Globetrotter Kinabalu Park:

Kinabalu Park Anthea Phillipps, Francis Shin Pin Liew, 2004-11 This comprehensive and practical guide is intended for any local or international visitor to Kinabalu Park an increasingly popular eco tourism destination in Sabah Eastern Malaysia One of the most accessible and spectacular mountains in the world Kinabalu is also one of the highest in South east Asia The park now a world heritage site is a mecca of biodiversity containing more than 5000 species of plants and a wealth of birds mammals and other animals In addition to the wildlife visitor attractions include hiking trails hot springs a canopy walkway and the two day ascent of the summit itself This illustrated book is both a complete introduction to Kinabalu and a companion guide for the visitor It describes all the park s wildlife and plantlife including a full bird checklist and has essential practical information on access accommodation and facilities Detailed accounts of the park s trails and climbs are each accompanied by individual route maps Globetrotter Jillanne David, 2012-08-20 Undoubtedly one of the better travel books cultural descriptive and informative a huge helping of the writer s own accounts been there done that with a sprinkling of humour thrown in for good measure Asian Geographic , 2001 Wild Borneo , 2006 Wild Borneo is a beautifully photographed and eloquently written celebration of Borneo s gorgeous scenery vast wealth of plant and animal life and fascinating local peoples Also featured in depth are efforts to protect the island s rainforests world hotspots of species biodiversity and to build a long term global approach to conserving the multitude of natural treasures found on this unique spectacular island dust jacket A Naturalist's Guide to the Birds of Malaysia and Singapore G. W. H. Davison, Chin Aik Yeap, 2010 An easy to use identification guide to 280 bird species most commonly seen in Malaysia including the states of Sabah and Sarawak on the island of Borneo and Singapore perfect for resident and visitor alike High quality photographs from some of Malaysia s top nature photographers are accompanied by detailed species descriptions which include nomenclature length plumage distribution habits and habitat The user friendly introduction covers climate vegetation biogeography and the main birdwatching sites The only guide to include a complete check list to the birds of Malaysia Historical Dictionary of Malaysia Ooi Keat Gin, 2017-12-18 Malaysia is one of the most intriguing countries in Asia in many respects It consists of several distinct areas not only geographically but ethnically as well along with Malays and related groups the country has a very large Indian and Chinese population The spoken languages obviously vary at home although Bahasa Malaysia is the official language and nearly everyone speaks English There is also a mixture of religions with Islam predominating among the Malays and others Hinduism and Sikhism among the Indians mainly Daoism and Confucianism among the Chinese but also some Christians as well as older indigenous beliefs in certain places This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Malaysia contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Malaysia Visitor's Guide to Kinabalu Park

Anthea Phillipps, Francis Shin Pin Liew, 2008-02 This comprehensive and practical guide is intended for any local or international visitor to Kinabalu Park in Sabah Eastern Malaysia It describes all the park's wildlife and plantlife including a full bird checklist and has practical information on access accommodation and facilities Tourism and Nature

Conservation in Malaysian National Parks Norman Backhaus, 2006 Malaysia features some of the most spectacular national parks in the world The parks most are hotspots of biodiversity have become a major attraction for foreign and increasingly domestic tourists Nature tourism is at the same time a source of revenues and a threat to the environmental integrity of conservation areas This study based on the theory of structuration and using a triangulation of methods analyses eco tourism in Malaysian national parks from different angles by asking different groups of tourists and experts about their opinions experiences and needs In order to learn more about the often neglected group of domestic tourists a large survey was conducted in Kuala Lumpur The needs of foreign individual and group travellers were analysed with a questionnaire in Gunung Mulu National Park And experts of conservation and tourism i e scientists park managers tour operators exponents of NGOs were asked to assess the state and potential of ecotourism in Malaysian national parks Results show that the increasing heterogeneity and number of visitors and their different needs can put a strain on the environmental integrity of conservation areas This study makes recommendations to mitigate such strains and to further sustainable tourism
