Globalization And Third World Socialism Cuba And Vietnam:

Globalization and Third-World Socialism C. Brundenius, J. Weeks, 2001-03-29 After the collapse of the Soviet Union it appeared that the only option for developing countries was integration into the world economy Written by a group of international experts this book investigates the strategies deployed by Cuba and Vietnam to consider whether socialism in some form offers a viable development alternative Globalization and Antiglobalization Jonathan Rutherford, 2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2003 Globalisation can be seen to provide the context for epoch defining changes in social and economic forms of organisation However it has also changed the context for and the organisational forms of politics unleashing forces in support of and in opposition to the globalisation dynamic This text examines the dynamics of change and development in two regions of the world economy Latin America and Asia and is a series of explorations into the forces their political dynamics and the responses of governments and citizens The focus of the explorations and regional case studies is on the role of the nation state international organisations and social movements Globalization and Antiglobalization Globalization and Antiglobalization Henry Veltmeyer, 2017-07-05 Globalization has changed Taylor and Francis, 2017 the context for and the organizational forms of politics unleashing forces in support of and in opposition to the globalization dynamic Investigating the dynamics of change and development in two regions of the world economy Latin America and Asia this book evaluates these forces their political dynamics and the responses of governments and citizens Perspectives on Globalization and Antiglobalization Henry Veltmeyer, 2016-12-05 This completely revised and updated sequel to Globalization and Antiglobalization advances our understanding of the dynamics of neoliberal globalization and draws our attention towards efforts to construct another world beyond neoliberalism To advance our understanding of these forces and associated processes the collection brings together eleven specialists in the political economy of international relations and globalization to reflect on and analyze the diverse dimensions of the globalization process Taking into account significant developments in the dynamics of globalization and antiglobalization over the past years it includes a new introduction and a new conclusion as well as eight entirely new chapters contributed by authors as diverse and different in their perspectives as James Petras Walden Bello Norman Girvan Paul Bowles Terry Gibbs Lisa Thompson and Teivo Teivainen These dynamics are contextualized with essays on the Caribbean Latin America East Asia and Southern Africa This is an invaluable volume for students academics and activists concerned with creating a truly new world order Marxist Historical Cultures and Social Movements during the Cold War Stefan Berger, Christoph Cornelissen, 2019-08-21 This book explores the relationship between diverse social movements and Marxist historical cultures during the second half of the twentieth century in Western Europe with special emphasis on the Federal Republic of Germany and Italy During the Cold War Marxist ideas and understandings of history informed not only the traditional Communist Parties in Western Europe but also influenced a range of new social movements that emerged in the 1970s in the wake of the 1968 student rebellions The generation of 1968 was strongly influenced by neo Marxist ideas that they subsequently carried into the new social movements The volume asks how Marxist historical cultures influenced third world movements anti fascist movements the peace movement and a whole host of other new social movements that signaled a new vibrancy of civil society in Western Europe from the 1970s onwards Neoliberalism, Personhood, and Postsocialism Nicolette Makovicky, 2016-04-22 Despite a growing literature debating the consequences of neo liberal political and economic policy in the former Eastern bloc the idea of neo liberal personhood has so far received limited attention from scholars of the region Presenting a range of ethnographic studies this book lays the groundwork for a new disciplinary agenda by critically examining novel technologies of self government which have appeared in the wake of political and economic liberalization Neoliberalism Personhood and Postsocialism explores the formation of subjectivities in newly marketized or marketizing societies across the former Eastern Bloc documenting the rise of the neo liberal discourse of the enterprising self in government policy corporate management and education as well as examining the shifts in forms of capital amongst marginal capitalists and entrepreneurs working in the grey zone between the formal and informal economies A rich investigation of the tools of neo liberal governance and the responses of entrepreneurs and families in changing societies this book reveals the full complexity of the relationship between historically and socially embedded economic practices and the increasing influence of libertarian political and economic thought on public policy institutional reform and civil society initiatives As such it will appeal to anthropologists sociologists and geographers with interests in political discourse identity entrepreneurship and organizations in post socialist Everyday Moral Economies Marisa Wilson, 2013-09-23 Offering a rare glimpse of rural life in modern day societies Cuba this book examines how ordinary Cubans carve out their own spaces for appropriate acts of consumption exchange and production within the contradictory normative and material spaces of everyday economic life Discusses the conflict between the socialist welfare ideal of food as an entitlement and the market value of food as a commodity Bridges the fields of human geography and anthropology Approaches food networks and the scale of food systems in a novel way Provides a comprehensive look at Cuba today with coverage of history politics economics and social and environmental justice Enhanced Economics David A. Dieterle, 2017-03-27 A comprehensive four volume resource that by vivid photos from the field explains more than 800 topics within the foundations of economics macroeconomics microeconomics and global economics all presented in an easy to read format As the global economy becomes increasingly complex interconnected and therefore relevant to each individual in every country it becomes more important to be economically literate to gain an understanding of how things work beyond the microcosm of the economic needs of a single individual or family unit This expansive reference set serves to establish basic economic literacy of students and researchers providing more than 800 objective and factually driven entries on all the major themes and topics in economics Written by leading scholars and practitioners the set provides readers with a framework for understanding economics as mentioned and debated in the public forum and media

Each of the volumes includes coverage of important events throughout economic history biographies of the major economists who have shaped the world of economics and highlights of the legislative acts that have shaped the U S economy throughout history The extensive explanations of major economic concepts combined with selected key historical primary source documents and a glossary will endow readers with a fuller comprehension of our economic world Critical Globalization Studies Richard P. Appelbaum, William I. Robinson, 2005 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an Asian/Pacific Islander American Women Shirley Hune, Gail M. Nomura, 2003-08 A groundbreaking anthology devoted to Asian Pacific Islander American women and their experiences Asian Pacific Islander American Women is the first collection devoted to the historical study of A PI women's diverse experiences in America Covering a broad terrain from pre large scale Asian emigration and Hawaii in its pre Western contact period to the continental United States the Philippines and Guam at the end of the twentieth century the text views women as historical subjects actively negotiating complex hierarchies of power The volume presents new findings about a range of groups including recent immigrants to the U S and understudied communities Comprised of original new work it includes chapters on women who are Cambodian Chamorro Chinese Filipino Hmong Japanese Korean Native Hawaiian South Asian and Vietnamese Americans It addresses a wide range of women's experiences as immigrants military brides refugees American born lesbians workers mothers beauty contestants and community activists There are also pieces on historiography and methodology and bibliographic and video documentary resources This groundbreaking anthology is an important addition to the scholarship in Asian Pacific American studies ethnic studies American studies women s studies and U S history and is a valuable resource for scholars and students Contributors include Xiaolan Bao Sucheng Chan Catherine Ceniza Choy Vivian Loyola Dames Jennifer Gee Madhulika S Khandelwal Lili M Kim Nancy In Kyung Kim Erika Lee Shirley Jennifer Lim Valerie Matsumoto Sucheta Mazumdar Davianna Pomaika i McGregor Trinity A Ordona Rhacel Salazar Parre as Amy Ku uleialoha Stillman Charlene Tung Kathleen Uno Linda Trinh V Judy Tzu Chun Wu Ji Yeon Yuh and Judy Yung The Evolution of the Non-market Economy Treatment in the Multilateral Trading System Bin Zhang, 2018-06-18 This book tries to integrate the different arrangements devised in the MTS for small and large NMEs into one analytical framework and explores two sets of rules GATT WTO minus and GATT WTO plus along three historical stages shaping weakening and strengthening The focal point of this book is to uncover the composition and structure of the NME treatment in the MTS its evolving logic and process and the nature and trend of the political economic relations between NMEs and the MTS Understanding China and India Rollie Lal, 2006-04-30 Key to developing national security strategy is figuring out what other countries want What are their national interests How do they perceive them How do they project them onto the world stage Understanding all of this helps us to predict their behavior In developing a national security strategy for Asia the United States must take into account the desires of two emerging giants of the 21st century China and India We would be mistaken Lal argues if we lumped China and India together in one Asian policy because these two countries differ greatly from one another Based on over 120 in depth interviews with government officials and scholars in Beijing and New Delhi the author's research yields some surprising news about the differences between China and India Chinese leaders define their national interest as preservation of the state and territorial unity whereas Indian decision makers define their national interests in relation to forces beyond India such as the forces of globalization and their geopolitical status One factor that accounts for these differences among the many explored in this book is the influence of one party rule in China and parliamentary democracy in India Another important finding is that China and India are unlikely to pursue hostility with each other The U S approach to Asia will need to take these differences into Global Geographies of Post-Socialist Transition Tassilo Herrschel, 2006-09-27 Since the formal raising of the account Iron Curtain there has been much interest in post socialism and the process of post socialist transition This timely book provides a systematic review and analysis of the process of transition Herrschel explores recent theories concepts and debates on post socialism and the notion of transition provides a systematic topical account of post socialist transitions around the world as evidence by social economic and political processes examines case studies of post socialist transition in east and Central Europe the former Soviet Union Asia and South East Asia and Africa and Latin America brings together theoretical and practical aspects by examining what lessons can be learned from recent experiences Global Geographies of Post Socialist Transition provides a truly global comparative account of the meaning and processes of post socialist transition and will be an invaluable resource for all those interested in this area Ibss: Economics: 2001 Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science, 2002-12 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences Debating Cuban Exceptionalism L. Whitehead, B. Hoffman, 2016-04-30 This volume traces the developments in Cuba following the fall of the Berlin Wall and the subsequent definitive demise of state socialism Topics covered include the reasons for the persistence of the Cuban model and an examination of the interaction between elite and non elite actors as well as between domestic and international forces Viet Nam Brian Van Arkadie, Raymond Mallon, 2004-01-01 Viet Nam has seen consistent rapid economic growth and impressive declines in poverty since it initiated its Doi Moi economic reforms in the late 1980s Viet Nam has taken a selective step by step approach to reform an approach often criticised by proponents of the Washington Consensus That this approach has been so successful has come as something of a surprise to much of the international community Analysing closely aspects of Viet Nam's reform process enterprise development income growth and poverty alleviation Viet Nam a transition tiger argues that Viet Nam s remarkable development is not readily explained by the more orthodox versions of the Washington Consensus Successful policy is not built on mechanistic replication of some general reform blueprint but on responding pragmatically to specific national circumstances Government policy has had an impact on economic performance but economic experience has also guided the formulation of economic policy Faced with increasingly complex economic conditions Vietnamese policymakers will need to rely more than ever on their flexibility and pragmatism if Viet Nam s remarkable economic performance is to be sustained Encyclopedia Of The Global Economy A Guide For Students And Researchers David E. O connor,2006

Cuba Since the Revolution of 1959 Samuel Farber, 2011-12-13 Frequent insights stimulating historical comparisons and command of the data relating to Cuba's economic and social performance Foreign Affairs Uncritically lauded by the left and impulsively denounced by the right the Cuban Revolution is almost universally viewed one dimensionally In this book Samuel Farber one of its most informed left wing critics provides a much needed critical assessment of the Revolution's impact and legacy The Cuban story twists and turns as we speak so thank goodness for scholars such as Samuel Farber an unapologetic Marxist whose knowledge of Cuban affairs is unrivalled In this excellent necessary book Farber takes stock of fifty years of revolutionary control by recognizing achievements but lambasting authoritarianism Latin American Review of Books A courageous and formidable balance sheet of the Cuban Revolution including a sobering analysis of a draconian reform program that will only deepen the gulf between revolutionary slogans and the actual life of the people Mike Davis author of Planet of Slums Almost Futures Thu-huong Nguyen-vo, 2024-06-11 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www luminosoa org to learn more Almost Futures looks to the people who pay the heaviest price exacted by war and capitalist globalization particularly Vietnamese citizens and refugees for glimpses of ways to exist at the end of our future s promise In order to learn from the lives destroyed and lived amid our inheritance of modern humanism and its uses of time Almost Futures asks us to recognize new spectrums of feeling the poetic in the grief of protesters dispossessed by land speculation the allegorical in assembly line workers laughter and sorrow the iterant and intimate in the visual witnessing of revolutionary and state killing the haunting in refugees writing on the death of their nation and the irreconcilable in refugees inhabitation of history
