in distinct locations globally and their intersections with educational policies ideologies systems and realities Inviting readers to learn reflect and engage with the layered and complex realities of racialization and inequality in education across the globe World Yearbook of Education 2023 is a timely and important contribution to discussions of racialization and provides the field with a robust foundation for future critical inquiry and engagement with the themes of race racialization inequality and education
