Imperialism in the 21st Century

Globalization Unmasked: Imperialism In The 21st Century ,      The Puzzle of Twenty-First-Century

Globalization Patrice Franko, Stephen C. Stamos Jr., 2017-03-02 The Puzzle of Twenty First Century Globalization explores the opportunities and challenges of our international economic system Patrice Franko and Stephen Stamos clearly trace how the ways we produce finance and trade goods and services are profoundly shaped by technologies of communication transportation and trade Globalization encourages hyper specialization lavishly rewarding those with the skill sets to serve the global marketplace and punishing those poorly positioned to compete Globalized systems have created great prosperity along with instability vulnerability and backlash Few genuinely understand the complex underpinnings of our international economic system and these specialists tend to operate in isolated silos of finance trade and production But without appreciating how systems come together we cannot explain political reactions against the costs of globalization such as the Brexit vote or the rise of Donald Trump We don't value the changing geo economic importance of the developing world nor the deep threat to ecosystems This book is the first to emphasize the interrelated economic aspects of globalization from an interdisciplinary perspective By placing an introduction to trade finance and multinational production in the same text that discusses the changing role of developing countries and the challenges to the environment the authors provide the novice with the basics to understand the global economy while also challenging advanced students to appreciate global connectivity Closing the knowledge gap in international economics the authors present the historical context interdisciplinary grounding and competing political perspectives needed to encourage sound critical thinking around contemporary globalization They provide the essential global economic tools to equip all readers to make decisions that may foster a fairer more sustainable global system      The Routledge International Handbook of Globalization Studies Bryan Turner, Robert

Holton, 2015-12-22 The second edition of the Routledge International Handbook of Globalization Studies offers students clear and informed chapters on the history of globalization and key theories that have considered the causes and consequences of the globalization process There are substantive sections looking at demographic economic technological social and cultural changes in globalization The handbook examines many negative aspects new wars slavery illegal migration pollution and inequality but concludes with an examination of responses to these problems through human rights organizations international labour law and the growth of cosmopolitanism There is a strong emphasis on interdisciplinary approaches with essays covering sociology demography economics politics anthropology and history The second edition has been completely revised and features important new thinking on themes such as Islamophobia and the globalization of religious conflict shifts in global energy production such as fracking global inequalities fiscal transformations of the state and problems of taxation globalization and higher education and an analysis of the general sense of catastrophe that surrounds contemporary understandings of the consequences of a global world      The Routledge International Handbook of Globalization

Turner, 2011 This title offers students clear and informed chapters on the history of globalization and key theories that have considered the causes and consequences of the globalization process There are substantive sections looking at demographic economic technological social and cultural changes in globalization The New Blackwell Companion to Social Theory Bryan S. Turner, 2009-01-30 A comprehensive new collection covering the principal traditions and critical contemporary issues of social theory Builds on the success of The Blackwell Companion to Social Theory second edition with substantial revisions entirely new contributions and a fresh editorial direction Explores contemporary areas such as actor network theory social constructionism human rights and cosmopolitanism Includes chapters on demography science and technology studies and genetics and social theory Emphasizes key areas of sociology which have had an important impact in shaping the discipline as a whole Translation, History and Arts Ji Meng, Atsuko Ukai, 2013-07-29 Translation History and Arts New Horizons in Asian Interdisciplinary Humanities Research is a collection of selected research papers originally presented at the Todai Forum in October 2011 in Lyon France under the auspices of the University of Tokyo Japan Papers selected for inclusion in this book stand at the frontier of interdisciplinary humanities research and are concerned with translation and cross cultural studies social and art history and comparative area studies A central theme of the papers is the development of a new discursive narrative of local histories against the backdrop of world history Through case studies of historical and modern socio cultural events occurring in different regions and countries this book strives to advance our understanding of the dynamic and complex interactions among distinct social and cultural systems in world history Critical Theories of Globalization C. el-Ojeili, P. Hayden, 2006-07-28 This accessible text provides a comprehensive overview of globalization and its consequences from the perspective of social and political critical theory Thematic chapters provoke student inquiry and the book shows how the views of critical theorists are crucial to understanding the global processes shaping the world today Social Theory Berch Berberoglu, 2017-01-06 Social Theory provides a sophisticated yet highly accessible introduction to classical and contemporary social theories The author's concise presentation allows students and instructors to focus on central themes The text lets theorists speak for themselves presenting key passages from each theorist's corpus bringing theory to life The approach allows instructors the opportunity to help students learn to unpack sometimes complex prose just as it offers inroads to class discussion Chapters on Adams and early feminism on Habermas and the Frankfurt School on Foucault and on globalization and social movements round out contemporary coverage The book presents and explains key theories just as it provides an introduction to central debates about them Globalization and Antiglobalization Taylor and Francis, 2017 Globalization and Antiglobalization Henry Veltmeyer, 2017-07-05 Globalization has changed the context for and the organizational forms of politics unleashing forces in support of and in opposition to the globalization dynamic Investigating the dynamics of change and development in two regions of the world economy Latin America and Asia this book evaluates these forces their political dynamics and the responses of governments and citizens      Globalization and Antiglobalization Jonathan Rutherford, 2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2003 Globalisation can be seen to provide the context for epoch defining changes in social and economic forms of organisation However it has also changed the context for and the organisational forms of politics unleashing forces in support of and in opposition to the globalisation dynamic This text examines the dynamics of change and development in two regions of the world economy Latin America and Asia and is a series of explorations into the forces their political dynamics and the responses of governments and citizens The focus of the explorations and regional case studies is on the role of the nation state international organisations and social movements      Global Fissures Clara A.B. Joseph, 2006-01-01 The essays in this volume examine the tensions between two major political and intellectual structures the global and the postcolonial charting the ways in which such tensions are constitutive of changing power relations between the individual the nation state and global forces Contributors ask how postcolonialism with its emphasis on cultural difference and diversity can respond to the new neo imperialist imperatives of globalization Signalling the discursive grounds for debate is the fissures fusions title suggesting alternative categorizations of stereotypes like global homogenization and postcolonial resistance Interwoven are considerations of the intellectual or writer s position today Literary texts from a wide range of countries are analysed for their resistance to global hegemony and for representations of manipulative power structures in order to highlight issues such as environmental loss nationality migrancy and marginality Specific topics covered include westernizing the Indian academy ecotourism and the new media of computer technology the corporatization of creativity in re branding New Zealand including film and the hybrid forms of Latin American photography Writers discussed include Chinua Achebe Samuel Beckett Hafid Bouazza Bei Dao Mahmoud Darwish Witi Ihimaera James Joyce Yann Martel Rohinton Mistry Ellen Ombre Michael Ondaatje George Orwell Arundhati Roy Salman Rushdie and Edward Said Different essays stress the hegemony of global networks the technological revolution s revitalizing of niche marketing while marginalizing postcolonial resistance the implications of the internationalization of culture for the indigene and the potential of cultural hybridity to collapse cultural hierarchies      The Oxford Handbook of the Ends of Empire Martin Thomas, Andrew Thompson, 2018-12-06 The Oxford Handbook of the Ends of Empire offers the most comprehensive treatment of the causes course and consequences of the ends of empire in the twentieth century The volume s contributors convey the global reach of decolonization with chapters analysing the empires of Western Europe Eastern Europe China and Japan The Handbook combines broad regional treatments of decolonization with chapter contributions constructed around particular themes or social issues It considers how the history of decolonization is being rethought as a result of the rise of the new imperial history and its emphasis on race gender and culture as well as the more recent growth of interest in histories of globalization transnational history and histories of migration and diaspora humanitarianism and development and human rights The Handbook in other words seeks to identify the processes and commonalities of experience that make decolonization a unique historical phenomenon with a lasting resonance In light of decades of historical and social scientific scholarship on modernization dependency neo colonialism failed state architectures and post colonial conflict the obvious question that begs itself is when did empires actually end In seeking to unravel this most basic dilemma the Handbook explores the relationship between the study of decolonization and the study of globalization It connects histories of the late colonial and post colonial worlds and considers the legacies of empire in European and formerly colonised societies Literary Theory and

Criticism Arun Gupto,2021-08-30 The book explores key South Asian writings on cultural theory and literary criticism It discusses the dynamics of textual contents rhetorical styles and socio political issues through an exploration of seminal South Asian scholarship in the Humanities and Social Sciences The volume examines concepts and methods of critical studies It also discusses colonial and postcolonial discourses on art religion nationalism identity representation resistance and gender in the South Asian context The essays are accompanied by textual questions and intertextual discussions on rhetorical creative and critical aspects of the selected texts The exercise questions invite the reader to explore the mechanics of reading about and writing on discursive pieces in South Asian studies Comprehensive and interdisciplinary this textbook will be indispensable for students and researchers of South Asian studies cultural theory literary criticism postcolonial studies literary and language studies women and gender studies rhetoric and composition political sociology and cultural studies

Power of the Talking Stick Sharon J Ridgeway,Peter J Jacques,2015-11-17 The Power of the Talking Stick makes the case that reaching back to the beginning of the nation state and all through the current period of corporate led globalisation our governments and social institutions have been engaged in activities that will ultimately extinguish the world s ecological life support systems This book offers an alternative listening to indigenous leaders and others whose voices often go unheard in the din of contemporary culture Sharon Ridgeway and Peter Jacques offer a stark warning but their insights are firmly grounded in traditional knowledge and provide a way to see past the politics and rescue the earth An important resource for climate activists students and academics

Globalization and Labor Dimitris Stevis,Terry Boswell,2008 Unions have long been a central force in the democratization of national and global governance and this timely book examines the role of labor in fighting for a more democratic and equitable world In a clear and compelling narrative Dimitris Stevis and Terry Boswell explore the past accomplishments and the formidable challenges still facing global union politics The authors consider whether global union politics has become more active and more influential or has failed to rise to the challenge of global capitalism All readers interested in global organizations governance and social movements will find this deeply informed work an essential resource

Globalization and the Environment Pete Newell,2013-04-24 Globalization and the Environment critically explores the actors politics and processes that govern the relationship between globalization and the environment Taking key aspects of globalisation in turn trade production and finance the book highlights the relations of power at work that determine whether globalization is managed in a sustainable way and on whose behalf Each chapter looks in turn at the political ecology of these central pillars of the global economy reviewing evidence of its impact on diverse ecologies and societies its governance the political structures institutions and policy making processes in place to manage this relationship and finally efforts to contest and challenge these prevailing approaches The book makes sense of the relationship between globalisation and the environment using a range of theoretical tools from different disciplines This helps to place the debate about the compatibility between globalisation and sustainability in an explicitly political and historical context in which it is possible to appreciate the nature of interests and power relations that privilege some ways of responding to environmental problems over others in a context of globalisation      The Class Struggle in Latin America

James Petras, Henry Veltmeyer, 2017-08-09 The Class Struggle in Latin America Making History Today analyses the political and economic dynamics of development in Latin America through the lens of class struggle Focusing in particular on Peru Paraguay Chile Colombia Argentina Brazil and Venezuela the book identifies how the shifts and changing dynamics of the class struggle have impacted on the rise demise and resurgence of neo liberal regimes in Latin America This innovative book offers a unique perspective on the evolving dynamics of class struggle engaging both the destructive forces of capitalist development and those seeking to consolidate the system and preserve the status quo alongside the efforts of popular resistance concerned with the destructive ravages of capitalism on humankind society and the global environment Using theoretical observations based on empirical and historical case studies this book argues that the class struggle remains intrinsically linked to the march of capitalist development At a time when post neo liberal regimes in Latin America are faltering this supplementary text provides a guide to the economic and political dynamics of capitalist development in the region which will be invaluable to students and researchers of international development anthropology and sociology as well as those with an interest in Latin American politics and development      Venezuela Reframed Luis Fernando

Angosto-Ferrández, 2015-10-15 The role of the indigenous population in the formation of the Bolivarian constitution is one of Latin America s most important untold stories Considered a beacon of twenty first century socialism by many Venezuela is witnessing the paradoxical emergence of indigenous capitalisms as the government and various indigenous actors are driven by notions of development and enfranchisement grounded in the ideology of multiculturalism Venezuela Reframed shows that a considerable part of indigenous activism aligned with the Bolivarian governments has paved the way for development in classical social democratic terms It looks at how in opposition to sectors of the indigenous population fighting for effective autonomy many legitimate claims are being usurped to consolidate capitalist relations Boldly arguing that romanticized notions of cultural indigeneity hide growing class struggle this book is essential reading not just for those interested in Venezuela but all those interested in the prospects of democracy contemporary states and alternatives to capitalism worldwide      Handbook of Research Methods in Migration Carlos Vargas-Silva, 2012-01-01 Covering both qualitative and quantitative topics the expert contributors in this Handbook explore fundamental issues of scientific logic methodology and methods through to practical applications of different techniques and approaches in migration research The chapters of this interdisciplinary Handbook maintain an introductory level of discussion on migration research methods while providing readers with references necessary for those wishing to go deeper into the topic Using a combination of concepts and techniques with research experiences from the field this Handbook will prove to be an invaluable guide Master level students and academics in migration related programs will find this compendium a useful and stimulating resource It also discusses issues relating to the collection of data on migrants including topics such as survey designs interviewing techniques and ethical issues that policymakers and government employees will find informative Advisory Board Professor Stephen Castles Professor Robin Cohen Professor Josh DeWind Professor Rael Delgado Wise
