Globalization From Below The Power Of So:

Globalizations from Below Theodor Tudoroiu, 2022-09-09 Globalizations from Below uses a Constructivist International Relations approach that emphasizes the centrality of normative power to analyze and compare the four globalizations from below These are 1 the counter hegemonic globalization represented by the movement of movements of alter globalization transnational social activists who try to put an end to the Neoliberal nature of the Western centered globalization from above 2 the non hegemonic globalization enacted by ant traders that are part of the transnational informal economy 3 the partially similar Chinese centered globalization whose entrepreneurial migrants are strongly influenced and instrumentalized by the Chinese state and 4 the first wave globalization from below that paralleled and outlived the 1870 1914 globalization from above This book identifies their common features and uses them to define the concept of globalization from below as a set of socio economic or socio political processes that involve large transnational flows of people goods and or ideas characterized at least in part by informality They are enacted by entrepreneurial or activist individuals who either take advantage of the normative power of the hegemon at the origin of an international order and an associated globalization from above or explicitly or implicitly transgress contest and try to redefine dominant economic legal political and socio cultural norms thus challenging the existing international order and globalization from above By constructing a unified theoretical framework this book attempts to open a new field of interdisciplinary research that should take globalizations from below out of their current scholarly marginality This is one of the first scholarly works to collectively present more than one globalization from below and will be of great interest to students scholars and researchers of International Relations International Political Economy Development Studies Economic History Anthropology Diaspora Studies and Chinese Studies China's

Globalization from Below Theodor Tudoroiu, 2021-09-09 This book analyzes the Chinese centered globalization from below brought about by China's entrepreneurial migrants and conceived of as a projection of Chinese power in the Belt and Road Initiative partner states It identifies the features of this globalization from below scrutinizes its mutually reinforcing relationship with China's globalization from above and shows that these two globalizations are intrinsically related to the construction of a new international order It outlines how the actors in China's globalization from below include Chinese emigrants who are located in informal transnational economic networks It reveals that Beijing has enacted many laws that compel these emigrants to contribute to the development of their country of origin but also influences them through the successful promotion of a specific type of deterritorialized nationalism and that China is ready to impose harsh punitive actions on political elites in partner states which fail to protect its migrants or limit their economic activities Finally it argues that China's globalization from below is fundamentally different from the non hegemonic globalization from below represented by among others Lebanese and East Indian traders and that China's globalization from below is rather a self interested national strategy intended to support the construction of a Chinese centered international order The SAGE Encyclopedia of Economics and Society Frederick F. Wherry, Juliet B. Schor, Consulting Editor, 2015-09-01 Economics is the nexus and engine that runs society affecting societal well being raising standards of living when economies prosper or lowering citizens through class structures when economies perform poorly Our society only has to witness the booms and busts of the past decade to see how economics profoundly affects the cores of societies around the world From a household budget to international trade economics ranges from the micro to the macro level It relates to a breadth of social science disciplines that help describe the content of the proposed encyclopedia which will explicitly approach economics through varied disciplinary lenses Although there are encyclopedias of covering economics especially classic economic theory and history the SAGE Encyclopedia of Economics and Society emphasizes the contemporary world contemporary issues and society Features 4 volumes with approximately 800 signed articles ranging from 1 000 to 5 000 words each are presented in a choice of print or electronic editions Organized A to Z with a thematic Reader s Guide in the front matter groups related entries Articles conclude with References Future Readings to guide students to the next step on their research journeys Cross references between and among articles combine with a thorough Index and the Reader s Guide to enhance search and browse in the electronic version Pedagogical elements include a Chronology of Economics and Society Resource Guide and Glossary This academic multi author reference work will serve as a general non technical resource for students and researchers within social science programs who seek to better understand economics through a contemporary lens disciplines The Dilemmas of Social Democracies Howard Richards, Joanna Swanger, 2008-01-01 The Dilemmas of Social Democracies seeks to advance the eradication of poverty and the ethical construction of social democracy and sustainable peace Howard Richards and Joanna Swanger argue that the reason that capitalism resists transformation and that social democracy is so hard to achieve is because of the philosophical and institutional underpinnings_ the constitutive rules_ of capitalism the book therefore explores the historical origins of these rules their implications for blocking progress toward social justice and how they can be improved Rising Powers and South-South Cooperation Kevin Gray, Barry Gills, 2018-10-11 This book examines the extent to which a space has opened up in recent years for the so called rising powers of the global South to offer an alternative to contemporary global economic and political governance through emergent forms of South South cooperation In contrast to the Third Worldism of the past the contemporary rising powers share in common the fact that their recent growth owes much to their extensive and increasingly international engagement rather than partial withdrawal from the global economy However they are nonetheless openly critical of the perceived bias towards the global North in the dominant institutions of global governance and seek to alter the global status quo to enhance the influence of the global South Contributions to this volume address the question of whether such engagement particularly on a South South basis can be categorised as a win win relationship or whether we are already seeing the emergence of new forms of competitive rivalry and neo dependency in action What kind of theoretical approaches and conceptual tools do we need to best answer such questions To what extent do new groupings such as BRICS suggest a real alternative to the dominance of the West and of the neoliberal economic globalization paradigm What possible alternatives exist within contemporary forms of South South cooperation This book was originally published as a special edition of Third World Quarterly Constitutionalism and Democracy Richard Bellamy, 2017-07-05 Constitutionalism and democracy have been interpreted as both intimately related and intrinsically opposed On the one hand constitutions are said to set out the rules of the democratic game on the other as constraining the power of the demos and their representatives to rule themselves including by reforming the very processes of democracy itself Meanwhile constitutionalists themselves differ on how far any constitution derives its authority from and should itself be subject to democratic endorsement and interpretation They also dispute whether constitutions should refer solely to democratic processes or also define and limit democratic goals Each of these positions produces a different view of judicial review the content and advisability of a Bill of Rights and the nature of constitutional politics These differences are not simply academic positions but are reflected in the different types of constitutional democracy found in the United States continental Europe Britain and many commonwealth countries The selected essays explore these issues from the perspectives of law philosophy and political science A detailed and informative introduction sets them in the context of contemporary debates about constitutionalism The Oxford Handbook of Postcolonial Studies Graham Huggan, 2013-09-12 The Oxford Handbook of Postcolonial Studies is a major reference work which aims to provide informed insights into the possible future of postcolonial studies as well as a comparative overview of the latest developments in the field Globalization, Human Security, and the African Experience Caroline Thomas, Peter Wilkin, 1999 Eleven contributions explore security from a human rather than a state perspective and illustrate this by drawing on case material from sub Saharan Africa They offer an alternative to the realist state centered militaristic male dominated terrain of orthodox security and strategic studies and study such issues as feminist perspectives justice economic genocide in Rwanda security in the new world order and the erosion of the state and the decline of race Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Masculinity Beyond the Metropolis J. Kenway, A. Kraack, A.

Hickey-Moody, 2006-06-20 This book gives insights on youth masculinity and place by exploring spatially marginalized masculinities in stigmatized and romanticized out of the way places in developed Western countries It shows the impact of globalization on place and identity through global ethnographic studies and media representations of young men in peripheral places Critical Globalization Studies Richard P. Appelbaum, William I. Robinson, 2005 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Identity and Development Paul van der Grijp, 2021-11-22 Identity and Development presents a remarkable record of Tonga's increasing participation in the modern global economy and provides anthropologists economists and historians with a detailed case study that bears heavily on major issues of the day both practically and theoretically The book focuses on issues of identity entrepreneurship and the intricacies of development and addresses the question How in the current state of the economy can a Tongan become a successful grower This question is set against the background of a boom in cash cropping sparked by a burgeoning export trade with Japan

Global Shadows James Ferguson, 2006-02-28 A collection of Ferguson's essays that bring the question of Africa into the center of current debates on globalization modernity and emerging forms of world order Globalization and Economy: Globalizing labour Paul Warren James, 2007 Globalization and Economy is the second set which looks at economics broadly conceived including global markets global finance global economic institutions and global labour China's Two Identities Theodor Tudoroiu, 2024-06-07 This book presents an original explanation of the stark contrast between two very different Chinese foreign policy patterns On the one hand there is Beijing's hard power actorness related among others to territorial disputes and wolf warrior intimidating maneuvers On the other hand there are China's peaceful and cooperative actions well illustrated by the Belt and Road Initiative This book shows that this situation is best understood as a consequence of the coexistence of two different Chinese identities respectively associated with the concepts of nineteenth century style territorial empire and twenty first century style postmodern global power The book contends that in China's case they form a virtuous circle characterized by a specific division of labor as both identities are instrumental to the construction of a new Chinese led international order The book provides a detailed analysis of the genesis development features and interplay of these identities It is relevant to scholars in China studies political history contemporary politics and foreign policy Korea's Globalization Samuel S. Kim, 2000-06-19 This book explores Korea's globalization and its impact on all aspects of Korean society The Geopolitics of China's Belt and Road Initiative Theodor Tudoroiu, 2023-11-30 This book argues that China's Belt and Road Initiative should be seen more as a geopolitical project and less as a global economic project with China aiming to bring about a new Chinese led international order. It contends that China's international approach has two personas: an aggressive one focusing on a nineteenth century style territorial empire which is applied to Taiwan and the seas adjacent to China and a new style persona based on relationship building with the political elites of countries in the Global South relying on large scale infrastructure projects to help secure the elites in power, a process often leading to lower democratic participation and weaker governance structures. It also shows how this relationship building with elites leads to an acceptance of Chinese norms and to changes in states' geopolitical preferences and foreign policies to align them with China's geopolitical interests with states thereby joining China's emerging international order. Overall, the book emphasizes that this new style non-territorial empire building based on relationships is a major new development in international relations not fully recognized and accounted for by international relations experts and theorists.

Globalization Thomas Hylland Eriksen, 2020-05-15 For the first time in human history the vast majority of the world's population is connected through trade, travel, production, media and politics. Ours is an era of ubiquitous mobile communication, economic outsourcing, mass migration and imported consumer goods. At the same time, people everywhere are concerned to keep their identities rooted and sense of place in the face of momentous change. This new edition of Thomas Hylland Eriksen's concise and engaging landmark textbook outlines the main debates and controversies around globalization and develops a unique perspective to show how globalization is an inherently double process taking place both from above and below. Each chapter is supported by boxed case studies and bullet points summarizing the core information, suggestions for further reading and essay and discussion questions, making this the ideal guide for both the classroom and independent study. Focusing on key concepts of globalization and drawing on international examples, this book is essential for anyone wishing to understand the fundamental processes underlying the contemporary world and the consequences these have for all of us. Essential Essays, Volume 2 Stuart Hall, 2018-12-06 From his arrival in Britain in the 1950s and involvement in the New Left to founding the field of cultural studies and examining race and identity in the 1990s and early 2000s, Stuart Hall has been central to shaping many of the cultural and political debates of our time. Essential Essays, a landmark two-volume set, brings together Stuart Hall's most influential and foundational works. Spanning the whole of his career, these volumes reflect the breadth and depth of his intellectual and political projects while demonstrating their continued vitality and importance. Volume 2, Identity and Diaspora, draws from Hall's later essays in which he investigated questions of colonialism, empire and race. It opens with Gramsci's Relevance for the Study of Race and Ethnicity, which frames the volume and finds Hall rethinking received notions of racial essentialism. In addition to essays on multiculturalism and globalization, black popular culture and Western modernity's racial underpinnings Volume 2 contains three interviews with Hall in which he reflects on his life to theorize his identity as a colonial and diasporic subject
